

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO. 261.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1900.

TWO CENTS

THE PIONEER DEAL CLOSED

Monroe Patterson Purchased the Pottery For Liverpool Parties.

NEW SWITCH TO BE BUILT

And the Capacity of the Plant Will Be Increased Two Kilns.

WELLSVILLE POTTERY COMPANY

The Pioneer pottery, of Wellsville, has been purchased by Monroe Patterson, of this city, and the property is now in his possession.

The final arrangements were made last night when the stockholders of the plant met and decided to abide by the proposition made to Mr. Patterson by I. B. Clark. The sale was fixed up at once and the pottery turned over to Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Patterson this morning stated that he had purchased the pottery for a company to be organized in this city, but that he was not now prepared to give out the names of the company, as all details were not complete, but that they would meet next week and organize.

The pottery will be put in good shape at once, but how soon it will be started depends largely on how long it will take to get in the new railroad switch, as it was purchased with the understanding that a switch would be put in and the matter will be investigated before the pottery is put in operation. Mr. Patterson stated that he didn't know whether he would start the plant unless the switch is put in.

The Pioneer is a four-kiln plant, but before it is put in operation another kiln and possibly two kilns will be built, making it a six-kiln factory. The price paid is not given out, and the only thing Mr. Patterson would say in regard to the matter was that he gave $1 and other valuable consideration for it. It is estimated that the property sold for not less than $25,000.

The name of the new company will probably be the Wellsville Pottery company, and will be capitalized at $100,000. They will manufacture white ware.

AN EDITOR.

Colonel Brewer, of the War Cry, Will Speak in This City Soon.

Colonel Brewer, editor of the War Cry, of New York, will deliver a lecture at the Salvation Army barracks in this city on the night of April 18, this coming. This will be the last meeting of the council before the annual takes place and as much business will be disposed of as possible. At the next meeting new members will be obligated and new members elected.

Seriously Ill.

Robert Quinn is seriously ill at his home in New Cumberland, and it is feared he will not live. His wife is a sister of Mrs. George P. Schmidt of this city.

To the Home.

The Odd Fellows are still finishing their trip to the Odd Fellows Home at Springfield, and it is probable all arrangements will be completed within a short time.

AN IRATE FATHER.

A Young Man From This City Called on a Girl in Pennsylvania, But Met Her Father.

A well known young man of the city now mourns the loss of his best girl. It all happened this way. He became acquainted with the young lady, who comes from a Pennsylvania town, and she came here to visit friends. The young man called one evening, but the friends with whom she was staying objected to his presence and the young lady went home the next day. The next report was that the pair were to be married. The rumor came to the ears of the young lady's father and when the young man called he was met at the door by the irate father and told to depart. He is now figuring how to get to see the girl without meeting the father, and many parties are awaiting developments.

SANITARY OFFICER BURGESS

Tells How They Used to Get Ahead of Prisoners at City Hall.

The fact that Mayor Davidson threatened to put George Cox at work on the streets caused Sanitary Officer Burgess to think of the time when he was mayor of the city, and he told the following story at city hall:

"We used to have a ball and chain at city hall and when we captured a stray he was led out on the streets to work. The chain was always made a little loose for his leg, and he would only work a short time and when he thought no one was looking he would slip it off and depart, thinking he had the best of the city government. That is just what we wanted, as he would never return under the circumstances."

SICK SINCE JANUARY.

Mattie Tegard Died at Midnight After Being Sick Four Months.

Mattie, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tegard, died at the home of her parents in the old Davidson house on Second street. She had been ill since January with a bad fever, and during the last few weeks was thought to be recovering. A hemorrhage of the lungs was the cause of her death. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be conducted by Dr. J. H. Interment will be in the new cemetery.

THE COUNCIL.

Will be Held Tomorrow

When Some Unfinished

Business Will be Disposed Of.

The council will meet tomorrow for a regular session, and it is expected that much business will be disposed of. This will be the last meeting of the council before the annual takes place and as much business will be disposed of as possible. At the next meeting new members will be obligated and new members elected.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pickal, of Jethro street, West End, a son.

STREETS SOON TO BE IMPROVED

President R. J. Marshall, of Council, Talks About Work For This Year.

THREE PROMINENT STREETS

Pennsylvania Avenue, Calcutta Road and Trentvale Street to Be Completed.

NEW COUNCIL WILL HAVE TO ACT

The question of improvements will come up in council very soon, but what action council will take is not known. Pennsylvania avenue and Calcutta road are still to be graded and paved, while Trentvale street is still to be paved out of the amount the people voted to expend on, those thoroughfares. Of course the amount, $6,000 to each road, will not complete the work. It is thought the property can be assessed enough to make up the difference.

Bids were taken for the grading and paving of Calcutta road and Pennsylvania avenue last fall, and Foley Bros., of Columbus, were the lowest bidders. They asked permission to let the matter stand until this spring, when they stated council could order them to go to work as soon as they wanted to. The matter will have to be gone over by the new council before any contract is let.

President Marshall, in discussing the matter, said he did not know what action council would take, but that he undoubtedly thought work on the improvements should be commenced as soon as possible, as the people voted for them and they should get what they voted for.

COUNTY CASES.

Infirmity Directors Are Not Caring for Any Cases of Sickness in the City.

There is not a case of sickness in the city at present that the county is caring for, and the last case to be discharged was Fleek, who was ill with pneumonia. The county has looked after many cases of illness in the city during the past winter and it far exceeds the cases of last year. The county physician has had his hands full for the last few months with county cases.

PAVE THE WHARF.

President Marshall Says the Necessary Cobble Stones Could Be Secured in East End.

President of Council Marshall thinks the plan to pave the Broadway wharf with cobble stones is a good one, and says it could be done with little expense to the city. He says all the cobble stones needed could be secured in his part of the city, but they won't come from Pennsylvania avenue.

National Club Dance.

The National club held a very pleasant reception and dance at their rooms in the First National bank building last night. The affair was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Garner, and the club members and their friends enjoyed an evening in music and dancing.

GOD BLESS HER.

She Discovered That She Had Been Saving Money for Sufferers in India.

Dr. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of East Liverpool, informs the News Review that the voluntary contributions to the India famine fund has been increased some twenty odd dollars during the past two days, and that those who wish to receive a blessing by helping these starving ones can do so before the fund is sent away, tomorrow at dinner time. You can leave your contributions, large or small, at the M. E. parsonage, Jackson street, next door to the church.

And right here comes an incident worthy of notice. A lady had been saving small sums of money for a long time, ever since the silver three-cent pieces went out of circulation. She had no special object in view, merely putting the small change aside for a nest egg or an emergency fund. After listening to Dr. Crawford's Sunday night appeal for the starving brothers and sisters in far off India, the lady informed her husband that, in her opinion, the emergency for the use of the stray pieces had materialized. The husband told her to do as she pleased with the fund, and the sum of seventeen dollars was passed over to Dr. Crawford, to be sent to India. God bless this true and kind-hearted woman. Are there not others who will follow in her footsteps? The necessity is an urgent one. Men, women and children are starving to death. In such a case, surely it is more blessed to give than to receive.

TO KENSINGTON.

The Remains of Abner R. Beebout Were Taken There Yesterday.

The remains of Abner R. Beebout, killed by a street car Saturday night, were taken to Kensington yesterday afternoon and the funeral services will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. No word has yet been received from his wife for the reason that the telegraph company did not deliver the message sent her Sunday morning. Undertaker Haugh, of Wellsville, when he learned the address of Beebout's widow at once telegraphed notifying her of his death. The address given was Friendly, W. Va., and the undertaker guaranteed all expenses in delivering the message, as it was known that Mrs. Beebout resided about six miles from Friendly. Last evening Mr. Haugh received word from the company that the message was not delivered because $1 was needed to foot the expenses to carry it to its destination. Mr. Haugh once more guaranteed all expenses and word was sent to Friendly.

A Chicken Ordinance.

Alliance has a new chicken ordinance. It seems that the owners of chickens and ducks in that village have allowed their feathered pets to promenade around promiscuously with resulting damage to the property of those who didn't own poultry. Accordingly the new city council will devote its earliest attention to the passage of an "ordinance regulating chickens and ducks," with a penalty of $25 for violation.

Adjusted the Loss.

Mr. Crable, of the Orient Insurance company, of Hartford, Conn., was in the city today adjusting the loss sustained by Edward Hassey during the fire at the postoffice.

HE HAS BEEN HERE BEFORE

Many a Time, Sang Officers Wood and McDonald as They Landed

CHONGEYE IN THE CITY JAIL

He Was Engaged In a Fight Near the Dresden Yesterday Afternoon.

HIS BILL WAS ONLY $6.60.

Police business was not very heavy yesterday, but it was better than it has been for some time, and Mayor Davidson disposed of the two cases before him in a short time.

The celebrated Chongeye Gallagher, who has behaved himself for some time, got on a rampage yesterday afternoon and the first thing he knew he was engaged in a fight near the Dresden pottery. The patrol was called and Officers Wood and McDonald responded. Chongeye was still on the scene and he was gathered in. The party with whom he had been fighting, made a short cut across Sheridan avenue to escape, but the patrol went after him and he was gathered in and taken to the city jail. Mayor Davidson fined Chongeye $6.60, but he didn't have the cash and is still in jail waiting for some one to call and pay up for him. The mayor hasn't decided how he will dispose of him if he doesn't pay up. The other party paid up and was released.

GOOD WORDS.

A Trade Paper Speaks of the Success of F. I. Simmers as a Traveler.

F. I. Simmers, salesman for McKee & Bros.' glass works of the National Glass company, has tendered his resignation to that company to accept a position with the East Liverpool Pottery company of East Liverpool, O. Mr. Simmers sold a special line of packers' goods and always had great success on the road. To his ingenuity is attributed the origin of McKee & Bros.' famous barnyard assortment of opal novelties as well as several popular decorated opal specialties. He is a great favorite with the trade and has a host of friends who wish him success in his new calling.—China, Glass and Lamps.

MRS. J. W. K. HODGE.

Wife of a Georgetown Minister Died Sunday Morning After a Short Illness.

Mrs. J. W. K. Hodge, wife of Rev. Hodge, of the Georgetown (Pa.) Methodist Episcopal church, died at her home Sunday morning after a short illness. The funeral services, conducted by Dr. Clark Crawford, of the First M. E. church of this city, were held this afternoon. Interment was made in the Georgetown cemetery.

Business is Slow.

Business in the court of Justice McLane is very slow and no cases have been entered for several days. Two cases were to have been tried yesterday afternoon, but none of the interested parties appeared.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

Mrs. Harry Meanor, of East Palestine, is spending a few days here visiting friends. The family will remove here shortly, Mr. Meanor having taken a position at the National pottery. They will live in their own house on St. George street.

The quarterly conference of the Second Methodist Episcopal church will be held Saturday evening, April 28. The services will be conducted by Dr. Holmes, presiding elder of the Steubenville district of the Methodist Episcopal conference.

Dr. W. E. Mowen, who has been in Deerfield since last week, returned to his home last evening.

Henry Mushenheimer will not leave for the Alum Cliff farm until the first of the month. Some of the family are now at the farm.

The Epworth League society of the Second Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the church next Thursday evening for the purpose of nominating new officers. The election will be held on the evening of May 3.

W. E. Finney, who has been confined to his home on St. George street with a severe attack of grip, was able to be up today.

Alexander Marshall has moved from St. George street and is now residing on Needham avenue in a house formerly occupied by John Seagrigh.

A committee of trustees of the Second M. E. church, together with the Ladies' Aid society, met last evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Hays, on St. George street, for the purpose of arranging for improving the interior of the church.

William Orin, of First avenue, is able to be out after a serious illness, but is not able to resume his work.

A meeting of the stewards of the Second M. E. church will be held this evening at the home of Rev. George W. Orcutt, of Boyce avenue.

Mrs. Isabel McDade is recovering from a severe illness.

L. O. Jones left this morning for Wheeling, where he will remain a few days on business.

Charles Foutts and Margaret Strauss were married at the home of the bride's parents at Salineville yesterday.

Two persons united with the Second Presbyterian church last Sunday.

BASKET BALL.

The High School Team Defeated the Printers at the Gym

Last Night.

The High School basket ball team closed their season last night by defeating the printers in a close and exciting game by a score of 18 to 5. The printers were ahead at the end of the first half, but the High School boys by fine playing managed to overtake them and win the game. The High School during the season just closed won five and lost two games. This was the first game of the printers and they played unusually good basket ball for a new team.

Lisbon Graduates.

Lisbon's high school will, on the evening of May 18, graduate a class of eight. The class is composed of Misses Georgia Treffinger, Leora Lee, Jessie Dorrance and Messrs. Charles Carnes, Fred. Bennetts, Rollin Sipe, Frank Crook and Herman Patterson. Commencement will be held in Smiley's opera house.

Largest Pay.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special.)—The semi-monthly monthly pay at the Beaver tin mill Saturday was a record breaker, in that it was the largest pay ever paid out since the erection of the plant. The full pay amounted in all to $14,016.

SOUTH SIDE.

B. I. Hilliard, for many years employed by the Patterson Machine company, has resigned his position with that company and is now employed as a blacksmith by the Chester Rolling Mill company. When the mill starts Hilliard will be given charge of one of the furnaces.

Thomas T. Bambrick, who spent Sunday in New Cumberland visiting relatives, returned yesterday.

The Chester Mechanics, at their meeting last evening, transacted much business and initiated several candidates.

The Western Union telegraph line-men have completed the construction of the line along the extension, and everything is in readiness to make connection with the office. For the present it is said a portion of the mill office will be used for telegraph purposes.

Harry Moore, who is now connected with the Congo News, said yesterday he intended to start a paper in Chester soon.

E. S. Johnson yesterday sold a large lot to G. H. Grandstaff, of Georgetown. He will erect a modern frame dwelling on the lot during the summer.

A telephone of the United States company has been placed in the toll house. This is something that has been long needed.

William Bowers has taken a position as motorman with the street railway company, and has been placed in charge of the Chester car. Motorman James McKinnon is still confined to his home in the East End with rheumatism.

John Cunningham, of Salem, spent Easter in Chester visiting relatives.

Contractor Thomas McLaughlin went to Pittsburgh Sunday to secure a number of laborers to work on the grading contracts he has on this side of the river.

The large engine at the rolling mill has been placed in position and will be ready to be placed in operation as soon as the steam connections have been made. The engine is the largest piece of machinery in the county and is a handsome piece of work.

Stonemasons have about completed the erection of the abutments for the bridge to be built over Mark's run.

Workmen have begun filling in the approaches to the Third street bridge. Their work will be finished within the next 10 days.

President Banfield, of the Chester Street Railway company, was in the city yesterday, and when informed that only one car was run on the line Sunday, said: "I don't think the present conditions will last very long. There should be two cars on the road by all means."

THIS WEEK.

Water Works Department Will Get Started on the Fourth Street Improvement.

The water works department will commence work on the Fourth street improvement this week. The work will take 2,000 feet of six-inch pipe and will cost about $2,000. All the cross street connections will be put in and there will be a great deal of excavating to be done. It will be completed as soon as possible.

Nonogenarian Dead.

Lisbon, April 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. Lydia Miller died early this morning. She was over 90 years of age and the mother of George L. and D. M. Miller, merchants of Lisbon.

Court Opens.

Lisbon, April 17.—(Special.)—Common pleas court opened yesterday at 1 p. m., Judge Gilmer, of Warren, presiding.

CATCHING SMELTS.

How the Little Fish Are Hooked Through the Ice.

The smelts are all caught with hook and line, says the Bangor Commercial. Taking them otherwise, such as by seine, would be regarded by the fishermen here as a great wrong. The fishing is all done in tents, the tents being about six feet long, five feet wide and high enough for a man to stand up in them.

These tents are covered with cloth, heated by a stove and lighted usually by a lantern. I have known the temperature of my tent to vary, however, 60 degrees within ten minutes during a cold day.

A hole about six feet long and eight inches wide is cut in the ice and the tent set lengthwise of this. Six lines attached to a pole fastened to the plates of the tent hang into the water nearly eight inches apart. These lines during fishing hours are always kept in motion.

The way the fishermen handle these lines, how they can bait the hooks and slat smelts, when, as they say, they are "taking holt," is certainly wonderful. I have known one man to catch 100 pounds in less than one hour. This means at least 1,000 fish, or about 17 a minute. One smelter has been known to catch 500 pounds during one tide's fishing.

Some have made $25 to $30 a day and others $200 in a few weeks. But these big catches are only made by those expert in fishing. The chances are that a green hand would starve the first winter if dependent wholly on what fish he caught.

PULLMAN PARLOR CARS.

Improving the Train Service to Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Pennsylvania Lines.

New Pullman parlor cars have taken the place of the parlor cars running on trains Nos. 337 and 338, between Pittsburgh and Cleveland over the Pennsylvania lines. The new cars are the latest pattern turned out by the Pullman company and are finished and furnished in a substantial manner. They have roomy and comfortable revolving arm chairs, wide plate glass windows, commodious smoking apartment and a large retiring room for ladies. This room is fitted up with dresser and plate glass mirror. The new cars leave East Liverpool for Cleveland at 2:49 p. m. and for Pittsburgh at 7:04 p. m., central time, week days.

How to Get a Genial Dog.

A vagrant dog, particularly a cur with seven or eight different strains of common dog in him, is the best kind of a dog to own. He is always smiling and wagging his tail at you, and his appreciation of little favors is only equaled by his appetite. A fancy dog with a blue ribbon around his neck is always looking for an opportunity to snap at children. If you kept a dog, we would keep a yellow one, purchased as a pup from a negro boy.—Atchison Globe.

A Coffee Hint.

A French housekeeper says that in her country it is an invariable rule to add a little butter and powdered sugar to coffee beans while they are roasting. A very small piece of butter is needed to the pound, a bit perhaps as large as a hazelnut, and not more than a teaspoonful of powdered sugar. This treatment is the secret of the pleasant burned sugar flavor in French coffee.

FRAUD ALLEGED BY SULZER.

Broad Assertion Regarding Signatures to a Coeur d'Alene Petition.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—At the Coeur d'Alene investigation an exciting controversy occurred when the petition to the secretary of war from several hundred citizens of the Coeur d'Alene district asking for the retention of federal troops was presented in evidence. Representative Sulzer denounced the petition as "bogus and fraudulent," declaring that many of the signatures were forgeries and that other names had been secured by intimidation.

He asked to introduce affidavits attacking the petition, but after an animated conversation these were ruled out, the vote being on party lines. A motion by Mr. Sulzer calling on the president for affidavits bearing on the petition was similarly voted down by the committee.

Fatally Burned by Explosion.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 17.—By an explosion of molten metal at the furnace of the Ohio plant of the National Steel company, James Johnston, Wallace Alexander and Prockett Smith were terribly burned, the first two named probably fatally. The explosion was caused by the hot metal flowing into a water trough.

Rev. Dr. Rutledge Dead.

JACKSONVILLE, Ills., April 17.—The Rev. William J. Rutledge, of Jacksonville, Ills., died, aged 86. He is credited with being the first to suggest the idea of the Grand Army of the Republic, which was afterward carried into effect by Dr. Ben F. Stevenson.

$30,000 for Church Work.

YORK, Pa., April 17.—Easter gifts aggregating $30,000 for the work of church extension were announced here by General Secretary Rev. H. H. Weber, of the General Council of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Killed While Using a Telephone.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 17.—B. Wilson, superintendent of the man institute at Tuscaloosa, was killed by lightning while using a telephone during a thunderstorm.

Old London Sundays.

We have got it into our heads that Sunday was better observed in the puritanical acceptance of the three or four generations back than it is now. It was quite otherwise. The great ladies when Queen Victoria came to the throne—the Duchess of Wellington, the Duchess of Rutland, the Marchioness of Salisbury, the Lady Hyde Parker, the Misses Walpole—had regular card parties on a Sunday, and there were concerts and receptions all over the town announced with becoming regularity in The Morning Post.—Saturday Review.

AFTER THE OPERA TRAIN.

During the grand opera season in Pittsburgh, April 16, 17 and 18, special train arrangements will be made for the return of persons attending from New Castle, Steubenville and intermediate stations on the Pennsylvania lines; also from Wellsville, East Liverpool and stations on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division.

On the above dates train No. 341, which leaves Pittsburgh union station at 12 o'clock, midnight, city time, for Cleveland, and train No. 47, which leaves the union station at 11:40 p. m., city time, for Steubenville, will be held until after the opera.

THE S. G. HARD CO.

VODREY AND HILL ARE RE-ELECTED

President and Clerk of the Board of Education at the New Organization.

SICKNESS AMONG SCHOLARS

Supt. Rayman Says There Has
Been More of Late Than Any Time

SINCE HE CAME TO THIS CITY.

The old board of education met last evening and held a very short session indeed. All the members were present except J. H. Smith, from East End.

Clerk Hill read a letter from Colonel John N. Taylor, of the Carnegie library board, thanking the school board for their offer of the use of the directors' room for meeting purposes.

The result of the election for school director was read by the clerk, after which the report of Superintendent Rayman was read as presented in this paper last evening. In speaking of the work being done in the schools Mr. Rayman said: "The work is moving along in a good manner, but during the last two months a larger number of scholars have been absent than at any time since I came here. The majority are being kept away on account of sickness, many being ill with typhoid fever. This, in a way, is interfering with the progress of the work, but those scholars who are at school are progressing rapidly."

The commencement night was set for June 1, leaving only seven more weeks of school.

The clerk was instructed to prepare the school tax levy for next year. The levy will be made on a valuation of $3,422,980. The school levy last year was 11½ mills and 3-10 mills for library purposes.

The semi-annual report of Clerk W. B. Hill was read as follows:

Repairs and plumbing.....	$ 163 70
Fuel	1,202 93
Supplies of all kinds.....	1,194 04
Freight and hauling.....	146 28
New work on buildings—
Grant street	5,695 00
Pleasant Heights	995 00
Sixth street	1,635 00
Grant street	680 00
Fire escapes	598 00
Helana building	1,852 00
Sundries	477 00
New desks	725 00
School books	2,806 82
Total	$18,770 77

The old board then adjourned sine die.

The new members, W. E. Wells, George C. Murphy, L. O. Williams and Oliver C. Vodrey, were then sworn in.

Dr. J. C. Taggart was elected temporary chairman and the election of officers by ballot resulted as follows:

For president Oliver C. Vodrey 5, Dr. J. C. Taggart 1, and for clerk Walter B. Hill was elected unanimously.

The bills ordered paid were: Andy

Rattray, $3; Robert Hall, $7; James McCormick, $4.20; Watson & Sloan, 75 cents; Ceramic City Light company, $17.81; J. M. McKinney, $5.50; Mary Copestick, $11.25.

Mr. Murphy asked the new officers to make a speech, to which Mr. Vodrey said: "I thank the board for the honor they have thrust upon me, and will try to do my duty. I am not much of a speechmaker, and for that reason I will take my seat."

Clerk Hill was busy and failed to respond, and after Mr. Wells had been called upon he said that he preferred to do no talking tonight, and that the board would probably hear from him before the year was out.

When the meeting adjourned Superintendent Rayman brought in a bag of apples. Some of the members took one, others two and then all went home.

PITY THE DUMB BRUTE.

Sample of the Saloon's Work Seen on
Yesterday.

There were three brutes interested; but the dumb brute was the one to be pitied. The other two were human beings, rendered brutal through the influence of the devil's broth, known as beer, rum, brandy or whisky, or any other grade or class of intoxicants sold over the saloon bars in this prosperous city of East Liverpool. The drunken men were made still more drunken by a brutal and greedy saloonkeeper, in absolute defiance of the law, as the keeper of the den gave them more drink at his bar, when one of the couple was so drunk that he could scarcely stand without assistance. As they emerged from the saloon they succeeded in clambering into their vehicle, making use of such awful profanity and vulgarity as to cause a decent man to shudder. Then the most intoxicated attempted to drive the poor horse entrusted to their care, and they beat and abused the dumb brute in the most heartless manner, urging it forward and then forcing it backward with the aid of the cruel bit, backing the horse over the pavement and narrowly escaping upsetting the vehicle. The saloonkeeper stuck to his den, fearful that he might embroil himself in the meshes of the law, and a woman in the neighborhood finally interfered, coaxed the drunker of the two to alight from the vehicle and persuaded him to enter an adjoining domicile with her. About the close of the program, Marshal Thompson made his appearance on the scene of action, clambered into the buggy and drove away with the least drunken one of the couple. "Drunk and disorderly, profane, vulgar and brutal," should be entered up against both men, and they be punished to the limit, while the saloonkeeper should be sent to the workhouse for selling intoxicants to men when in the condition this couple were.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This In East Liverpool.

Scores of people in East Liverpool can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

Mrs. William James, who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins up under my shoulder blades and rheumatic pains in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes of the weather and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a frequent fluttering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, obtained instant relief and finally a cure."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn & Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

"BEER SIGNS."

When you see young men lounging around a saloon door, on Sixth street or elsewhere, you have the right to brand them as beer signs. They are certainly not the class of young men that a sensible business man in any legitimate enterprise, desires to employ. They will never give a fair day's work for a fair day's wage. They represent the undesirable class known as loafers.

CHICANERY.

When a so-called union paper breaks faith in every respect, giving orders for shoes, hardware, furniture, clothing, dress goods, groceries, and even tombstones, in way of payment to employees, when cash or checks are absolutely ordered by the union under which it purports to be working, then that sheet is unworthy the respect or esteem or patronage of any true unionist or lover of truth and fair play.

NOT UNIONISM.

When a so-called union or labor organization becomes our oppressor, unfair and unjust in its demands, mistaking might for right, and glorying in its shame, it is simply sowing seed which will raise grass for its grave and burial, and no fair minded man will express a regret when the ugly corpse is borne away to its merited grave, while the officials of such a misnomer will be cursed as the cause of sorrow to men who failed to appreciate their best friends.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

The drunken man who maltreated a horse yesterday in this city should be arrested and made to pay a heavy fine. The conduct of the fellow in question was simply outrageous from every standpoint, and his language was redolent of brimstone. He is a young man, once well and favorably known in this community, until the dregs of the accursed saloon assailed his life. He is worth saving, and if he possesses true manhood, he will at once bar the curse of intoxicants from his life. The saloonist who yesterday sold him liquor, while the wretched man was simply an irresponsible being, deserves to be cowhided and afterward given six months imprisonment, at hard labor, with the chain gang.

GOOD INVESTMENT.

The improvement of the main avenues of the city is a good investment. President Marshall has been more or less joked about his anxiety to secure the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue, but he has shown the part of wisdom and has proven as solicitous for the improvement of all the main thoroughfares as he has been for his own district. The hill road to East End is the proper thoroughfare connecting city and suburb and should have received attention long ago. Our main avenues properly paved, under wise economy, are beneficial to and a good investment on the part of the public at large. Work should be done through bids, given to the lowest responsible bidder. All legitimate improvements are decidedly a good feature for the city.

THE BITER BITTEN.

The Canton Democrat waxes funny, sour and sarcastic at the expense of one J. Palmer O'Neil, a gentleman who at one time, not long since, endeavored to erect a mammoth hotel at the corner of Washington and Fifth streets, East Liverpool. The supposititious owner of the Canton Democrat attempted to use J. Palmer O'Neil as a chestnut puller, and put up a very elaborate and cunning plot along this line. Is it not barely possible that the astute manipulator had his fingers scorched by coming into too close contact with his trusted employee? The article in the Canton sheet bears strong presumptory evidence that the biter has been bitten. Low cunning may win for a season, but cunning and trickery and chicanery are not positive evidence that the possessor is heavily laden with good gray matter.

TO ALLIANCE.

A Large Number of Persons Left This Morning to Attend the Convention.

A large delegation of East Liverpool people left this morning for Alliance, where they attended the congressional convention. The delegates were: W. E. Wells, W. H. Vodrey, Geo. E. Davidson, Patrick McNicol, John Cartwright, J. N. Rose, Geo. W. Ashbaugh, Milton Logan, George Peach, Frank Milligan, Dr. R. J. Marshall, S. M. Ferguson, J. H. Simms, Criss McConnell, H. P. McCarron, A. T. Kelly.

Among others who made the trip were: A. J. Johnson, D. J. Smith, E. H. Sebring, H. Harker, Walter B. Hill and Thomas McNicol.

TAYLER NAMED BY ACCLAMATION

Baker's Name Was Not Presented at Alliance Convention This Morning.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTOR

Goes to Stark and Julius Whiting, Jr., Gets It—National Delegates Morgan and Butler.

COL. H. R. HILL AN ALTERNATE.

Alliance, April 17.—(Special.)—The Republican congressional convention of the Eighteenth district of Ohio met this morning in Craven's opera house. Practically all of the 251 delegates were present or represented by alternates.

Many of the politicians had come in overnight and therest have been arriving all morning. The fact that R. W. Tayler's renomination was assured robbed the meeting of any sensational features, but it was none the less interesting. There were other honors to be divided, the selection of a presidential elector and delegates and alternates to the national Republican convention at Philadelphia June 19.

The Columbiana county delegation organized by the election of S. J. Firestone, of Lisbon, as chairman and C. C. Connell, of Lisbon, as secretary. Ed. A. King, of Lisbon, was named as member of the congressional committee; R. J. Marshall, of East Liverpool, on permanent organization; H. S. Winsper, of Unity township, on credential committee; J. H. Simms, East Liverpool, on committee on resolutions; John B. Morgan, of Salem township, on committee on rules, and G. D. Evans, for vice president.

Stark county delegation organized by electing A. T. McCarthy chairman; H. S. Harter, of Canton, on congressional committee; Charles A. Mervin, committee on permanent organization; Austin A. Hay, committee on credentials; F. E. Case, resolutions committee, and John J. Humberger on rules committee.

Stark county also nominated Julius Whiting, jr., of Canton, for presidential elector, and Colonel W. H. Morgan, of Alliance, for national delegate.

Mahoning county delegation elected M. A. Norris chairman; W. R. Stewart, secretary; C. B. Wick, congressional committee; E. Hartzell, committee on permanent organization; F. A. Hartenstein on credentials committee; H. R. Justice, committee on resolutions.

Mahoning endorsed J. B. Butler for national delegate and William Cornelius as alternate.

Convention Meets.

When the convention met the congressional committee reported H. S. Harter, of Canton, for temporary chairman and E. M. Stanley, of Sebring as secretary. The committee on permanent organization recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent.

The credentials committee reported everything regular and no contests. Chairman Harter in opening briefly thanked the convention for the honor done him, referred to the magnificent record of fulfilled pledges made by the Republican party, and suggested that the convention get right down to business.

Ex-Mayor James A. Martin, of Lisbon, placed Mr. Tayler's name in nomination. He dwelt upon the eminent services rendered to the party and the country by the congressman, instancing the conscientious work done by Mr. Tayler during his three terms in congress, and especially referring to the lustre which he had shed upon himself and his district by his able handling of the Roberts' case. He urged especially upon the convention the desirability of keeping a good man when they had got him, and told how much more useful an experienced man was as a representative in the halls of congress than a new man could possibly be. Mr. Tayler was in every way worthy the confidence shown in him by the people of the district and had a brilliant future before him.

David Harding, of Stark county, a Baker delegate, arose and seconded the nomination in a brief address. He was followed by M. A. Norris, of Mahoning, who spoke earnestly of Mr. Tayler's services and national reputation.

By Acclamation.

Hon. C. C. Baker's name was not presented to the convention and Congressman Tayler was renominated by acclamation.

Julius Whiting, jr., of Canton, was named for presidential elector without opposition.

J. G. Butler, of Mahoning, and Col. W. H. Morgan, of Alliance, were named delegates to the national Republican convention unopposed.

Col. H. R. Hill, of East Liverpool, and William Cornelius, of Youngstown, were named alternates.

The permanent congressional committee was composed of: Ed. A. King, of Columbiana; C. B. Wick, of Mahoning, and Judge J. P. Fawcett, of Stark.

The Resolutions.

The resolutions adopted by the convention were brief, but expressive of the faith of the party.

Congratulating the nation upon the unparalleled prosperity which the country has enjoyed under Republican administration, the convention reaffirmed the declaration of principles laid down in the St. Louis platform; commended the wise, patriotic and statesmanlike administration of William McKinley; endorsed the course of Senators Foraker and Hanna and the state administration of George K. Nash, concluding with a hearty appreciation of the efficient services in congress of their energetic and patriotic representative, Hon. R. W. Tayler.

NO BIDS RECEIVED

By the Vestry for the Construction of the New St. Stephen's Church.

The vestry of St. Stephen's Episcopal church met last evening at the residence of Rev. Edwin Weary, Fourth street, for the purpose of letting the contract for the erection of the new church. No bids were presented and this afternoon the building committee held a meeting for the purpose of trying to induce the contractors to bid on the work.

Easterners have an erroneous impression about the vast plains country that stretches eastward from the flanks of the Rockies to the wheatfields of the Dakotas. It is a region where crimes are far less numerous in proportion to population than they are in the densely settled regions of the eastern and middle states.

If the sombreroed ruffians with pistols and knives in their boots and cartridge belts around their waists are not in the cattle country, where, then, are they to be found? Where are those Alkali Ike, Lariat Bills, et al., who fire at the decanters in barrooms and at the silk hats of tenderfoot strangers—the villainous desperadoes whose lynching bees and other harrowing anecdotes make up considerable of the stock in trade of our eastern comic illustrators? I do not know.

For many years I have wandered through the great northwest on horseback, stagecoach and in canoes, as well as in the palatial Pullman sleeper of the great transcontinental lines, and I have never discovered any of the fierce, bewhiskered dime novel heroes. During all my travels in the Dakotas, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and British Columbia I have never seen a man hurt or witnessed any sort of row, and I would feel much safer to strike across the mountains or plains alone on a broncho and unarmed than I would to walk up Clark street at night in Chicago—St. Paul Globe.

DAYTON HOME.

One of the Veterans Speaks In Warm
Terms of Praise of This Grand Home.

Joseph McCoy, of 197 Ravine street, is home on a 30-day furlough from the Soldiers' Home at Dayton. Mr. McCoy was a member of the famous 62d Pa.
Infantry, commanded by Colonel Samuel Black, once a famous lawyer of Pittsburg, and the son of one of the brightest and grandest Presbyterian ministers ever known in the Pittsburg presbytery. Colonel Sam. Black was killed at the Gaines Mill fight on the peninsula, in front of Richmond, the second day's fight of the famous seven-days' conflict. The manager of the News Review was shot through the body on the same field where the gallant Black gave up his life for his country.

Mr. McCoy speaks in unstinted terms of praise of the Dayton Home, and asserts that it is a paradise on earth to the veteran who behaves himself. The man who smuggles liquor into the Home, gets his walking papers instantly and steps outside of the paradise. This rule is imperative, as the presence of the accursed drink among the 6,000 veterans would make it a hell on earth.

The food is the very best and the bedding and beds unexcelled, those in charge believing in the adage that cleanliness is akin to godliness. The Home is surrounded by beautiful plants and flowers, carefully cultured and looked after. Good behavior entitles the soldier to a pass every other day.

Colonel J. B. Thomas is governor of the Home, and himself and wife are held in the highest esteem by the vets.
Mrs. McCoy, wife of the treasurer of the Home, is a noble woman, fairly worshipped by the men of the civil war.

All innocent games are permitted.
Cards are barred and gambling of every description absolutely prohibited.
There is a fine reading room, splendid bath rooms, gymnasium and other features of health exercise. Those who can do light work are permitted to do so, and they are paid for their services.

Religious services are held every Sabbath, with devotional exercises during the week. During the summer or warm season, evangelists visit the Home, and seats are provided in the woods for the accommodation of the vets, and their visitors by the management of the establishment.

Space forbids fuller mention of this model Home at this time. Suffice it to say that the place is a credit to Uncle Samuel and to the state of Ohio.

Wellsville Congregation Petition Court For Permission to Carry Out the

PROVISIONS OF THE WILL

Of Alexander McLaughlin by Which All Churches in Steubenville Presbytery.

WILL BENEFIT BY THE DIVISION.

Lisbon, April 17.—(Special.)—The board of trustees of the First Associate Reform church and society in Wellsville, O., a congregation of the United Presbyterian church of North America, has filed a petition for authority to sell lot 52 in Wellsville, the same having been devised to the church by the will of Alexander Mc-Laughlin, who died in 1880. The will provided that for the first seven years after the testator's death the rents and profits should be applied to the church debt of the Wellsville congregation; that thereafter it was to be divided equally between it and the Steuvenville presbytery of the U. P. church; but that, if at any time during the first 20 years the lot should not yield enough income to justify its care, the Wellsville congregation should sell the lot, pay off its church debt and divide the balance as directed in the will, and under this provision this application has been made.

ON THE RIVER.

Ohio Is Falling and Boats May Have Some Trouble in Navigating.

Unless there is an early rise in the river it is probable packets will have trouble in navigation. The water is receding rapidly and the weather bureau predicts a further fall. The marks at the wharf today registered 7 feet and falling.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to extend our thanks to the members of the Plumbers' local,

Cure For Pneumonia.

Take six to ten onions, according to size, and chop fine; put in a large spider over a hot fire, then add about the same quantity of rye meal and vinegar enough to make it a thick paste. In the meanwhile stir it thoroughly, letting it simmer five or ten minutes.
Then put in a cotton bag large enough to cover the lungs and apply it to the chest as hot as the patient can bear.
When it gets cool, apply another and thus continue by reheating the poultices. In a few hours the patient will be out of danger.

This simple remedy has never failed in this too often fatal malady.

Usually three or four applications will be sufficient, but continue always until perspiration starts freely from the chest.

This simple remedy was formulated many years ago by one of the best physicians New England has ever known, who never lost a patient by this disease and won his renown by saving persons by simple remedies after the best medical talent had pronounced their cases hopeless. Personally we know of three persons who were saved by the remedy last winter in Boston after their physicians had given them up to die, and if a record was made of all similar cases during the last six years it would fill a good sized volume.—"The World's Progress."

An American Reporter.

They have a reporter on one of the Williamsburg papers who may not be much on style, but for placid, nervy "get there" he is a jewel. A little while ago he was assigned to a political meeting and asked to give a good report of it. Now, it happened that the festivities were conducted entirely in Polish, a language of which the young man knows nothing. This fact, however, did not faze him a bit. He made his way through the hall, pushed up to the platform and sat down with the secretary. For several minutes he industriously took notes and finally the secretary, turning to him, pumped out a volley of Polish.

"I am not in it, dear boy," retorted the young man as he turned again to listen to the speaker.

The secretary looked surprised. Finally he went out and brought in a man who asked in English:

"Are you a Polish reporter?"

"Nope," was the reply. "I am an American one."

"Do you understand our language?"

"I never heard it before," retorted the scribbler, "but I think I have picked up enough since I have been here to give a rattling good story."

And he did.—New York Press.

Ancient Cattle and Butchering.

The earliest records of Egypt depict a butcher cutting up an ox, exactly as it is done today outside of the great slaughtering establishments, with a knife that he sharpened upon a steel that hung at his side and providing cuts of meat precisely like ours.
They used leather, and they did better tanning than we do; the blood, instead of being processed into fertilizing, was used for cooking purposes, and our Spanish friends never see a better bull-fight than was daily purveyed for the delectation of those ancient "sports."

A little later in the world's history we find records of tricks being played in the cattle trade, for do not some historians aver that Jacob exercised undue influence upon the cows of La-ban's herds as well as upon the ewes of his flocks? And others tell us that Zaph-u-to—otherwise known as "Joseph the Wise," stockbroker in chief course, was not known in the deal-cornered the cattle as well as the grain

Infant Baptisms In Russia.

"I was fortunate enough," writes Trumbull White, "to visit the Church of St. David, in Tiflis, Russia, just in time to attend a baptismal ceremony.
According to the rites of the Greek church, as practiced in this ancient Georgian temple, the youngster in question, a fine boy 4 or 5 weeks old, had to be immersed three times in a baptismal font filled with water, each time to be completely covered, in addition to various blessings and anoint-ings with holy oil and several long prayers.

"The benevolent looking old priest proved himself a man of kindly thoughtfulness. While the family group around the baby was getting him properly unclad, for the ceremony requires that the child shall be naked, the priest surreptitiously dipped his finger into the font, and I saw by his face that it was too cold. Then he stepped behind a screen, where his samovar was steaming, emptied the hot water into a pitcher, and while the family still kept busy over the baby he poured enough to temper the pool that had been provided for the shorn lamb. The result was that the little fellow took his plunges without a murmur and thereby distinguished himself."—Chi-

"Paradise Billed Down."

A tourist tells how he traveled with a young couple evidently on their honey-moon, and the passengers in that particular carriage were on the grin most of the time over their antics.

The bride had got the man she loved, and she didn't care who saw her put her head on his shoulder. The bridegroom had got a farm with his wife, and if he wanted to feed her on sweets or squeeze her hand whose business was it?

A little old man sat directly opposite the couple, and he looked at them so often that the young husband finally explained:

"We've just got married."

"I knowed it all the time," chuckled the other.

"And we can't help it, you know."

"No, you can't. I'll be blown if you can't."

"I presume it all seems very silly to an old man like you," continued the husband.

"Does it? Does it?" cackled the old fellow. "Well, I can tell you it does not, then. I've been there three times over, and now I'm on my way to marry a fourth. Silly! Why, children, it's paradise billed down!"—London Fun.

Packing For Moving.

"If you will only pack things in small boxes," says the woman who knows how to move, "you will have the men who move you in a comparatively beatific state of mind; books, for instance. It is strange, but every woman who has books to move immediately gets the biggest box she can find for them. Books are heavy anyway, and big boxes are liable to break with their weight, and it is almost impossible to move them. They will fit just as well into small, square boxes in which packages of starch or oatmeal have come, and they will pack into the moving van better, and the men can handle great numbers of them with little trouble."—New York

PLANS FOR M'KINLEY.

Outline of Coming Republican Platform.

EXPANSION THE LEADING FEATURE.

The Party to Declare Itself in No Uncertain Terms—Belief in Gold Standard to Be Reiterated—Other Points of the Philadelphia Platform.

CHICAGO, April 17.—A special to a local paper from Washington said: Administration leaders have agreed upon the issues and articles of Republican faith which will be incorporated in the national platform to be submitted to the Philadelphia convention for ratification. A rough draft of the Republican party creed has been accepted by Republican leaders of the senate and Republican national committeemen. The opening declaration will be a hearty endorsement of President McKinley and a tribute to his personal management of the most brilliant military and naval achievements of the close of the century. Unqualified approval will be accorded to all the administrative acts.

The establishment of a gold standard will be dwelt upon, and a plank will be devoted to a renewed allegiance to the gold standard. The keynote of the platform will be the expansion issue. A strong, clear utterance in favor of the retention of the Philippines and of a vigorous foreign policy will be delivered. There will be no positive affirmation of the right of this government to govern the Philippines. That will be left for future adjudication. The policy of protection will be affirmed, and the platform will pledge the party to the support of the doctrine of reciprocity.

A greater merchant marine and liberal pension laws will be demanded and the Monroe doctrine reasserted. The Nicaraguan canal will be supported if no action is taken at this session of congress. The developments of the near future in Cuba and the outcome of the municipal elections next month will largely shape the policy toward that island. Among other planks in the platform will be one in favor of an augmented navy, others in favor of civil service, free homesteads, restriction on immigration and temperance and woman suffrage will also have a place in the platform.

ASKS $10,000 FOR DEWEY.

President Wants Him Paid For His Work as Philippine Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Complying with a resolution of inquiry, the president sent to the senate an itemized statement of the expenses of the Philippine commission. The statement includes the following items:

Compensation of $10,000 each to Commissioners Schurman, Worcester and Denby, $30,000; per diem allowance to commissioners after their return to the United States, $5,285; secretary to commission (compensation), $8,500; per diem ($3,660), $12,220; transportation, $13,687; household expenses in Manila, $9,252; clerical services, $31,701; miscellaneous, $14,998. Total, $117,185.

The president also transmitted, with his endorsement, a recommendation from Secretary Hay that provision be made for payment to the naval and military members of the commission (Admiral Dewey and General Otis) at the same rate as that paid to the other members. He says they have received nothing for their services in excess of their regular salaries.

THE REBEL LOSS 160.

Insurgents Repulsed, Having Attacked American Garrison, at Batoc.

MANILA, April 17.—General Young reported that 300 insurgent riflemen and Bolomen attacked the American garrison at Batoc, province of North Ilocos, but were repulsed, losing 160 men. The Americans had no casualties.

REBELS SURPRISED.

Attacked by Americans and Fifty-Three of Them Were Killed.

MANILA, April 17.—Captain Dodd, with a squadron of the Third cavalry, recently surrounded a village in Benguet province, and surprised 200 insurgents, living in barracks, apparently a recruiting center for the province. The enemy lost 53 men killed. Our troops also captured 44 men and burned the village. One American was wounded.

Republicans Nominate Acheson.

WASHINGTON, Pa., April 17.—By a vote of 125 delegates to 50 Congressman Ernest F. Acheson was nominated as Washington county's choice for congress over Mr. L. A. McCracken. The most surprising thing of the convention was that Acheson, when called upon, went to the platform and delivered a speech for the first time in many years that he has been in politics.

FAVORS KRUPP ARMOR.

Cummings (Dem., N. Y.) Made a Speech in the House Advocating It's Use.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The house entered upon the consideration of the naval appropriation bill, with the prospect of a severe struggle over the question of armor plate, building ships in government yards, and the provision in the bill for the coast and geodetic survey. The bill carries $13,000,000 more than any previous naval bill.

Mr. Boss, the acting chairman, and Mr. Cummings, the ranking minority member of the committee, defended the bill. The latter declared himself in favor of paying $545 for Krupp armor at least until all the ships authorized were built and said that the committee had information, the source of which he was not at liberty to reveal, showing that we could obtain Krupp armor at a price lower than any other country in the world.

Mr. Kitchin (N. C.), one of the members who signed the minority report, criticized what he termed the general extravagance of the bill and advocated the establishment of a government armor plate factory to protect the government against extortion.

THE NEW GOVERNOR GOING IN STATE.

North Atlantic Squadron to Escort Allen Into San Juan Harbor—Other Ceremonies Proposed.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Mr. Allen, the newly-chosen governor of Porto Rico, is arranging to leave Washington for San Juan toward the end of the present week. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Allen and their daughter. The trip will be made on the United States steamship Dolphin.

Governor Allen will set up the new civil government, and inside of three weeks will return to the United States to arrange his private affairs, when he will return again.

The Dolphin will enter the harbor at San Juan escorted by the entire North Atlantic squadron, under the command of Rear Admiral Farquhar on his flagship New York.

Governor Allen will be inaugurated at San Juan on May 1 and General Davis, the military governor, will turn out all of the United States troops under his command in honor of the occasion. The ships of the squadron will fire salutes, which will be answered by the shore batteries. There will be some speeches, and at night the fleet will use their electric lights and there will be general illuminations.

TO CIRCUMVENT TRUSTS.

A House Committee Prepares One Measure and Amendments to the Sherman Law.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The measures directed against trusts were determined upon by the special subcommittee on trusts of the house judiciary committee. As agreed upon the remedy is twofold, namely, a constitutional amendment giving congress full power to deal with trusts, and a new anti-trust law making the following extensions to the Sherman act:

First—Requiring the branding or marking of trust made goods shipped out of a state, so as to be easily identified as the product of a trust.

Second—Prohibiting the interstate traffic of trust made goods not so branded and making them subject to seizure and condemnation.

Third—Requiring corporations having a capital over $1,000,000, or doing an annual business of $1,000,000, to file a report of their affairs with the secretary of state.

Fourth—Providing the injunction against combinations sending trust-made goods from state to state to foreign countries.

Fifth—Prohibiting the use of the mails to concerns and their officials proven to be trusts.

Considered Alaskan Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—During almost the entire session the senate had under consideration the Alaskan civil code bill. The amendment providing for the mining of gold along the beach in the district was perfected, after a discussion lasting nearly four hours.

Under Control of Quay Faction.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., April 17.—The Columbia county Republican convention was held and was under the complete control of the Quay faction.

THE BOERS IN FLIGHT.

Trying to Escape the Net Roberts Spread For Them.

THE SIEGE OF WEPENER RAISED.

Distrust Exists in London as to Any Rapid, Continuous Advance Toward Pretoria—Due Chiefly to Lack of Horses, Which Die in Large Numbers.

LONDON, April 17.—4:15 a. m.—Lord Roberts has spread his net far and wide to catch the adventurous commandos that have been making mischief in the southeastern part of the state. The net has not yet been drawn in, but at the headquarters of Lord Roberts the impression exists that the power of the Boers is decreasing. A Daily News correspondent has them fleeing to the southeast; a Standard correspondent reports them fleeing northward; a Daily Telegraph correspondent says that some are going north and others south, while a Morning Post representative says it is not known what the Boers are doing.

The investment of Wepener, according to a special dispatch from Bloemfontein, has absolutely been abandoned. According to a Bethany dispatch the Boers are unable to retreat northward, because the British strongly hold all roads.

Divers reports come from Natal, one asserting that the Boers have retired beyond the Biggarsburg range and another saying that some of them are close to Ladysmith.

Distrust exists in London as to any rapid, continuous advance toward Pretoria, chiefly on account of the lack of horses, many of which die in the case of the long voyages. Letters from the Cape say that the three days' journey by rail is made in open trucks, that the arrangements for feeding and watering are inadequate and that the unfortunate animals break down rapidly in consequence of these hardships.

Despite the energy of its buyers abroad, the war office foresees much difficulty in supplying the enormous number of horses required.

ANTI-LYNCHING LAW CONSTITUTIONAL.

Decision Made in Chick Mitchell Case, at Urbana, O., and Caldwell Case, at Cleveland.

COLUMBUS, April 17.—The supreme court declared the anti-lynching law constitutional. The law provides that the heirs of any person who is lynched may collect $5,000 from the commissioners in the county in which the affair occurs. The decision was rendered in the cases of Chick Mitchell, hanged by a mob at Urbana, and J. W. Caldwell, who was shot and beaten by strikers at Cleveland. The present law was drawn by Albion W. Tourgee, the celebrated jurist and novelist. A former law was declared unconstitutional, because it fixed a specific amount that could be recovered as damages.

The Tourgee law simply fixes a maximum of damages that may be collected, $500 in case of slight injury, $1,000 in case of serious injury and $5,000 in case of the death of the victim resulted. The decision in the Caldwell case is a most important one. Caldwell took the place of one of the men who went out on a strike at the Brown Hoisting company's plant in Cleveland. He was assaulted by strikers, being hit on the head with a glass insulator, and was shot in the leg. He held that the commissioners did not afford him the proper protection and sued. He lost in both the lower courts. The supreme court reverses both the lower courts.

RUDE TO A PRIEST.

If the Charge Is Proven, Major Knight Will Be Relieved of His Command.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The secretary of war has ordered an investigation made at New York city of the charge that Major John D. G. Knight, corps of engineers, commanding the engineer school at Willets Point, N. Y., upheld the action of a sentry, who at the point of a bayonet kept Father Tierney, of the Roman Catholic church, away from the performance of his religious duties at the army post, by forbidding his entrance.

Representative Fitzgerald of Massachusetts, recently introduced a resolution concerning the alleged refusal of certain army officers to permit Catholic priests to administer their offices at army posts, the resolution being based on the alleged action of Major Knight in the case of Father Tierney. Representative Fitzgerald was informed by the secretary of war that the matter would be investigated and if it were found that the officer had exceeded his authority he would be relieved.

DECLINED THE INVITATION.

Arcos Can't Rejoice With Chicagoans on Manila Battle Anniversary.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Mayor Harrison received from Duke d'Arcos, the Spanish minister at Washington, a reply to an invitation to attend the Dewey celebration in Chicago, saying in part:

"It is impossible for me to believe that you have advisedly asked me, the representative of Spain, to go to your city and rejoice with you on the destruction of the Spanish ships and on the death of so many brave sailors—my compatriots. That would have been simply an insult; and, as I do not deserve it, and it cannot have been in your intention, I am perfectly sure, as I say, that all this is the result of an error."

In reply, Mayor Harrison has written the minister, explaining that the invitation was sent through the carelessness or ignorance of a clerk, and extending sincere apologies for the unintentional discourtesy.

PRESIDENT'S COMING TRIP.

He and Mrs. McKinley to Attend Ecumenical Conference—Also to Go to Canton.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The details of the president's trip to New York and Canton are practically completed. The party, consisting of the president and Mrs. McKinley, Secretary Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Barnes, Mrs. Hobart and Garret A. Hobart, the widow and son of the late vice-president, and Dr. Rixey, will leave here for Paterson, N. J., in a private car attached to the regular 10 o'clock train on the Pennsylvania road next Thursday morning.

The presidential party will remain in Paterson as the guests of Mrs. Hobart until Saturday morning, when they will go to New York to attend the Ecumenical Conference on Foreign Missions at Carnegie Hall Saturday evening. While in New York the party will stay at the Manhattan hotel.

Late Sunday night the party will take a train for Canton, Ohio, where they will remain about three days, reaching Washington on their return Thursday or Friday of next week.

HILLIS NO LONGER

A PRESBYTERIAN.

Chicago Presbytery Granted His Request. Then Asked Assembly to Consider Creed.

CHICAGO, April 17.—With only one dissenting vote the report of the committee to which was referred the request of Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Brooklyn, that his name be erased from the rolls of the Chicago presbytery, was adopted by that body at its regular meeting. It granted his request. The questions of Presbyterian doctrine raised by Dr. Hillis in his sermon at Plymouth church, Brooklyn, did not, however, have any bearing on the acceptance or rejection of Dr. Hillis' resignation. The committee reported that it had further correspondence with Dr. Hillis on the subject, and that in his second letter the Brooklyn divine had again asked that his name be erased from the rolls of the presbytery.

The presbytery, by a unanimous vote, adopted a set of resolutions, introduced by Dr. Herrick Johnson, president of McCormick Theological seminary, overruling the general assembly to appoint a committee to report on the general question of Presbyterianism.

The resolutions were as follows: In view of the widespread misunderstanding of what the things are that are most surely believed by our beloved Presbyterian church; and, In view of the archaic forms in which some of the doctrines of our church have expression in the historic confession of faith; and, In view of the gross misrepresentations of our faith that claims to find their justification in these existing forms. We, the presbytery of Chicago, do overture the general assembly to appoint a committee to take into consideration this whole matter of a re-statement of our doctrinal standard, and to report to the next assembly following what, in their judgment, should be the action of our church on this subject.

TOLEDO APPROPRIATION KILLED.

Voris Confirmed as Ohio Commissioner of Insurance.

COLUMBUS, April 17.—The Ohio legislature adjourned. Among other legislation killed by the adjournment was the $1,000,000 appropriation for the Toledo exposition.

A. T. Voris was confirmed as state insurance commissioner by the senate.

BY ASSASSIN'S SHOT.

A Sergeant Killed at Croton Landing, N. Y.

SOLDIERS FRANTIC WITH ANGER.

The Officer Mysteriously Shot While Changing the Guard, Near a Place Called Little Italy—Men Fired In Bushes, but Hit No Person.

CROTON LANDING, N. Y., April 17.—The first bloodshed as the outcome of the strike at the Cornell dam was the life's blood of Sergeant Robert Douglass, of the Eleventh separate company, of Mount Vernon, who was shot dead by an unknown assassin while he was relieving guard. The wildest excitement prevailed throughout the camp as soon as the news of the assassination spread to the different tents, and the soldiers are frantic over the crime.

The point where the sergeant fell is known as Post 10, which was in charge of Corporal McDowell. It is situated on top of the hill near Little Italy, where armed strikers were seen drilling or marching about brandishing rifles and shotguns. The spot is high over the huge pile of masonry, and from it one can command a view of the country for miles on each side up and down the Croton valley. Douglass was talking to Corporal McDowell and the other members of the guard when he suddenly clasped his hands to his stomach and said:

"Load, boys; I'm shot," and then fell to the ground. It was pitch dark at the time, but McDowell and the others fired a volley into a clump of bushes nearby without hitting anyone. No one saw the flash or heard the sound of the shot which killed Douglass, and it was a most mysterious affair.

ITALIAN WIELDED

WEAPONS FATALLY.

Murdered Four Men and Wounded Two and Himself Probably Killed by a Train.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 17.—Four persons are dead and two are dangerously wounded at the mining town of Windber, near here, as the result of a drunken row in a disorderly house there. One Italian is charged with the wholesale crime, but it is believed that he is already beyond the reach of the law, as a man answering his description was ground under a train at South Fork.

The row occurred at the home of a French woman, known as Mrs. Stueck, until a couple of weeks ago, at which time she married an Italian. The place has been known as a "speakeasy."

The dead are: John Halverson, a Swede; Ed P. McCauley, an American; Gust Grieback, a Slav; Samuel Shives, an American.

Some of these are victims of a revolver and some of the deadly stiletto, the two wounded men, Thomas Kipling and "Jerk" Buckwalter, both being wounded with the latter instrument. There were a dozen or more men in the house when the affray occurred, but none of them can be found, and it is impossible to learn even the name of the murderer or any facts concerning him, beyond that he wore a slouch hat, slightly creased.

Mrs. Stueck and two other women, who were inmates of the house, are under arrest, and the place is being guarded by men with winchesters. Various stories are afloat as to the cause of the row, but the women refuse to talk. One story is that Mrs. Stueck angered the murderer by giving too much attention to other men, another that the fight was over a game of cards, and a third that it was the result of bad blood over the strike at the Horatio mine.

Rough treatment will probably be accorded the murderer if it proves that he is still alive and he is caught.

STRONG ACTION OF WOOD.

Wouldn't Let Cattle Trust Cut Off Havana's Meat Supply.

HAVANA, April 17.—In consequence of the recent action of the Havana municipality and of General Ludlow in breaking down the monopoly in the use of the slaughter house, held in trust for the cattle dealers, the latter threaten to cut off Havana's meat supply. General Wood had policemen occupy the slaughter house, keeping a section open to all who might wish to kill cattle there, and informing the members of the cattle trust that if they refused to supply cattle they would not be allowed in future to kill at the slaughter house.

Only one man refused to kill, and he was informed that he would not be allowed to use the slaughter house again.

A Glow at Boxing.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The board of police commissioners refused the application of the Coney Island Sporting Club, otherwise known as the Seaside Athletic club, for a permit from May 1 to Sep. 1, when the anti-boxing law, which was passed at the late session of the state legislature, will go into effect. The board's action is taken as an indication that all similar applications will be refused.

HORRORS OF FAMINE IN STRICKEN INDIA.

Millions Starving—Girls Sold by Parents to Mohammedans For Money to Buy Food.

BOSTON, April 17.—The Rev. Rockwell Clancy, a missionary at Allahabad, who is visiting his brother in Medford, said in part:

"The condition of famine stricken India today is something perfectly awful to contemplate. I cannot tell anything about the number dying, but when I left Bombay last February there were some 60,000,000 people suffering and over 30,000,000 were in dire distress and of these but 5,000,000 were receiving government aid.

"When the famine set in people began to sell everything they had that they might get a little grain for food. They took the doors from their houses and sold them; sold their furniture and farming utensils and then when they had no longer anything to sell, they sold their children. The boys don't sell well, and the traffic is largely in girls.

"I saw girls in one town just before I came away being sold for 30 cents apiece. But they won't buy the boys, so when the parents can no longer support their children they abandon them."

12 PLANTS SHUT DOWN.

The American Steel and Wire Company Compelled to Stop Operations Due to Labor Troubles.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Labor troubles in the building trades are stated by President John W. Lambert, of the American Steel and Wire company, as the reasons for orders issued closing down all the plants of the concern in the vicinity of Chicago, all those at Joliet, Ill., excepting the Rockdale mill, and the extensive plant at Anderson, Ind.

Twelve plants were ordered closed. Thousands of skilled workmen were temporarily suspended by the action of the wire magnates.

One of the plants shut down was located in Pittsburg.

BAN PLACED BY POPE.

Catholic Orders Prohibited Utterly From Dabbling In Politics.

PARIS, April 17.—The Rome correspondent of The Temps, in a dispatch that has almost official significance, said:

"The papal decision prohibiting the Assumptionists from continuing the editorial management of La Croix was arrived at after a solemn conclave of bishops and cardinals.

"Hereafter no religious congregation will be permitted to take any part in politics. This decision is binding upon Catholics all over the world, including the American Paulists."

Miller Found Guilty.

NEW YORK, April 17.—William F. Miller, of Franklin syndicate fame, was found guilty by a jury in the court in Brooklyn of grand larceny in the first degree for taking from Mrs. Katherine Mooser $1,000 which she invested in his 520 per cent scheme "to get rich quick." The prisoner was remanded for sentence a week from next Friday. His counsel stated that the case would be appealed.

Senator Hanna Not Ill.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., April 17.—The reports sent out from Norfolk to the effect that Senator Mark Hanna, who is staying at Old Point with Mrs. Hanna, Miss Hanna and Miss Wilson, their guest, had contracted a severe case of grippe and was confined to his room, is without foundation.

Altgeld the Chief Speaker.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 17.—Former Governor John P. Altgeld, of Illinois, was the principal speaker at the banquet given at the Stanwix hotel by the Bimetallic League of Albany in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson. He responded to the toast "What Would Jefferson Do?"

On Trial for a Woman's Death.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Alfred E. Morrison, a teacher of languages, was arraigned for trial at White Plains for the alleged murder of a woman with whom he lived in Mount Vernon. The defense is that the woman was killed by Morrison while he was in a somnambulant state.

A DAY IN WALL STREET.

Railroad List Made a Considerable Show of Strength—Heavy Selling in Iron.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The stock market, after making an indifferent struggle all day against the forces of depression, yielded all around in the last hour and closed under severe pressure and with prices on a rapidly descending scale. Transactions were large all day and the railroad list made a considerable show of strength in the opening dealings, but there was heavy selling in the iron and steel stocks.

Late in the day a rumor took form that there was to be extensive shutting down of plants in the great metal companies on the ground of overproduction, in anticipation of business during the early part of this year which had not materialized. American Steel and Wire and Federal Steel led the decline in point of activity and weakness. At the extreme declines in the group were Tennessee Coal and Iron, 9; Steel and Wire, 8½; Federal Steel, 7¼; American Hoop, 4¾. There were a few railroad stocks besides the southwestern group which made a stand against the weakness, but the majority of railroad stocks closed at from 1 to 2 points under Thursday's last prices.

The bond market was active and showed marked strength, which yielded only slightly to the late depressing influences. Total sales, par value, $2,385,000.

Chicago Wheat, Corn and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 17.—The wheat market was quiet but firm Monday, influenced by foreign damage reports, the corn strength and better foreign bids. May closing ¼c over Saturday. May corn closed ¾c up and May oats ½c depressed. At the close provisions were from 5c higher in lard to 10c lower in pork.

BELIEVED IN GHOSTS

DR. ELLIOTT COUES SAID THAT HE OFTEN SAW THEM.

The Famous Ornithologist's Description of the Spirit of a Dead Friend Who Appeared to and Converses With Him in His Room.

Dr. Elliott Coues, the famous ornithologist and member of the American Academy of Sciences, was long recognized as the foremost advocate of belief in the existence of ghosts. He had promised several of his friends that, if able to do so, he would appear to them after his own demise, and they are still waiting, with no little interest, to see if he can carry out the agreement.

"I have myself seen the ghosts of a good many dead persons," said the doctor one day. "I remember one occasion when I had just gone to bed, the light being turned out, I was composing myself to slumber when I suddenly became aware of a presence in the room. The impression conveyed to my mind was that it was the presence of a certain person lately deceased, with whom I had been on very intimate terms. In fact, I felt an overpowering sense of the nearness of the individual in question."

"About the same moment there arose slowly from the floor a nebulous mass of what looked like shining white vapor, which began to take shape, as did the smoke from the cigarette opened by the fisherman in the 'Arabian Nights' tales. Gradually it assumed a more distinct outline, until it presented a radiant image of my friend. The lips appeared to move, and from them came an intelligible utterance, a message in short, from the departed. I do not care to say what that message was."

"I can assure you that the vision was no dream, and the nature of the message was such as to eliminate, to my own satisfaction at all events, the theory of hallucination. What, then, was this shape of shining white vapor? Was it a human soul? It is a question pregnant with intense interest."

"Each of us, I believe, has in him a ghost, which ordinarily is confined to the precincts of the body. When I die, my ghost leaves my body permanently, and, having done so, perhaps it may continue to be the vehicle and means of expression of conscious will, memory and understanding. St. Paul says, 'There is a natural body and a spiritual body.' It is of the spiritual body that I am speaking."

"Our senses take cognizance of no forms of matter except those which are in a certain degree of condensation, but the spiritual body may be of a more rarefied and tenuous substance. The nonappearance of ghosts to us may be a question not of the existence of specters, but of the acuteness of our perceptive faculties."

"My own experience is that the coming of an apparition is always preceded by a curious sensation which I call the 'ghost chill.' When this symptom arrives, the threshold of consciousness seems to be shifted to the extent of rendering possible a perception of something ordinarily invisible. The change is usually very brief, lasting only a few seconds, during which the manifestation occurs."

"One reason that I have for believing the evidence of my own senses in this matter is that on several occasions the apparition of my own personality has presented itself to other persons in places where my body was not at the time. Some years ago I was in Chicago at an ordinary evening party with about 40 friends, when an individual in Washington, who did not even know where I was, was visited by my phantasm and received from it a brief message stating where I was at the time and giving the names of two or three of the guests present—persons with whom the observer was unacquainted. This was one of the rare cases where a ghost made itself audible."

"You ask what would happen if one should approach a ghost such as I have described and try to touch it. My reply is that there would certainly be no danger in doing so, for specters never do anybody any harm, the fear of them entertained by most people being simply a dread of that which is unknown and not understood. Whatever is unknown is always terrible. But the phantom is composed of matter too tenuous to present any obstacle, and I do not doubt that it would dissolve and disappear if you attempted to walk through it."—Washington Post.

Not a "Pompous Prelate."

Bishop Gailor, at a banquet at which the bishop of Kentucky was present, told this story on the latter gentleman: "In one of the backwoods towns of Kentucky," said Bishop Gailor, "the pastor of the Baptist church gave out this notice before the sermon one Sunday morning:

"I am told and have been partially convinced," he said, "that it is my Christian duty to give the following notice—to wit: That a man who styles himself 'bishop of Kentucky' is about to visit this town and will hold forth in the courthouse on Wednesday evening. I desire to add, however, my brethren, that, in the humble opinion of your pastor, the place for members of this congregation on Wednesday night will be in this place listening to your own pastor rather than listening to the words of that pompous prelate at the courthouse."

"On the following Thursday morning the Baptist went out upon the street seeking for some of his congregation who had not been at the Wednesday evening meeting. The first one he found was a deacon."

"Well, deacon," he asked, "were you to the courthouse last night?"

"Yes," said the deacon.

"I trust," said the parson, with some irony in his tone, "you were edified by the words of the pompous prelate."

"Now, looky here, parson," said the deacon, "that man ain't no pompous prelate; no such thing. He's just as common as there is. What do you reckon he did? He preached in his shirt sleeves!"—Indianapolis Sentinel.

An Inimitable Feat.

The sailors of three men-of-war, American, French and British, while in the same harbor, were competing with each other for the best display of seamanship. A Yankee went to the top of the mainmast and stood there with an arm extended. A Frenchman then went aloft and extended both arms.

An Irishman on board the British ship thought if he could stand there with a leg and an arm extended he would be declared the most daring sailor. Nimble he mounted to the highest point and attempted to do so, but at the last moment lost his balance and fell through the rigging toward the deck.

The various ropes against which he came in contact broke his fall, and when near the deck he succeeded in grasping a rope. To this he hung for a couple of seconds and then dropped lightly on the deck, landing safely on his feet.

Folding his arms triumphantly, as if it were all in the programme, he glanced toward the rival ships and joyously exclaimed:

"There, you frog eating and pig sticking foreigners, beat that if you can!"—Collier's Weekly.

Legend of the Violin.

An ancient legend tells us that one day as Orpheus, son of Apollo and the muse Calliope, was walking by the sea, trilling in soft cadence a song taught him by the celebrated teacher Linos, he was attracted by the sound of sweet music, which seemed but the echo of his own glorious voice. He walked along, singing, and the sound approached, as if to meet him, till finally it sang at his very feet.

Glancing down, he saw the shell of a turtle, which had been cast high and dry upon the beach and left there by the receding waves. The little thing had died and dried up so that only the sinews, shriveled to strings, and the shell remained. The dried up sinews were tightly stretched across the hollow shell, and the wind, as it listed, touched the strings, causing them to vibrate over the shell sounding board and give forth the sweet, sad tones.

Enchanted, he bore his treasure home and from it fashioned the viol shell, with which he ever after accompanied his voice, and the nymph Eurydice, enchanted by its magic, became his bride.—National Magazine.

George Gould's Ready Wit.

I heard a story about George Gould which goes to show that the possession of great wealth doesn't necessarily preclude the possession of a passing ready wit. It was several or even more years ago, while the elder Gould was still alive, that a woman I know met George Gould at a dinner. He was presented to her quite casually, and she did not catch his name. Conversation turned on operations in Wall street, and the woman I am speaking of launched out into a perfect torrent of ladylike abuse of Jay Gould. Ev-

Body building, as they understood it in Greece and Rome, seems a lost art. Young men flat chested, flabby muscled, slouch along the streets, with scarcely one physical attribute of manhood. And yet these young men would like to be well muscled, supple, erect and hardy. But they don't know how to go about it. They try dumb bells, rowing and boxing, but only in a half hearted way. These sports should be play to them but are really work. The main factor in this condition is an ill nourished body. The stomach is not working properly. The digestive and nutritive organs are not in active health. The result is that the nutrition for the body is not distributed in proper proportions to make blood, bone and muscle.

Weak young men who take a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will find a marked change in their physical strength and energy. The body will be built up so that gymnastics will not tax and tire them, but be the natural exercise enjoyed by muscles which are nourished into firm health.

In a letter received from A. D. Weller, Esq., of Pensacola, Escambia Co., Fla. (Box 544), he states: "I have, since receiving your diagnosis of my case as stomach trouble and liver complaint, taken eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and must say that I am transformed from a walking shadow (as my friends called me) to perfect health. I value your remedies very highly and take pleasure in recommending them to any and all who suffer as I did. Four months ago I did not think to be in shape to assist our 'Uncle Samuel' in case of hostilities, but thanks to you, I am now ready for the 'Dons.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

Everybody tried to stop her, but she perceived nothing except that people were looking at the young man. Turning to him, she asked:

"Do you know Jay Gould?"

"Well, yes," he said; "I've had some business dealings with him."—Washington Post.

The College Bone Man.

Two young men who must have been medical students boarded an Angora car late one night with a fully articulated skeleton. Each had one arm linked with that of the skeleton, whose bones rattled gressomely as they walked to the forward end of the car and gravely seated themselves with their inanimate companion between them. Between the grinning teeth of the skeleton was a cigarette, and a derby had adorned its shining skull. The car was rather crowded, and the other passengers, most of whom were men, gazed in open mouthed astonishment at the strange spectacle. The two young fellows, however, pretended to be unconscious of their surroundings and held such converse with the skeleton as "Too bad you didn't wear your mackintosh, Bill; I'm afraid you'll catch cold," or, "Say, Bill, better throw away your cigarette or the conductor will put you off."

When the conductor came through for the fares, one of the young men handed him 15 cents, and he rang up three fares without a word of comment. At Sixteenth street a young girl entered the car and looked around for a seat. "Here, Bill," exclaimed one of the students, "where's your gallantry? Get up and give the lady a seat." Then he yanked the skeleton out of its place and set it on his knees. The girl gave one screech, fled to the back platform and insisted that the conductor stop the car and put her off.

"Gee, Bill!" remarked the student, gazing reproachfully into the skeleton's face. "You've deteriorated. You used to be quite a lady's man." Then everybody laughed.—Philadelphia Record.

Adams and Sculpture.

President John Quincy Adams once asserted that he would not give 50 cents for all the works of Phidias and Praxiteles, adding, "I hope America will not think of sculpture for two centuries to come."

When some one quoted this to William Morris Hunt, he asked dryly, "Does that sum of money really represent Mr. Adams' estimate of the sculpture of those artists or the value which he places upon 50 cents?"

When a man wants to break away, the first symptom is his declaration to the girl that he is afraid he cannot make her as happy as she deserves.—Atchison Globe.

15TH YEAR. NO. 261.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1900.

THE PIONEER DEAL CLOSED

Monroe Patterson Purchased the Pottery For Liverpool Parties.

NEW SWITCH TO BE BUILT

And the Capacity of the Plant Will Be Increased Two Kilns.

WELLSVILLE POTTERY COMPANY

The Pioneer pottery, of Wellsville, has been purchased by Monroe Patterson, of this city, and the property is now in his possession.

The final arrangements were made last night when the stockholders of the plant met and decided to abide by the proposition made to Mr. Patterson by I. B. Clark. The sale was fixed up at once and the pottery turned over to Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Patterson this morning stated that he had purchased the pottery for a company to be organized in this city, but that he was not now prepared to give out the names of the company, as all details were not complete, but that they would meet next week and organize.

The pottery will be put in good shape at once, but how soon it will be started depends largely on how long it will take to get in the new railroad switch, as it was purchased with the understanding that a switch would be put in and the matter will be investigated before the pottery is put in operation. Mr. Patterson stated that he didn't know whether he would start the plant unless the switch is put in.

The Pioneer is a four-kiln plant, but before it is put in operation another kiln and possibly two kilns will be built, making it a six-kiln factory. The price paid is not given out, and the only thing Mr. Patterson would say in regard to the matter was that he gave $1 and other valuable consideration for it. It is estimated that the property sold for not less than $25,000.

The name of the new company will probably be the Wellsville Pottery company, and will be capitalized at $100,000. They will manufacture white ware.

AN EDITOR.

Colonel Brewer, of the War Cry, Will Speak in This City Soon.

Colonel Brewer, editor of the War Cry, of New York, will deliver a lecture at the Salvation Army barracks in this city on the night of April 18, using for his subject: "Midnight Through Slums and Cafes to Paris." He will be accompanied by Major Ludgate, a well known singer.

Seriously Ill.

Robert Quinn is seriously ill at his home in New Cumberland, and it is feared he will not live. His wife is a sister of Mrs. George P. Schmidt of this city.

To the Home.

The Odd Fellows are still finishing on their trip to the Odd Fellows Home at Springfield, and it is probable all arrangements will be completed within a short time.

AN IRATE FATHER.

A Young Man From This City Called on a Girl in Pennsylvania, But Met Her Father.

A well known young man of the city now mourns the loss of his best girl. It all happened this way. He became acquainted with the young lady, who comes from a Pennsylvania town, and she came here to visit friends. The young man called one evening, but the friends with whom she was staying objected to his presence and the young lady went home the next day. The next report was that the pair were to be married. The rumor came to the ears of the young lady's father and when the young man called he was met at the door by the irate father and told to depart. He is now figuring how to get to see the girl without meeting the father, and many parties are awaiting developments.

SANITARY OFFICER BURGESS

Tells How They Used to Get Ahead of Prisoners at City Hall.

The fact that Mayor Davidson threatened to put George Cox at work on the streets caused Sanitary Officer Burgess to think of the time when he was mayor of the city, and he told the following story at city hall:

"We used to have a ball and chain at city hall and when we captured a stray he was led out on the streets to work. The chain was always made a little loose for his leg, and he would only work a short time and when he thought no one was looking he would slip it off and depart, thinking he had the best of the city government. That is just what we wanted, as he would never return under the circumstances."

SICK SINCE JANUARY.

Mattie Tegard Died at Midnight After Being Sick Four Months.

Mattie, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Tegard, died at the home of her parents in the old Davidson house on Second street. She had been ill since January with a cold fever, and during the last few weeks was thought to be recovering. A hemorrhage of the lungs was her death. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon and will be conducted by Dr. J. H. Interment will be in the new cemetery.

THE COUNCIL.

The Council Will be Held Tomorrow When Some Unfinished Business Will be Disposed Of.

The council will meet tomorrow for a regular session, and it is expected that much business will be disposed of. This will be the last meeting of the council before the annual takes place and as much business will be disposed of as possible. At the next meeting new members will be obligated and new members elected.

STREETS SOON TO BE IMPROVED

President R. J. Marshall, of Council, Talks About Work For This Year.

Pennsylvania Avenue, Calcutta Road and Trentvale Street to Be Completed.

NEW COUNCIL WILL HAVE TO ACT

The question of improvements will come up in council very soon, but what action council will take is not known. Pennsylvania avenue and Calcutta road are still to be graded and paved, while Trentvale street is still to be paved out of the amount the people voted to expend on, those thoroughfares. Of course the amount, $6,000 to each road, will not complete the work. It is thought the property can be assessed enough to make up the difference.

Bids were taken for the grading and paving of Calcutta road and Pennsylvania avenue last fall, and Foley Bros., of Columbus, were the lowest bidders. They asked permission to let the matter stand until this spring, when they stated council could order them to go to work as soon as they wanted to. The matter will have to be gone over by the new council before any contract is let.

President Marshall, in discussing the matter, said he did not know what action council would take, but that he undoubtedly thought work on the improvements should be commenced as soon as possible, as the people voted for them and they should get what they voted for.

COUNTY CASES.

Infirmary Directors Are Not Caring for Any Cases of Sickness in the City.

There is not a case of sickness in the city at present that the county is caring for, and the last case to be discharged was Fleek, who was ill with pneumonia. The county has looked after many cases of illness in the city during the past winter and it far exceeds the cases of last year. The county physician has had his hands full for the last few months with county cases.

PAVE THE WHARF.

President Marshall Says the Necessary Cobble Stones Could Be Secured in East End.

President of Council Marshall thinks the plan to pave the Broadway wharf with cobble stones is a good one, and says it could be done with little expense to the city. He says all the cobble stones needed could be secured in his part of the city, but they won't come from Pennsylvania avenue.

National Club Dance.

The National club held a very pleasant reception and dance at their rooms in the First National bank building last night. The affair was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Garner, and the club members and their friends enjoyed an evening in music and dancing.

GOD BLESS HER.

She Discovered That She Had Been Saving Money for Sufferers in India.

Dr. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of East Liverpool, informs the News Review that the voluntary contributions to the India famine fund has been increased some twenty odd dollars during the past two days, and that those who wish to receive a blessing by helping these starving ones can do so before the fund is sent away, tomorrow at dinner time. You can leave your contributions, large or small, at the M. E. parsonage, Jackson street, next door to the church.

And right here comes an incident worthy of notice. A lady had been saving small sums of money for a long time, ever since the silver three-cent pieces went out of circulation. She had no special object in view, merely putting the small change aside for a nest egg or an emergency fund. After listening to Dr. Crawford's Sunday night appeal for the starving brothers and sisters in far off India, the lady informed her husband that, in her opinion, the emergency for the use of the stray pieces had materialized. The husband told her to do as she pleased with the fund, and the sum of seventeen dollars was passed over to Dr. Crawford, to be sent to India. God bless this true and kind-hearted woman. Are there not others who will follow in her footsteps? The necessity is an urgent one. Men, women and children are starving to death. In such a case, surely it is more blessed to give than to receive.

TO KENSINGTON.

The Remains of Abner R. Beebout Were Taken There Yesterday.

The remains of Abner R. Beebout, killed by a street car Saturday night, were taken to Kensington yesterday afternoon and the funeral services will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. No word has yet been received from his wife for the reason that the telegraph company did not deliver the message sent her Sunday morning. Undertaker Haugh, of Wellsville, when he learned the address of Beebout's widow at once telegraphed notifying her of his death. The address given was Friendly, W. Va., and the undertaker guaranteed all expenses in delivering the message, as it was known that Mrs. Beebout resided about six miles from Friendly. Last evening Mr. Haugh received word from the company that the message was not delivered because $1 was needed to foot the expenses to carry it to its destination. Mr. Haugh once more guaranteed all expenses and word was sent to Friendly.

A Chicken Ordinance.

Alliance has a new chicken ordinance. It seems that the owners of chickens and ducks in that village have allowed their feathered pets to promenade around promiscuously with resulting damage to the property of those who didn't own poultry. Accordingly the new city council will devote its earliest attention to the passage of an "ordinance regulating chickens and ducks," with a penalty of $25 for violation.

Adjusted the Loss.

Mr. Crable, of the Orient Insurance company, of Hartford, Conn., was in the city today adjusting the loss sustained by Edward Hassey during the fire at the postoffice.

CHONGEYE IN THE CITY JAIL

He Was Engaged In a Fight Near the Dresden Yesterday Afternoon.

HIS BILL WAS ONLY $6.60.

Police business was not very heavy yesterday, but it was better than it has been for some time, and Mayor Davidson disposed of the two cases before him in a short time.

The celebrated Chongeye Gallagher, who has behaved himself for some time, got on a rampage yesterday afternoon and the first thing he knew he was engaged in a fight near the Dresden pottery. The patrol was called and Officers Wood and McDonald responded. Chongeye was still on the scene and he was gathered in. The party with whom he had been fighting, made a short cut across Sheridan avenue to escape, but the patrol went after him and he was gathered in and taken to the city jail. Mayor Davidson fined Chongeye $6.60, but he didn't have the cash and is still in jail waiting for some one to call and pay up for him. The mayor hasn't decided how he will dispose of him if he doesn't pay up. The other party paid up and was released.

GOOD WORDS.

A Trade Paper Speaks of the Success of F. I. Simmers as a Traveler.

F. I. Simmers, salesman for McKee & Bros.' glass works of the National Glass company, has tendered his resignation to that company to accept a position with the East Liverpool Pottery company of East Liverpool, O. Mr. Simmers sold a special line of packers' goods and always had great success on the road. To his ingenuity is attributed the origin of McKee & Bros.' famous barnyard assortment of opal novelties as well as several popular decorated opal specialties. He is a great favorite with the trade and has a host of friends who wish him success in his new calling.—China, Glass and Lamps.

MRS. J. W. K. HODGE.

Wife of a Georgetown Minister Died Sunday Morning After a Short Illness.

Mrs. J. W. K. Hodge, wife of Rev. Hodge, of the Georgetown (Pa.) Methodist Episcopal church, died at her home Sunday morning after a short illness. The funeral services, conducted by Dr. Clark Crawford, of the First M. E. church of this city, were held this afternoon. Interment was made in the Georgetown cemetery.

Business is Slow.

Business in the court of Justice McLane is very slow and no cases have been entered for several days. Two cases were to have been tried yesterday afternoon, but none of the interested parties appeared.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END. SOUTH SIDE.

Mrs. Harry Meanor, of East Palestine, is spending a few days here visiting friends. The family will remove here shortly, Mr. Meanor having taken a position at the National pottery. They will live in their own house on St. George street.

The quarterly conference of the Second Methodist Episcopal church will be held Saturday evening, April 28. The services will be conducted by Dr. Holmes, presiding elder of the Steubenville district of the Methodist Episcopal conference.

Dr. W. E. Mowen, who has been in Deerfield since last week, returned to his home last evening.

Henry Mushenheim will not leave for the Alum Cliff farm until the first of the month. Some of the family are now at the farm.

The Epworth League society of the Second Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the church next Thursday evening for the purpose of nominating new officers. The election will be held on the evening of May 3.

W. E. Finney, who has been confined to his home on St. George street with a severe attack of grip, was able to be up today.

Alexander Marshall has moved from St. George street and is now residing on Needham avenue in a house formerly occupied by John Searith.

A committee of trustees of the Second M. E. church, together with the Ladies' Aid society, met last evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Hays, on St. George street, for the purpose of arranging for improving the interior of the church.

William Orin, of First avenue, is able to be out after a serious illness, but is not able to resume his work.

A meeting of the stewards of the Second M. E. church will be held this evening at the home of Rev. George W. Orcutt, of Boyce avenue.

Mrs. Isabel McDade is recovering from a severe illness.

L. O. Jones left this morning for Wheeling, where he will remain a few days on business.

BASKET BALL.

The High School Team Defeated the Printers at the Gym

Last Night.

The High School basket ball team closed their season last night by defeating the printers in a close and exciting game by a score of 18 to 5. The printers were ahead at the end of the first half, but the High School boys by fine playing managed to overtake them and win the game. The High School during the season just closed won five and lost two games. This was the first game of the printers and they played unusually good basket ball for a new team.

Lisbon Graduates.

Lisbon's high school will, on the evening of May 18, graduate a class of eight. The class is composed of Misses Georgia Treffinger, Leora Lee, Jessie Dorrance and Messrs. Charles Carnes, Fred. Bennetts, Rollin Sipe, Frank Crook and Herman Patterson. Commencement will be held in Smiley's opera house.

Largest Pay.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special.)—The semi-monthly monthly pay at the Beaver tin mill Saturday was a record breaker, in that it was the largest pay ever paid out since the erection of the plant. The full pay amounted in all to $14,016.

B. I. Hilliard, for many years employed by the Patterson Machine company, has resigned his position with that company and is now employed as a blacksmith by the Chester Rolling Mill company. When the mill starts Hilliard will be given charge of one of the furnaces.

Thomas T. Bambrick, who spent Sunday in New Cumberland visiting relatives, returned yesterday.

The Chester Mechanics, at their meeting last evening, transacted much business and initiated several candidates.

The Western Union telegraph line-men have completed the construction of the line along the extension, and everything is in readiness to make connection with the office. For the present it is said a portion of the mill office will be used for telegraph purposes.

Harry Moore, who is now connected with the Congo News, said yesterday he intended to start a paper in Chester soon.

E. S. Johnson yesterday sold a large lot to G. H. Grandstaff, of Georgetown. He will erect a modern frame dwelling on the lot during the summer.

A telephone of the United States company has been placed in the toll house. This is something that has been long needed.

William Bowers has taken a position as motorman with the street railway company, and has been placed in charge of the Chester car. Motorman James McKinnon is still confined to his home in the East End with rheumatism.

John Cunningham, of Salem, spent Easter in Chester visiting relatives.

Contractor Thomas McLaughlin went to Pittsburgh Sunday to secure a number of laborers to work on the grading contracts he has on this side of the river.

The large engine at the rolling mill has been placed in position and will be ready to be placed in operation as soon as the steam connections have been made. The engine is the largest piece of machinery in the county and is a handsome piece of work.

Stonemasons have about completed the erection of the abutments for the bridge to be built over Mark's run.

Workmen have begun filling in the approaches to the Third street bridge. Their work will be finished within the next 10 days.

President Banfield, of the Chester Street Railway company, was in the city yesterday, and when informed that only one car was run on the line Sunday, said: "I don't think the present conditions will last very long. There should be two cars on the road by all means."

THIS WEEK.

Water Works Department Will Get Started on the Fourth Street Improvement.

The water works department will commence work on the Fourth street improvement this week. The work will take 2,000 feet of six-inch pipe and will cost about $2,000. All the cross street connections will be put in and there will be a great deal of excavating to be done. It will be completed as soon as possible.

Nonogenarian Dead.

Lisbon, April 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. Lydia Miller died early this morning. She was over 90 years of age and the mother of George L. and D. M. Miller, merchants of Lisbon.

Court Opens.

Lisbon, April 17.—(Special.)—Common pleas court opened yesterday at 1 p. m., Judge Gilmer, of Warren, presiding.

CATCHING SMELTS.

How the Little Fish Are Hooked Through the Ice.

The smelts are all caught with hook and line, says the Bangor Commercial. Taking them otherwise, such as by seine, would be regarded by the fishermen here as a great wrong. The fishing is all done in tents, the tents being about six feet long, five feet wide and high enough for a man to stand up in them.

These tents are covered with cloth, heated by a stove and lighted usually by a lantern. I have known the temperature of my tent to vary, however, 60 degrees within ten minutes during a cold day.

A hole about six feet long and eight inches wide is cut in the ice and the tent set lengthwise of this. Six lines attached to a pole fastened to the plates of the tent hang into the water nearly eight inches apart. These lines during fishing hours are always kept in motion.

The way the fishermen handle these lines, how they can bait the hooks and slat smelts, when, as they say, they are "taking hold," is certainly wonderful. I have known one man to catch 100 pounds in less than one hour. This means at least 1,000 fish, or about 17 a minute. One smelter has been known to catch 500 pounds during one tide's fishing.

Some have made $25 to $30 a day and others $200 in a few weeks. But these big catches are only made by those expert in fishing. The chances are that a green hand would starve the first winter if dependent wholly on what fish he caught.

PULLMAN PARLOR CARS.

Improving the Train Service to Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Pennsylvania Lines.

New Pullman parlor cars have taken the place of the parlor cars running on trains Nos. 337 and 338, between Pittsburgh and Cleveland over the Pennsylvania lines. The new cars are the latest pattern turned out by the Pullman company and are finished and furnished in a substantial manner. They have roomy and comfortable revolving arm chairs, wide plate glass windows, commodious smoking apartment and a large retiring room for ladies. This room is fitted up with dresser and plate glass mirror. The new cars leave East Liverpool for Cleveland at 2:49 p. m. and for Pittsburgh at 7:04 p. m., central time, week days.

How to Get a Genial Dog.

A vagrant dog, particularly a cur with seven or eight different strains of common dog in him, is the best kind of a dog to own. He is always smiling and wagging his tail at you, and his appreciation of little favors is only equaled by his appetite. A fancy dog with a blue ribbon around his neck is always looking for an opportunity to snap at children. If you kept a dog, we would keep a yellow one, purchased as a pup from a negro boy.—Atchison Globe.

A Coffee Hint.

A French housekeeper says that in her country it is an invariable rule to add a little butter and powdered sugar to coffee beans while they are roasting. A very small piece of butter is needed to the pound, a bit perhaps as large as a hazelnut, and not more than a teaspoonful of powdered sugar. This treatment is the secret of the pleasant burned sugar flavor in French coffee.

FRAUD ALLEGED BY SULZER.

Broad Assertion Regarding Signatures to a Coeur d'Alene Petition.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—At the Coeur d'Alene investigation an exciting controversy occurred when the petition to the secretary of war from several hundred citizens of the Coeur d'Alene district asking for the retention of federal troops was presented in evidence. Representative Sulzer denounced the petition as "bogus and fraudulent," declaring that many of the signatures were forgeries and that other names had been secured by intimidation.

He asked to introduce affidavits attacking the petition, but after an animated conversation these were ruled out, the vote being on party lines. A motion by Mr. Sulzer calling on the president for affidavits bearing on the petition was similarly voted down by the committee.

Fatally Burned by Explosion.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 17.—By an explosion of molten metal at the furnace of the Ohio plant of the National Steel company, James Johnston, Wallace Alexander and Prockett Smith were terribly burned, the first two named probably fatally. The explosion was caused by the hot metal flowing into a water trough.

Rev. Dr. Rutledge Dead.

JACKSONVILLE, Ills., April 17.—The Rev. William J. Rutledge, of Jacksonville, Ills., died, aged 86. He is credited with being the first to suggest the idea of the Grand Army of the Republic, which was afterward carried into effect by Dr. Ben F. Johnson.

Old London Sundays.

We have got it into our heads Sunday was better observed in puritanical acceptance of the three or four generations back than is now. It was quite otherwise. The great ladies when Queen Victoria came to the throne—the Duchess of Wellington, the Duchess of Rutland, the Marchioness of Salisbury, the Lady Hyde Parker, the Misses Walpole—had regular card parties on a Sunday and there were concerts and receptions all over the town announced with becoming regularity in The Morning Post.—Saturday Review.

AFTER THE OPERA TRAIN.

During the grand opera season in Pittsburgh, April 16, 17 and 18, special train arrangements will be made for the return of persons attending from New Castle, Steubenville and intermediate stations on the Pennsylvania lines; also from Wellsville, East Liverpool and stations on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division.

On the above dates train No. 341, which leaves Pittsburgh union station at 12 o'clock, midnight, city time, for Cleveland, and train No. 47, which leaves the union station at 11:40 p. m., city time, for Steubenville, will be held until after the opera.

THE S. G. HARD CO.

VODREY AND HILL ARE RE-ELECTED

President and Clerk of the Board of Education at the New Organization.

SICKNESS AMONG SCHOLARS

Supt. Rayman Says There Has
Been More of Late Than Any Time

SINCE HE CAME TO THIS CITY.

The old board of education met last evening and held a very short session indeed. All the members were present except J. H. Smith, from East End.

Clerk Hill read a letter from Colonel John N. Taylor, of the Carnegie library board, thanking the school board for their offer of the use of the directors' room for meeting purposes.

The result of the election for school director was read by the clerk, after which the report of Superintendent Rayman was read as presented in this paper last evening. In speaking of the work being done in the schools Mr. Rayman said: "The work is moving along in a good manner, but during the last two months a larger number of scholars have been absent than at any time since I came here. The majority are being kept away on account of sickness, many being ill with typhoid fever. This, in a way, is interfering with the progress of the work, but those scholars who are at school are progressing rapidly."

The commencement night was set for June 1, leaving only seven more weeks of school.

The clerk was instructed to prepare the school tax levy for next year. The levy will be made on a valuation of $3,422,980. The school levy last year was 11½ mills and 3-10 mills for library purposes.

The semi-annual report of Clerk W. B. Hill was read as follows:

Repairs and plumbing.....	$ 163 70
Fuel	1,202 93
Supplies of all kinds.....	1,194 04
Freight and hauling.....	146 28
New work on buildings—
Grant street	5,695 00
Pleasant Heights	995 00
Sixth street	1,635 00
Grant street	680 00
Fire escapes	598 00
Helana building	1,852 00
Sundries	477 00
New desks	725 00
School books	2,806 82
Total	$18,770 77

The old board then adjourned sine die.

The new members, W. E. Wells, George C. Murphy, L. O. Williams and Oliver C. Vodrey, were then sworn in.

Dr. J. C. Taggart was elected temporary chairman and the election of officers by ballot resulted as follows: For president Oliver C. Vodrey 5, Dr. J. C. Taggart 1, and for clerk Walter B. Hill was elected unanimously.

The bills ordered paid were: Andy

Rattray, $3; Robert Hall, $7; James McCormick, $4.20; Watson & Sloan, 75 cents; Ceramic City Light company, $17.81; J. M. McKinney, $5.50; Mary Copestick, $11.25.

Mr. Murphy asked the new officers to make a speech, to which Mr. Vodrey said: "I thank the board for the honor they have thrust upon me, and will try to do my duty. I am not much of a speechmaker, and for that reason I will take my seat."

Clerk Hill was busy and failed to respond, and after Mr. Wells had been called upon he said that he preferred to do no talking tonight, and that the board would probably hear from him before the year was out.

When the meeting adjourned Superintendent Rayman brought in a bag of apples. Some of the members took one, others two and then all went home.

PITY THE DUMB BRUTE.

Sample of the Saloon's Work Seen on
Yesterday.

There were three brutes interested; but the dumb brute was the one to be pitied. The other two were human beings, rendered brutal through the influence of the devil's broth, known as beer, rum, brandy or whisky, or any other grade or class of intoxicants sold over the saloon bars in this prosperous city of East Liverpool. The drunken men were made still more drunken by a brutal and greedy saloonkeeper, in absolute defiance of the law, as the keeper of the den gave them more drink at his bar, when one of the couple was so drunk that he could scarcely stand without assistance. As they emerged from the saloon they succeeded in clambering into their vehicle, making use of such awful profanity and vulgarity as to cause a decent man to shudder. Then the most intoxicated attempted to drive the poor horse entrusted to their care, and they beat and abused the dumb brute in the most heartless manner, urging it forward and then forcing it backward with the aid of the cruel bit, backing the horse over the pavement and narrowly escaping upsetting the vehicle. The saloonkeeper stuck to his den, fearful that he might embroil himself in the meshes of the law, and a woman in the neighborhood finally interfered, coaxed the drunker of the two to alight from the vehicle and persuaded him to enter an adjoining domicile with her. About the close of the program, Marshal Thompson made his appearance on the scene of action, clambered into the buggy and drove away with the least drunken one of the couple. "Drunk and disorderly, profane, vulgar and brutal," should be entered up against both men, and they be punished to the limit, while the saloonkeeper should be sent to the workhouse for selling intoxicants to men when in the condition this couple were.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This In East Liverpool.

Scores of people in East Liverpool can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

Mrs. William James, who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins up under my shoulder blades and rheumatic pains in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes of the weather and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a frequent fluttering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, obtained instant relief and finally a cure."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn & Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

"BEER SIGNS."

When you see young men lounging around a saloon door, on Sixth street or elsewhere, you have the right to brand them as beer signs. They are certainly not the class of young men that a sensible business man in any legitimate enterprise, desires to employ. They will never give a fair day's work for a fair day's wage. They represent the undesirable class known as loafers.

CHICANERY.

When a so-called union paper breaks faith in every respect, giving orders for shoes, hardware, furniture, clothing, dress goods, groceries, and even tombstones, in way of payment to employees, when cash or checks are absolutely ordered by the union under which it purports to be working, then that sheet is unworthy the respect or esteem or patronage of any true unionist or lover of truth and fair play.

NOT UNIONISM.

When a so-called union or labor organization becomes our oppressor, unfair and unjust in its demands, mistaking might for right, and glorying in its shame, it is simply sowing seed which will raise grass for its grave and burial, and no fair minded man will express a regret when the ugly corpse is borne away to its merited grave, while the officials of such a misnomer will be cursed as the cause of sorrow to men who failed to appreciate their best friends.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

The drunken man who maltreated a horse yesterday in this city should be arrested and made to pay a heavy fine. The conduct of the fellow in question was simply outrageous from every standpoint, and his language was redolent of brimstone. He is a young man, once well and favorably known in this community, until the dregs of the accursed saloon assailed his life. He is worth saving, and if he possesses true manhood, he will at once bar the curse of intoxicants from his life. The saloonist who yesterday sold him liquor, while the wretched man was simply an irresponsible being, deserves to be cow-hided and afterward given six months imprisonment, at hard labor, with the chain gang.

GOOD INVESTMENT.

The improvement of the main avenues of the city is a good investment. President Marshall has been more or less joked about his anxiety to secure the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue, but he has shown the part of wisdom and has proven as solicitous for the improvement of all the main thoroughfares as he has been for his own district. The hill road to East End is the proper thoroughfare connecting city and suburb and should have received attention long ago. Our main avenues properly paved, under wise economy, are beneficial to and a good investment on the part of the public at large. Work should be done through bids, given to the lowest responsible bidder. All legitimate improvements are decidedly a good feature for the city.

THE BITER BITTEN.

The Canton Democrat waxes funny, sour and sarcastic at the expense of one J. Palmer O'Neill, a gentleman who at one time, not long since, endeavored to erect a mammoth hotel at the corner of Washington and Fifth streets, East Liverpool. The supposititious owner of the Canton Democrat attempted to use J. Palmer O'Neill as a chestnut puller, and put up a very elaborate and cunning plot along this line. Is it not barely possible that the astute manipulator had his fingers scorched by coming into too close contact with his trusted employe? The article in the Canton sheet bears strong presumptory evidence that the biter has been bitten. Low cunning may win for a season, but cunning and trickery and chicanery are not positive evidence that the possessor is heavily laden with good gray matter.

TO ALLIANCE.

A Large Number of Persons Left This Morning to Attend the Convention.

A large delegation of East Liverpool people left this morning for Alliance, where they attended the congressional convention. The delegates were: W. E. Wells, W. H. Vodrey, Geo. E. Davidson, Patrick McNicol, John Cartwright, J. N. Rose, Geo. W. Ashbaugh, Milton Logan, George Peach, Frank Milligan, Dr. R. J. Marshall, S. M. Ferguson, J. H. Simms, Criss McConnell, H. P. McCarron, A. T. Kelly.

Among others who made the trip were: A. J. Johnson, D. J. Smith, E. H. Sebring, H. Harker, Walter B. Hill and Thomas McNicol.

TAYLER NAMED BY ACCLAMATION

Baker's Name Was Not Presented at Alliance Convention This Morning.

Goes to Stark and Julius Whiting, Jr., Gets It—National Delegates Morgan and Butler.

COL. H. R. HILL AN ALTERNATE.

Alliance, April 17.—(Special.)—The Republican congressional convention of the Eighteenth district of Ohio met this morning in Craven's opera house. Practically all of the 251 delegates were present or represented by alternates.

Many of the politicians had come in overnight and therest have been arriving all morning. The fact that R. W. Tayler's renomination was assured robbed the meeting of any sensational features, but it was none the less interesting. There were other honors to be divided, the selection of a presidential elector and delegates and alternates to the national Republican convention at Philadelphia June 19.

The Columbiana county delegation organized by the election of S. J. Firestone, of Lisbon, as chairman and C. C. Connell, of Lisbon, as secretary. Ed. A. King, of Lisbon, was named as member of the congressional committee; R. J. Marshall, of East Liverpool, as member of the committee on permanent organization; H. S. Winsper, of Unity township, on credential committee; J. H. Simms, East Liverpool, on committee on resolutions; John B. Morgan, of Salem township, on committee on rules, and G. D. Evans, for vice president.

Stark county delegation organized by electing A. T. McCarthy chairman; H. S. Harter, of Canton, on congressional committee; Charles A. Mervin, committee on permanent organization; Austin A. Hay, committee on credentials; F. E. Case, resolutions committee, and John J. Humberger on rules committee.

Stark county also nominated Julius Whiting, Jr., of Canton, for presidential elector, and Colonel W. H. Morgan, of Alliance, for national delegate.

Mahoning county delegation elected M. A. Norris chairman; W. R. Stewart, secretary; C. B. Wick, congressional committee; E. Hartzell, committee on permanent organization; F. A. Hartenstein on credentials committee; H. R. Justice, committee on resolutions.

Mahoning endorsed J. B. Butler for national delegate and William Cornelius as alternate.

Convention Meets.

When the convention met the congressional committee reported H. S. Harter, of Canton, for temporary chairman and E. M. Stanley, of Sebring as secretary. The committee on permanent organization recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent.

The credentials committee reported everything regular and no contests.

Chairman Harter in opening briefly thanked the convention for the honor done him, referred to the magnificent record of fulfilled pledges made by the Republican party, and suggested that the convention get right down to business.

Ex-Mayor James A. Martin, of Lisbon, placed Mr. Tayler's name in nomination. He dwelt upon the eminent services rendered to the party and the country by the congressman, instancing the conscientious work done by Mr. Tayler during his three terms in congress, and especially referring to the lustre which he had shed upon himself and his district by his able handling of the Roberts' case. He urged especially upon the convention the desirability of keeping a good man when they had got him, and told how much more useful an experienced man was as a representative in the halls of congress than a new man could possibly be. Mr. Tayler was in every way worthy the confidence shown in him by the people of the district and had a brilliant future before him.

David Harding, of Stark county, a Baker delegate, arose and seconded the nomination in a brief address. He was followed by M. A. Norris, of Mahoning, who spoke earnestly of Mr. Tayler's services and national reputation.

By Acclamation.

Hon. C. C. Baker's name was not presented to the convention and Congressman Tayler was renominated by acclamation.

Julius Whiting, Jr., of Canton, was named for presidential elector without opposition.

J. G. Butler, of Mahoning, and Col. W. H. Morgan, of Alliance, were named delegates to the national Republican convention unopposed.

Col. H. R. Hill, of East Liverpool, and William Cornelius, of Youngstown, were named alternates.

The permanent congressional committee was composed of: Ed. A. King, of Columbiana; C. B. Wick, of Mahoning, and Judge J. P. Fawcett, of Stark.

The Resolutions.

The resolutions adopted by the convention were brief, but expressive of the faith of the party.

Congratulating the nation upon the unparalleled prosperity which the country has enjoyed under Republican administration, the convention reaffirmed the declaration of principles laid down in the St. Louis platform; commended the wise, patriotic and statesmanlike administration of William McKinley; endorsed the course of Senators Foraker and Hanna and the state administration of George K. Nash, concluding with a hearty appreciation of the efficient services in congress of their energetic and patriotic representative, Hon. R. W. Tayler.

CANTON, O.

No Wild and Woolly West.

Easterners have an erroneous impression about the vast plains country that stretches eastward from the flanks of the Rockies to the wheatfields of the Dakotas. It is a region where crimes are far less numerous in proportion to population than they are in the densely settled regions of the eastern and middle states.

If the sombreroed ruffians with pistols and knives in their boots and cartridge belts around their waists are not in the cattle country, where, then, are they to be found? Where are those Alkali Ikees, Lariat Bills, et al., who fire at the decanters in barrooms and at the silk hats of tenderfoot strangers—the villainous desperadoes whose lynching bees and other harrowing anecdotes make up considerable of the stock in trade of our eastern comic illustrators? I do not know.

For many years I have wandered through the great northwest on horseback, stagecoach and in canoes, as well as in the palatial Pullman sleeper of the great transcontinental lines, and I have never discovered any of the fierce, bewhiskered dime novel heroes. During all my travels in the Dakotas, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and British Columbia I have never seen a man hurt or witnessed any sort of row, and I would feel much safer to strike across the mountains or plains alone on a broncho and unarmed than I would to walk up Clark street at night in Chicago—St. Paul Globe.

DAYTON HOME.

One of the Veterans Speaks In Warm Terms of Praise of This Grand Home.

Joseph McCoy, of 197 Ravine street, is home on a 30-day furlough from the Soldiers' Home at Dayton. Mr. McCoy was a member of the famous 62d Pa. Infantry, commanded by Colonel Samuel Black, once a famous lawyer of Pittsburgh, and the son of one of the brightest and grandest Presbyterian ministers ever known in the Pittsburgh presbytery. Colonel Sam. Black was killed at the Gaines Mill fight on the peninsula, in front of Richmond, the second day's fight of the famous seven days' conflict. The manager of the News Review was shot through the body on the same field where the gallant Black gave up his life for his country.

Mr. McCoy speaks in unstinted terms of praise of the Dayton Home, and asserts that it is a paradise on earth to the veteran who behaves himself. The man who smuggles liquor into the Home, gets his walking papers instantly and steps outside of the paradise. This rule is imperative, as the presence of the accursed drink among the 6,000 veterans would make it a hell on earth.

The food is the very best and the bedding and beds unexcelled, those in charge believing in the adage that cleanliness is akin to godliness. The Home is surrounded by beautiful plants and flowers, carefully cultured and looked after. Good behavior entitles the soldier to a pass every other day.

Colonel J. B. Thomas is governor of the Home, and himself and wife are held in the highest esteem by the vets. Mrs. McCoy, wife of the treasurer of the Home, is a noble woman, fairly worshipped by the men of the civil war.

All innocent games are permitted. Cards are barred and gambling of every description absolutely prohibited. There is a fine reading room, splendid bath rooms, gymnasium and other features of health exercise. Those who can do light work are permitted to do so, and they are paid for their services.

Religious services are held every Sabbath, with devotional exercises during the week. During the summer or warm season, evangelists visit the Home, and seats are provided in the woods for the accommodation of the vets, and their visitors by the management of the establishment.

Space forbids fuller mention of this model Home at this time. Suffice it to say that the place is a credit to Uncle Samuel and to the state of Ohio.

Wellsville Congregation Petition Court For Permission to Carry Out the

Of Alexander McLaughlin by Which All Churches In Steubenville Presbytery.

WILL BENEFIT BY THE DIVISION.

Lisbon, April 17.—(Special.)—The board of trustees of the First Associate Reform church and society in Wellsville, O., a congregation of the United Presbyterian church of North America, has filed a petition for authority to sell lot 52 in Wellsville, the same having been devised to the church by the will of Alexander McLaughlin, who died in 1880. The will provided that for the first seven years after the testator's death the rents and profits should be applied to the church debt of the Wellsville congregation; that thereafter it was to be divided equally between it and the Steubenville presbytery of the U. P. church; but that, if at any time during the first 20 years the lot should not yield enough income to justify its care, the Wellsville congregation should sell the lot, pay off its church debt and divide the balance as directed in the will, and under this provision this application has been made.

Cure For Pneumonia.

Take six to ten onions, according to size, and chop fine; put in a large spider over a hot fire, then add about the same quantity of rye meal and vinegar enough to make it a thick paste. In the meanwhile stir it thoroughly, letting it simmer five or ten minutes. Then put in a cotton bag large enough to cover the lungs and apply it to the chest as hot as the patient can bear. When it gets cool, apply another and thus continue by reheating the poultices. In a few hours the patient will be out of danger.

This simple remedy has never failed in this too often fatal malady.

Usually three or four applications will be sufficient, but continue always until perspiration starts freely from the chest.

This simple remedy was formulated many years ago by one of the best physicians New England has ever known, who never lost a patient by this disease and won his renown by saving persons by simple remedies after the best medical talent had pronounced their cases hopeless. Personally we know of three persons who were saved by the remedy last winter in Boston after their physicians had given them up to die, and if a record was made of all similar cases during the last six years it would fill a good sized volume.—"The World's Progress."

An American Reporter.

They have a reporter on one of the Williamsburg papers who may not be much on style, but for plaid, nifty "get there" he is a jewel. A little while ago he was assigned to a political meeting and asked to give a good report of it. Now, it happened that the festivities were conducted entirely in Polish, a language of which the young man knows nothing. This fact, however, did not faze him a bit. He made his way through the hall, pushed up to the platform and sat down with the secretary. For several minutes he industriously took notes and finally the secretary, turning to him, pumped out a volley of Polish.

"I am not in it, dear boy," retorted the young man as he turned again to listen to the speaker.

The secretary looked surprised. Finally he went out and brought in a man who asked in English:

"Are you a Polish reporter?"

"Nope," was the reply. "I am an American one."

"Do you understand our language?"

"I never heard it before," retorted the scribbler, "but I think I have picked up enough since I have been here to give a rattling good story."

And he did.—New York Press.

Ancient Cattle and Butchering.

The earliest records of Egypt depict a butcher cutting up an ox, exactly as it is done today outside of the great slaughtering establishments, with a knife that he sharpened upon a steel that hung at his side and providing cuts of meat precisely like ours. They used leather, and they did better tanning than we do; the blood, instead of being processed into fertilizing, was used for cooking purposes, and our Spanish friends never see a better bull-fight than was daily purveyed for the delectation of those ancient "sports."

A little later in the world's history we find records of tricks being played in the cattle trade, for do not some historians aver that Jacob exercised undue influence upon the cows of Laban's herds as well as upon the ewes of his flocks? And others tell us that Zaph-u-to—otherwise known as "Joseph the Wise," stockbroker in chief for the Pharaoh Apophies, who, of course, was not known in the deal—cornered the cattle as well as the grain of all the country about.—Self Culture.

Infant Baptisms In Russia.

"I was fortunate enough," writes Trumbull White, "to visit the Church of St. David, in Tiflis, Russia, just in time to attend a baptismal ceremony. According to the rites of the Greek church, as practiced in this ancient Georgian temple, the youngster in question, a fine boy 4 or 5 weeks old, had to be immersed three times in a baptismal font filled with water, each time to be completely covered, in addition to various blessings and anointings with holy oil and several long prayers.

"The benevolent looking old priest proved himself a man of kindly thoughtfulness. While the family group around the baby was getting him properly unclad, for the ceremony requires that the child shall be naked, the priest surreptitiously dipped his finger into the font, and I saw by his face that it was too cold. Then he stepped behind a screen, where his samovar was steaming, emptied the hot water into a pitcher, and while the family still kept busy over the baby he poured enough to temper the pool that had been provided for the shorn lamb. The result was that the little fellow took his plunges without a murmur and thereby distinguished himself."—Chicago Record.

"Paradise Billed Down."

A tourist tells how he traveled with a young couple evidently on their honeymoon, and the passengers in that particular carriage were on the grin most of the time over their antics.

The bride had got the man she loved, and she didn't care who saw her put her head on his shoulder. The bridegroom had got a farm with his wife, and if he wanted to feed her on sweets or squeeze her hand whose business was it?

A little old man sat directly opposite the couple, and he looked at them so often that the young husband finally explained:

"We've just got married."

"I knowed it all the time," chuckled the other.

"And we can't help it, you know."

"No, you can't. I'll be blown if you can!"

"I presume it all seems very silly to an old man like you," continued the husband.

"Does it? Does it?" cackled the old fellow. "Well, I can tell you it does not, then. I've been there three times over, and now I'm on my way to marry a fourth. Silly! Why, children, it's paradise billed down!"—London Fun.

Packing For Moving.

"If you will only pack things in small boxes," says the woman who knows how to move, "you will have the men who move you in a comparatively beatific state of mind; books, for instance. It is strange, but every woman who has books to move immediately gets the biggest box she can find for them. Books are heavy anyway, and big boxes are liable to break with their weight, and it is almost impossible to move them. They will fit just as well into small, square boxes in which packages of starch or oatmeal have come, and they will pack into the moving van better, and the men can handle great numbers of them with little trouble."—New York Times.

PLANS FOR M'KINLEY.

Outline of Coming Republican Platform.

EXPANSION THE LEADING FEATURE.

The Party to Declare Itself In No Uncertain Tones—Belief In Gold Standard to Be Reiterated—Other Points of the Philadelphia Platform.

CHICAGO, April 17.—A special to a local paper from Washington said: Administration leaders have agreed upon the issues and articles of Republican faith which will be incorporated in the national platform to be submitted to the Philadelphia convention for ratification. A rough draft of the Republican party creed has been accepted by Republican leaders of the senate and Republican national committeemen. The opening declaration will be a hearty endorsement of President McKinley and a tribute to his personal management of the most brilliant military and naval achievements of the close of the century. Unqualified approval will be accorded to all the administrative acts.

The establishment of a gold standard will be dwelt upon, and a plank will be devoted to a renewed allegiance to the gold standard. The keynote of the platform will be the expansion issue. A strong, clear utterance in favor of the retention of the Philippines and of a vigorous foreign policy will be delivered. There will be no positive affirmation of the right of this government to govern the Philippines. That will be left for future adjudication. The policy of protection will be affirmed, and the platform will pledge the party to the support of the doctrine of reciprocity.

A greater merchant marine and liberal pension laws will be demanded and the Monroe doctrine reasserted. The Nicaraguan canal will be supported if no action is taken at this session of congress. The developments of the near future in Cuba and the outcome of the municipal elections next month will largely shape the policy toward that island. Among other planks in the platform will be one in favor of an augmented navy, others in favor of civil service, free homesteads, restriction on immigration and temperance and woman suffrage will also have a place in the platform.

ASKS $10,000 FOR DEWEY.

President Wants Him Paid For His Work as Philippine Commissioner. Expenses of Commission.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Complying with a resolution of inquiry, the president sent to the senate an itemized statement of the expenses of the Philippine commission. The statement includes the following items:

Compensation of $10,000 each to Commissioners Schurman, Worcester and Denby, $30,000; per diem allowance to commissioners after their return to the United States, $5,285; secretary to commission (compensation), $8,500; per diem ($3,660), $12,220; transportation, $13,687; household expenses in Manila, $9,252; clerical services, $31,701; miscellaneous, $14,998. Total, $117,185.

The president also transmitted, with his endorsement, a recommendation from Secretary Hay that provision be made for payment to the naval and military members of the commission (Admiral Dewey and General Otis) at the same rate as that paid to the other members. He says they have received nothing for their services in excess of their regular salaries.

THE REBEL LOSS 160.

Insurgents Repulsed, Having Attacked American Garrison, at Batoc.

MANILA, April 17.—General Young reported that 300 insurgent riflemen and Bolomen attacked the American garrison at Batoc, province of North Ilocos, but were repulsed, losing 160 men. The Americans had no casualties.

REBELS SURPRISED.

Attacked by Americans and Fifty-Three of Them Were Killed.

MANILA, April 17.—Captain Dodd, with a squadron of the Third cavalry, recently surrounded a village in Benguet province, and surprised 200 insurgents, living in barracks, apparently a recruiting center for the province. The enemy lost 53 men killed. Our troops also captured 44 men and burned the village. One American was wounded.

Republicans Nominate Acheson.

WASHINGTON, Pa., April 17.—By a vote of 135 delegates to 50. Congressman Ernest F. Acheson was nominated as Washington county's choice for congress over Mr. L. A. McCracken. The most surprising thing of the convention was that Acheson, when called upon, went to the platform and delivered a speech for the first time in many years that he has been in politics.

FAVORS KRUPP ARMOR.

Cummings (Dem., N. Y.) Made a Speech In the House Advocating Its Use.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The house entered upon the consideration of the naval appropriation bill, with the prospect of a severe struggle over the question of armor plate, building ships in government yards, and the provision in the bill for the coast and geodetic survey. The bill carries $13,000,000 more than any previous naval bill.

Mr. Boss, the acting chairman, and Mr. Cummings, the ranking minority member of the committee, defended the bill. The latter declared himself in favor of paying $545 for Krupp armor at least until all the ships authorized were built and said that the committee had information, the source of which he was not at liberty to reveal, showing that we could obtain Krupp armor at a price lower than any other country in the world.

Mr. Kitchin (N. C.), one of the members who signed the minority report, criticized what he termed the general extravagance of the bill and advocated the establishment of a government armor plate factory to protect the government against extortion.

THE NEW GOVERNOR GOING IN STATE.

North Atlantic Squadron to Escort Allen Into San Juan Harbor—Other Ceremonies Proposed.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Mr. Allen, the newly-chosen governor of Porto Rico, is arranging to leave Washington for San Juan toward the end of the present week. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Allen and their daughter. The trip will be made on the United States steamship Dolphin.

Governor Allen will set up the new civil government, and inside of three weeks will return to the United States to arrange his private affairs, when he will return again.

The Dolphin will enter the harbor at San Juan escorted by the entire North Atlantic squadron, under the command of Rear Admiral Farquhar on his flagship New York.

Governor Allen will be inaugurated at San Juan on May 1 and General Davis, the military governor, will turn out all of the United States troops under his command in honor of the occasion. The ships of the squadron will fire salutes, which will be answered by the shore batteries. There will be some speeches, and at night the fleet will use their electric lights and there will be general illuminations.

TO CIRCUMVENT TRUSTS.

A House Committee Prepares One Measure and Amendments to the Sherman Law.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The measures directed against trusts were determined upon by the special sub-committee on trusts of the house judiciary committee. As agreed upon the remedy is twofold, namely, a constitutional amendment giving congress full power to deal with trusts, and a new anti-trust law making the following extensions to the Sherman act:

First—Requiring the branding or marking of trust made goods shipped out of a state, so as to be easily identified as the product of a trust.

Second—Prohibiting the interstate traffic of trust made goods not so branded and making them subject to seizure and condemnation.

Third—Requiring corporations having a capital over $1,000,000, or doing an annual business of $1,000,000, to file a report of their affairs with the secretary of state.

Fourth—Providing the injunction against combinations sending trust-made goods from state to state to foreign countries.

Fifth—Prohibiting the use of the mails to concerns and their officials proven to be trusts.

Considered Alaskan Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—During almost the entire session the senate had under consideration the Alaskan civil code bill. The amendment providing for the mining of gold along the beach in the district was perfected, after a discussion lasting nearly four hours.

Under Control of Quay Faction.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., April 17.—The Columbia county Republican convention was held and was under the complete control of the Quay faction.

THE BOERS IN FLIGHT.

Trying to Escape the Net Roberts Spread For Them.

THE SIEGE OF WEPENER RAISED.

Distrust Exists In London as to Any Rapid, Continuous Advance Toward Pretoria—Due Chiefly to Lack of Horses, Which Die In Large Numbers.

LONDON, April 17.—4:15 a. m.—Lord Roberts has spread his net far and wide to catch the adventurous commandos that have been making mischief in the southeastern part of the state. The net has not yet been drawn in, but at the headquarters of Lord Roberts the impression exists that the power of the Boers is decreasing. A Daily News correspondent has them fleeing to the southeast; a Standard correspondent reports them fleeing northward; a Daily Telegraph correspondent says that some are going north and others south; while a Morning Post representative says it is not known what the Boers are doing.

The investment of Wepener, according to a special dispatch from Bloemfontein, has absolutely been abandoned. According to a Bethany dispatch the Boers are unable to retreat northward, because the British strongly hold all roads.

Divers reports come from Natal, one asserting that the Boers have retired beyond the Biggarsburg range and another saying that some of them are close to Ladysmith.

Distrust exists in London as to any rapid, continuous advance toward Pretoria, chiefly on account of the lack of horses, many of which die in the case of the long voyages. Letters from the Cape say that the three days' journey by rail is made in open trucks, that the arrangements for feeding and watering are inadequate and that the unfortunate animals break down rapidly in consequence of these hardships.

Despite the energy of its buyers abroad, the war office foresees much difficulty in supplying the enormous number of horses required.

ANTI-LYNCHING LAW CONSTITUTIONAL.

Decision Made In Chick Mitchell Case, at Urbana, O., and Caldwell Case, at Cleveland.

COLUMBUS, April 17.—The supreme court declared the anti-lynching law constitutional. The law provides that the heirs of any person who is lynched may collect $5,000 from the commissioners in the county in which the affair occurs. The decision was rendered in the cases of Click Mitchell, hanged by a mob at Urbana, and J. W. Caldwell, who was shot and beaten by strikers at Cleveland. The present law was drawn by Albion W. Tourgee, the celebrated jurist and novelist. A former law was declared unconstitutional, because it fixed a specific amount that could be recovered as damages.

The Tourgee law simply fixes a maximum of damages that may be collected, $500 in case of slight injury, $1,000 in case of serious injury and $5,000 in case of the death of the victim resulted. The decision in the Caldwell case is a most important one. Caldwell took the place of one of the men who went out on a strike at the Brown Hoisting company's plant in Cleveland. He was assaulted by strikers, being hit on the head with a glass insulator, and was shot in the leg. He held that the commissioners did not afford him the proper protection and sued. He lost in both the lower courts. The supreme court reverses both the lower courts.

RUDE TO A PRIEST.

If the Charge Is Proven, Major Knight Will Be Relieved of His Command.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The secretary of war has ordered an investigation made at New York city of the charge that Major John D. G. Knight, corps of engineers, commanding the engineer school at Willets Point, N. Y., upheld the action of a sentry, who at the point of a bayonet kept Father Tierney, of the Roman Catholic church, away from the performance of his religious duties at the army post, by forbidding his entrance.

Representative Fitzgerald of Massachusetts, recently introduced a resolution concerning the alleged refusal of certain army officers to permit Catholic priests to administer their offices at army posts, the resolution being based on the alleged action of Major Knight in the case of Father Tierney. Representative Fitzgerald was informed by the secretary of war that the matter would be investigated and if it were found that the officer had exceeded his authority he would be relieved.

DECLINED THE INVITATION.

Arcos Can't Rejoice With Chicagoans on Manila Battle Anniversary.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Mayor Harrison received from Duke d'Arcos, the Spanish minister at Washington, a reply to an invitation to attend the Dewey celebration in Chicago, saying in part:

"It is impossible for me to believe that you have advisedly asked me, the representative of Spain, to go to your city and rejoice with you on the destruction of the Spanish ships and on the death of so many brave sailors—my compatriots. That would have been simply an insult; and, as I do not deserve it, and it cannot have been in your intention, I am perfectly sure, as I say, that all this is the result of an error."

In reply, Mayor Harrison has written the minister, explaining that the invitation was sent through the carelessness or ignorance of a clerk, and extending sincere apologies for the unintentional discourtesy.

PRESIDENT'S COMING TRIP.

He and Mrs. McKinley to Attend Ecumenical Conference—Also to Go to Canton.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The details of the president's trip to New York and Canton are practically completed. The party, consisting of the president and Mrs. McKinley, Secretary Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Barnes, Mrs. Hobart and Garret A. Hobart, the widow and son of the late vice-president, and Dr. Rixey, will leave here for Paterson, N. J., in a private car attached to the regular 10 o'clock train on the Pennsylvania road next Thursday morning.

The presidential party will remain in Paterson as the guests of Mrs. Hobart until Saturday morning, when they will go to New York to attend the Ecumenical Conference on Foreign Missions at Carnegie Hall Saturday evening. While in New York the party will stay at the Manhattan hotel.

Late Sunday night the party will take a train for Canton, Ohio, where they will remain about three days, reaching Washington on their return Thursday or Friday of next week.

HILLIS NO LONGER

A PRESBYTERIAN.

Chicago Presbytery Granted His Request. Then Asked Assembly to Consider Creed.

CHICAGO, April 17.—With only one dissenting vote the report of the committee to which was referred the request of Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Brooklyn, that his name be erased from the rolls of the Chicago presbytery, was adopted by that body at its regular meeting. It granted his request. The questions of Presbyterian doctrine raised by Dr. Hillis in his sermon at Plymouth church, Brooklyn, did not, however, have any bearing on the acceptance or rejection of Dr. Hillis' resignation. The committee reported that it had further correspondence with Dr. Hillis on the subject, and that in his second letter the Brooklyn divine had again asked that his name be erased from the rolls of the presbytery.

The presbytery, by a unanimous vote, adopted a set of resolutions, introduced by Dr. Herrick Johnson, president of McCormick Theological seminary, overruling the general assembly to appoint a committee to report on the general question of Presbyterian creed.

The resolutions were as follows: In view of the widespread misunderstanding of what the things are that are most surely believed by our beloved Presbyterian church; and, In view of the archaic forms in which some of the doctrines of our church have expression in the historic confession of faith; and, In view of the gross misrepresentations of our faith that claims to find their justification in these existing forms. We, the presbytery of Chicago, do overture the general assembly to appoint a committee to take into consideration this whole matter of a re-statement of our doctrinal standard, and to report to the next assembly following what, in their judgment, should be the action of our church on this subject.

TOLEDO APPROPRIATION KILLED.

Voris Confirmed as Ohio Commissioner of Insurance.

COLUMBUS, April 17.—The Ohio legislature adjourned. Among other legislation killed by the adjournment was the $1,000,000 appropriation for the Toledo exposition.

A. T. Voris was confirmed as state insurance commissioner by the senate.

BY ASSASSIN'S SHOT.

A Sergeant Killed at Croton Landing, N. Y.

SOLDIERS FRANTIC WITH ANGER.

The Officer Mysteriously Shot While Changing the Guard, Near a Place Called Little Italy—Men Fired In Bushes, but Hit No Person.

CROTON LANDING, N. Y., April 17.—The first bloodshed as the outcome of the strike at the Cornell dam was the life's blood of Sergeant Robert Douglass, of the Eleventh separate company, of Mount Vernon, who was shot dead by an unknown assassin while he was relieving guard. The wildest excitement prevailed throughout the camp as soon as the news of the assassination spread to the different tents, and the soldiers are frantic over the crime.

The point where the sergeant fell is known as Post 10, which was in charge of Corporal McDowell. It is situated on top of the hill near Little Italy, where armed strikers were seen drilling or marching about brandishing rifles and shotguns. The spot is high over the huge pile of masonry, and from it one can command a view of the country for miles on each side up and down the Croton valley. Douglass was talking to Corporal McDowell and the other members of the guard when he suddenly clasped his hands to his stomach and said:

"Load, boys; I'm shot," and then fell to the ground. It was pitch dark at the time, but McDowell and the others fired a volley into a clump of bushes nearby without hitting anyone. No one saw the flash or heard the sound of the shot which killed Douglass, and it was a most mysterious affair.

ITALIAN WIELDED

WEAPONS FATALITY.

Murdered Four Men and Wounded Two and Himself Probably Killed by a Train.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 17.—Four persons are dead and two are dangerously wounded at the mining town of Windber, near here, as the result of a drunken Italian is charged with the wholesale crime, but it is believed that he is already beyond the reach of the law, as a man answering his description was found under a train at South Fork.

The row occurred at the home of a French woman, known as Mrs. Stux, until a couple of weeks ago, at which time she married an Italian. The place has been known as a "speakeasy."

The dead are: John Halverson, a Swede; Ed P. McCauley, an American; Gust Griegback, a Slav; Samuel Shives, an American.

Some of these are victims of a revolver and some of the deadly stiletto, the two wounded men, Thomas Kipling and "Jerk" Buckwalter, both being wounded with the latter instrument. There were a dozen or more men in the house when the affray occurred, but none of them can be found, and it is impossible to learn even the name of the murderer or any facts concerning him, beyond that he wore a slouch hat, slightly creased.

Mrs. Stux and two other women, who were inmates of the house, are under arrest, and the place is being guarded by men with winchesters. Various stories are afloat as to the cause of the row, but the women refuse to talk. One story is that Mrs. Stux angered the murderer by giving too much attention to other men, another that the fight was over a game of cards, and a third that it was the result of bad blood over the strike at the Horatio mine.

Rough treatment will probably be accorded the murderer if it proves that he is still alive and he is caught.

STRONG ACTION OF WOOD.

Wouldn't Let Cattle Trust Cut Off Havana's Meat Supply.

HAVANA, April 17.—In consequence of the recent action of the Havana municipality and of General Ludlow in breaking down the monopoly in the use of the slaughter house, held in trust for the cattle dealers, the latter threaten to cut off Havana's meat supply. General Wood had policemen occupy the slaughter house, keeping a section open to all who might wish to kill cattle there, and informing the members of the cattle trust that if they refused to supply cattle they would not be allowed in future to kill at the slaughter house.

Only one man refused to kill, and he was informed that he would not be allowed to use the slaughter house again.

A Blow at Boxing.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The board of police commissioners refused the application of the Coney Island Sporting Club, otherwise known as the Seaside Athletic club, for a permit from May 1 to Sep. 1, when the anti-boxing law, which was passed at the late session of the state legislature, will go into effect. The board's action is taken as an indication that all similar applications will be refused.

HORRORS OF FAMINE

IN STRICKEN INDIA.

Millions Starving—Girls Sold by Parents to Mohammedans For Money to Buy Food.

BOSTON, April 17.—The Rev. Rockwell Clancy, a missionary at Allahabad, who is visiting his brother in Medford, said in part:

"The condition of famine stricken India today is something perfectly awful to contemplate. I cannot tell anything about the number dying, but when I left Bombay last February there were some 60,000,000 people suffering and over 30,000,000 were in dire distress and of these but 5,000,000 were receiving government aid.

"When the famine set in people began to sell everything they had that they might get a little grain for food. They took the doors from their houses and sold them; sold their furniture and farming utensils and then when they had no longer anything to sell, they sold their children. The boys don't sell well, and the traffic is largely in girls.

"I saw girls in one town just before I came away being sold for 30 cents apiece. But they won't buy the boys, so when the parents can no longer support their children they abandon them."

12 PLANTS SHUT DOWN.

The American Steel and Wire Company Compelled to Stop Operations Due to Labor Troubles.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Labor troubles in the building trades are stated by President John W. Lambert, of the American Steel and Wire company, as the reasons for orders issued closing down all the plants of the concern in the vicinity of Chicago, all those at Joliet, Ill., excepting the Rockdale mill, and the extensive plant at Anderson, Ind.

Twelve plants were ordered closed. Thousands of skilled workmen were temporarily suspended by the action of the wire magnates.

One of the plants shut down was located in Pittsburg.

BAN PLACED BY POPE.

Catholic Orders Prohibited Utterly From Dabbling in Politics.

PARIS, April 17.—The Rome correspondent of The Temps, in a dispatch that has almost official significance, said:

"The papal decision prohibiting the Assumptionists from continuing the editorial management of La Croix was arrived at after a solemn conclave of bishops and cardinals.

"Hereafter no religious congregation will be permitted to take any part in politics. This decision is binding upon Catholics all over the world, including the American Paulists."

Miller Found Guilty.

NEW YORK, April 17.—William F. Miller, of Franklin syndicate fame, was found guilty by a jury in the court in Brooklyn of grand larceny in the first degree for taking from Mrs. Katherine Moerser $1,000 which she invested in his 520 per cent scheme "to get rich quick." The prisoner was remanded for sentence a week from next Friday. His counsel stated that the case would be appealed.

Senator Hanna Not Ill.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., April 17.—The reports sent out from Norfolk to the effect that Senator Mark Hanna, who is staying at Old Point with Mrs. Hanna, Miss Hanna and Miss Wilson, their guest, had contracted a severe case of grippe and was confined to his room, is without foundation.

Altgeld the Chief Speaker.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 17.—Former Governor John P. Altgeld, of Illinois, was the principal speaker at the banquet given at the Stanwix hotel by the Bimetallic League of Albany in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson. He responded to the toast "What Would Jefferson Do?"

On Trial for a Woman's Death.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Alfred E. Morrison, a teacher of languages, was arraigned for trial at White Plains for the alleged murder of a woman with whom he lived in Mount Vernon. The defense is that the woman was killed by Morrison while he was in a somnambulant state.

Railroad List Made a Considerable Show of Strength—Heavy Selling in Iron.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The stock market, after making an indifferent struggle all day against the forces of depression, yielded all around in the last hour and closed under severe pressure and with prices on a rapidly descending scale. Transactions were large all day and the railroad list made a considerable show of strength in the opening dealings, but there was heavy selling in the iron and steel stocks.

Late in the day a rumor took form that there was to be extensive shutting down of plants in the great metal companies on the ground of overproduction, in anticipation of business during the early part of this year which had not materialized. American Steel and Wire and Federal Steel led the decline in point of activity and weakness. At the extreme declines in the group were Tennessee Coal and Iron, 9; Steel and Wire, 8½; Federal Steel, 7½; American Hoop, 4½. There were a few railroad stocks besides the southwestern group which made a stand against the weakness, but the majority of railroad stocks closed at from 1 to 2 points under Thursday's last prices.

The bond market was active and showed marked strength, which yielded only slightly to the late depressing influences. Total sales, par value, $2,385,000.

Chicago Wheat, Corn and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 17.—The wheat market was quiet but firm Monday, influenced by foreign damage reports, the corn strength and better foreign bids, May closing ¼c over Saturday. May corn closed ¾c up and May oats ½c depressed. At the close provisions were from 5c higher in lard to 10c lower in pork.

BELIEVED IN GHOSTS

DR. ELLIOTT COUES SAID THAT HE OFTEN SAW THEM.

The Famous Ornithologist's Description of the Spirit of a Dead Friend Who Appeared to and Converses With Him in His Room.

Dr. Elliott Coues, the famous ornithologist and member of the American Academy of Sciences, was long recognized as the foremost advocate of belief in the existence of ghosts. He had promised several of his friends that, if able to do so, he would appear to them after his own demise, and they are still waiting, with no little interest, to see if he can carry out the agreement.

"I have myself seen the ghosts of a good many dead persons," said the doctor one day. "I remember one occasion when I had just gone to bed, the light being turned out, I was composing myself to slumber when I suddenly became aware of a presence in the room. The impression conveyed to my mind was that it was the presence of a certain person lately deceased, with whom I had been on very intimate terms. In fact, I felt an overpowering sense of the nearness of the individual in question."

"About the same moment there arose slowly from the floor a nebulous mass of what looked like shining white vapor, which began to take shape, as did the smoke from the casket opened by the fisherman in the 'Arabian Nights' tales. Gradually it assumed a more distinct outline, until it presented a radiant image of my friend. The lips appeared to move, and from them came an intelligible utterance, a message in short, from the departed. I do not care to say what that message was."

"I can assure you that the vision was no dream, and the nature of the message was such as to eliminate, to my own satisfaction at all events, the theory of hallucination. What, then, was this shape of shining white vapor? Was it a human soul? It is a question pregnant with intense interest."

"Each of us, I believe, has in him a ghost, which ordinarily is confined to the precincts of the body. When I die, my ghost leaves my body permanently, and, having done so, perhaps it may continue to be the vehicle and means of expression of conscious will, memory and understanding. St. Paul says, 'There is a natural body and a spiritual body.' It is of the spiritual body that I am speaking."

"Our senses take cognizance of no forms of matter except those which are in a certain degree of condensation, but the spiritual body may be of a more rarefied and tenuous substance. The nonappearance of ghosts to us may be a question not of the existence of specters, but of the acuteness of our perceptive faculties."

"My own experience is that the coming of an apparition is always preceded by a curious sensation which I call the 'ghost chill.' When this symptom arrives, the threshold of consciousness seems to be shifted to the extent of rendering possible a perception of something ordinarily invisible. The change is usually very brief, lasting only a few seconds, during which the manifestation occurs."

"One reason that I have for believing the evidence of my own senses in this matter is that on several occasions the apparition of my own personality has presented itself to other persons in places where my body was not at the time. Some years ago I was in Chicago at an ordinary evening party with about 40 friends, when an individual in Washington, who did not even know where I was, was visited by my phantom and received from it a brief message stating where I was at the time and giving the names of two or three of the guests present—persons with whom the observer was unacquainted. This was one of the rare cases where a ghost made itself audible."

"You ask what would happen if one should approach a ghost such as I have described and try to touch it. My reply is that there would certainly be no danger in doing so, for specters never do anybody any harm, the fear of them entertained by most people being simply a dread of that which is unknown and not understood. Whatever is unknown is always terrible. But the phantom is composed of matter too tenuous to present any obstacle, and I do not doubt that it would dissolve and disappear if you attempted to walk through it."—Washington Post.

Not a "Pompous Prelate."

Bishop Gailor, at a banquet at which the bishop of Kentucky was present, told this story on the latter gentleman: "In one of the backwoods towns of Kentucky," said Bishop Gailor, "the pastor of the Baptist church gave out this notice before the sermon one Sunday morning:

"I am told and have been partially convinced," he said, "that it is my Christian duty to give the following notice—to wit: That a man who styles himself 'bishop of Kentucky' is about to visit this town and will hold forth in the courthouse on Wednesday evening. I desire to add, however, my brethren, that, in the humble opinion of your pastor, the place for members of this congregation on Wednesday night will be in this place listening to your own pastor rather than listening to the words of that pompous prelate at the courthouse."

"On the following Thursday morning the Baptist went out upon the street seeking for some of his congregation who had not been at the Wednesday evening meeting. The first one he found was a deacon."

"Well, deacon," he asked, "were you to the courthouse last night?"

"Yes," said the deacon.

"I trust," said the parson, with some irony in his tone, "you were edified by the words of the pompous prelate?"

"Now, looky here, parson," said the deacon, "that man ain't no pompous prelate; no such thing. He's just as common as there is. What do you reckon on he did? He preached in his shirt sleeves!"—Indianapolis Sentinel.

An Inimitable Feat.

The sailors of three men-of-war, American, French and British, while in the same harbor, were competing with each other for the best display of seamanship. A Yankee went to the top of the mainmast and stood there with an arm extended. A Frenchman then went aloft and extended both arms.

An Irishman on board the British ship thought if he could stand there with a leg and an arm extended he would be declared the most daring sailor. Nimbly he mounted to the highest point and attempted to do so, but at the last moment lost his balance and fell through the rigging toward the deck.

The various ropes against which he came in contact broke his fall, and when near the deck he succeeded in grasping a rope. To this he hung for a couple of seconds and then dropped lightly on the deck, landing safely on his feet.

Folding his arms triumphantly, as if it were all in the programme, he glanced toward the rival ships and joyously exclaimed:

"There, you frog eating and pig sticking foreigners, beat that if you can!"—Collier's Weekly.

Legend of the Violin.

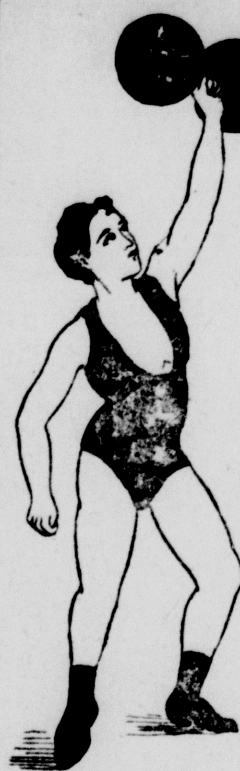

An ancient legend tells us that one day as Orpheus, son of Apollo and the muse Calliope, was walking by the sea, trilling in soft cadence a song taught him by the celebrated teacher Linos, he was attracted by the sound of sweet music, which seemed but the echo of his own glorious voice. He walked along, singing, and the sound approached, as if to meet him, till finally it sang at his very feet.

Glancing down, he saw the shell of a turtle, which had been cast high and dry upon the beach and left there by the receding waves. The little thing had died and dried up so that only the sinews, shriveled to strings, and the shell remained. The dried up sinews were tightly stretched across the hollow shell, and the wind, as it listed, touched the strings, causing them to vibrate over the shell sounding board and give forth the sweet, sad tones.

Enchanted, he bore his treasure home and from it fashioned the viol shell, with which he ever after accompanied his voice, and the nymph Eurydice, enchanted by its magic, became his bride.—National Magazine.

George Gould's Ready Wit.

I heard a story about George Gould which goes to show that the possession of great wealth doesn't necessarily preclude the possession of a passing ready wit. It was several or even more years ago, while the elder Gould was still alive, that a woman I know met George Gould at a dinner. He was presented to her quite casually, and she did not catch his name. Conversation turned on operations in Wall street, and the woman I am speaking of launched out into a perfect torrent of ladylike abuse of Jay Gould. Ev-

Body building, as they understood it in Greece and Rome, seems a lost art. Young men flat chested, flabby muscled, slouch along the streets, with scarcely one physical attribute of manhood. And yet these young men would like to be well muscled, supple, erect and hardy. But they don't know how to go about it. They try dumb bells, rowing and boxing, but only in a half hearted way. These sports should be play to them but are really work. The main factor in this condition is an ill nourished body. The stomach is not working properly. The digestive and nutritive organs are not in active health. The result is that the nutrition for the body is not distributed in proper proportions to make blood, bone and muscle.

Weak young men who take a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will find a marked change in their physical strength and energy. The body will be built up so that gymnastics will not tax and tire them, but be the natural exercise enjoyed by muscles which are nourished into firm health.

In a letter received from A. D. Weller, Esq., of Pensacola, Escambia Co., Fla. (Box 544), he states: "I have, since receiving your diagnosis of my case as stomach trouble and liver complaint, taken eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and must say that I am transformed from a walking shadow (as my friends called me) to perfect health. I value your remedies very highly and take pleasure in recommending them to any and all who suffer as I did. Four months ago I did not think to be in shape to assist our 'Uncle Sam' in case of hostilities, but thanks to you, I am now ready for the 'Dons.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

Everybody tried to stop her, but she perceived nothing except that people were looking at the young man. Turning to him, she asked:

"Do you know Jay Gould?"

"Well, yes," he said; "I've had some business dealings with him."—Washington Post.

The College Bone Man.

Two young men who must have been medical students boarded an Angora car late one night with a fully articulated skeleton. Each had one arm linked with that of the skeleton, whose bones rattled gressomely as they walked to the forward end of the car and gravely seated themselves with their inanimate companion between them. Between the grinning teeth of the skeleton was a cigarette, and a derby hat adorned its shining skull. The car was rather crowded, and the other passengers, most of whom were men, gazed in open mouthed astonishment at the strange spectacle. The two young fellows, however, pretended to be unconscious of their surroundings and held such converse with the skeleton as "Too bad you didn't wear your mackintosh, Bill; I'm afraid you'll catch cold," or, "Say, Bill, better throw away your cigarette or the conductor will put you off."

When the conductor came through for the fares, one of the young men handed him 15 cents, and he rang up three fares without a word of comment. At Sixteenth street a young girl entered the car and looked around for a seat. "Here, Bill," exclaimed one of the students, "where's your gallantry? Get up and give the lady a seat." Then he yanked the skeleton out of its place and set it on his knees. The girl gave one screech, fled to the back platform and insisted that the conductor stop the car and put her off.

"Gee, Bill!" remarked the student, gazing reproachfully into the skeleton's face. "You've deteriorated. You used to be quite a lady's man." Then everybody laughed.—Philadelphia Record.

Adams and Sculpture.

President John Quincy Adams once asserted that he would not give 50 cents for all the works of Phidias and Praxiteles, adding, "I hope America will not think of sculpture for two centuries to come."

When some one quoted this to William Morris Hunt, he asked dryly, "Does that sum of money really represent Mr. Adams' estimate of the sculpture of those artists or the value which he places upon 50 cents?"

When a man wants to break away, the first symptom is his declaration to the girl that he is afraid he cannot make her as happy as she deserves.—Aitchison Globe.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO. 261.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1900.

THE PIONEER DEAL CLOSED

Monroe Patterson Purchased the Pottery For Liverpool Parties.

NEW SWITCH TO BE BUILT

And the Capacity of the Plant Will Be Increased Two Kilns.

WELLSVILLE POTTERY COMPANY

The Pioneer pottery, of Wellsville, has been purchased by Monroe Patterson, of this city, and the property is now in his possession.

The final arrangements were made last night when the stockholders of the plant met and decided to abide by the proposition made to Mr. Patterson by I. B. Clark. The sale was fixed up at once and the pottery turned over to Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Patterson this morning stated that he had purchased the pottery for a company to be organized in this city, but that he was not now prepared to give out the names of the company, as all details were not complete, but that they would meet next week and organize.

The pottery will be put in good shape at once, but how soon it will be started depends largely on how long it will take to get in the new railroad switch, as it was purchased with the understanding that a switch would be put in and the matter will be investigated before the pottery is put in operation. Mr. Patterson stated that he didn't know whether he would start the plant unless the switch is put in.

The Pioneer is a four-kiln plant, but before it is put in operation another kiln and possibly two kilns will be built, making it a six-kiln factory. The price paid is not given out, and the only thing Mr. Patterson would say in regard to the matter was that he gave $1 and other valuable consideration for it. It is estimated that the property sold for not less than $25,000.

The name of the new company will probably be the Wellsville Pottery company, and will be capitalized at $100,000. They will manufacture white ware.

AN EDITOR.

Colonel Brewer, of the War Cry, Will Speak in This City Soon.

Colonel Brewer, editor of the War Cry, of New York, will deliver a lecture at the Salvation Army barracks in this city on the night of April 18, using for his subject: "Midnight Bells Through Slums and Cafes of Paris." He will be accompanied by Major Ludgate, a well known singer.

To the Home.

The Odd Fellows are still in on their trip to the Odd Fellows Home at Springfield, and it is probable all arrangements will be completed within a short time.

AN IRATE FATHER.

A Young Man From This City Called on a Girl in Pennsylvania, But Met Her Father.

A well known young man of the city now mourns the loss of his best girl. It all happened this way. He became acquainted with the young lady, who comes from a Pennsylvania town, and she came here to visit friends. The young man called one evening, but the friends with whom she was staying objected to his presence and the young lady went home the next day. The next report was that the pair were to be married. The rumor came to the ears of the young lady's father and when the young man called he was met at the door by the irate father and told to depart. He is now figuring how to get to see the girl without meeting the father, and many parties are awaiting developments.

SANITARY OFFICER BURGESS

Tells How They Used to Get Ahead of Prisoners at City Hall.

The fact that Mayor Davidson threatened to put George Cox at work on the streets caused Sanitary Officer Burgess to think of the time when he was mayor of the city, and he told the following story at city hall:

"We used to have a ball and chain at city hall and when we captured a stray he was led out on the streets to work. The chain was always made a little loose for his leg, and he would only work a short time and when he thought no one was looking he would slip it off and depart, thinking he had the best of the city government. That is just what we wanted, as he would never return under the circumstances."

SICK SINCE JANUARY.

Mattie Tegard Died at Midnight After Being Ill for Four Months.

Mattie, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tegard, died at the home of her parents in the old Davidson house on Second street. She had been ill since January with a cold fever, and during the last few weeks was thought to be recovering. A hemorrhage of the lungs caused her death. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon, being conducted by Dr. C. E. Davidson. Interment will be made in the view cemetery.

STREETS SOON TO BE IMPROVED

President R. J. Marshall, of Council, Talks About Work For This Year.

Pennsylvania Avenue, Calcutta Road and Trentvale Street to Be Completed.

NEW COUNCIL WILL HAVE TO ACT

The question of improvements will come up in council very soon, but what action council will take is not known. Pennsylvania avenue and Calcutta road are still to be graded and paved, while Trentvale street is still to be paved out of the amount the people voted to expend on those thoroughfares. Of course the amount, $6,000 to each road, will not complete the work. It is thought the property can be assessed enough to make up the difference.

Bids were taken for the grading and paving of Calcutta road and Pennsylvania avenue last fall, and Foley Bros., of Columbus, were the lowest bidders. They asked permission to let the matter stand until this spring, when they stated council could order them to go to work as soon as they wanted to. The matter will have to be gone over by the new council before any contract is let.

President Marshall, in discussing the matter, said he did not know what action council would take, but that he undoubtedly thought work on the improvements should be commenced as soon as possible, as the people voted for them and they should get what they voted for.

COUNTY CASES.

Infirmity Directors Are Not Caring for Any Cases of Sickness in the City.

There is not a case of sickness in the city at present that the county is caring for, and the last case to be discharged was Fleek, who was ill with pneumonia. The county has looked after many cases of illness in the city during the past winter and it far exceeds the cases of last year. The county physician has had his hands full for the last few months with county cases.

PAVE THE WHARF.

President Marshall Says the Necessary Cobble Stones Could Be Secured in East End.

President of Council Marshall thinks the plan to pave the Broadway wharf with cobble stones is a good one, and says it could be done with little expense to the city. He says all the cobble stones needed could be secured in his part of the city, but they won't come from Pennsylvania avenue.

National Club Dance.

The National club held a very pleasant reception and dance at their rooms in the First National bank building last night. The affair was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Garner, and the club members and their friends enjoyed an evening in music and dancing.

COD BLESS HER.

She Discovered That She Had Been Saving Money for Sufferers in India.

Dr. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of East Liverpool, informs the News Review that the voluntary contributions to the India famine fund has been increased some twenty odd dollars during the past two days, and that those who wish to receive a blessing by helping these starving ones can do so before the fund is sent away, tomorrow at dinner time. You can leave your contributions, large or small, at the M. E. parsonage, Jackson street, next door to the church.

And right here comes an incident worthy of notice. A lady had been saving small sums of money for a long time, ever since the silver three-cent pieces went out of circulation. She had no special object in view, merely putting the small change aside for a nest egg or an emergency fund. After listening to Dr. Crawford's Sunday night appeal for the starving brothers and sisters in far off India, the lady informed her husband that, in her opinion, the emergency for the use of the stray pieces had materialized. The husband told her to do as she pleased with the fund, and the sum of seventeen dollars was passed over to Dr. Crawford, to be sent to India. God bless this true and kind-hearted woman. Are there not others who will follow in her footsteps? The necessity is an urgent one. Men, women and children are starving to death. In such a case, surely it is more blessed to give than to receive.

TO KENSINGTON.

The Remains of Abner R. Beebout Were Taken There Yesterday.

The remains of Abner R. Beebout, killed by a street car Saturday night, were taken to Kensington yesterday afternoon and the funeral services will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. No word has yet been received from his wife for the reason that the telegraph company did not deliver the message sent her Sunday morning. Undertaker Haugh, of Wellsville, when he learned the address of Beebout's widow at once telegraphed notifying her of his death. The address given was Friendly, W. Va., and the undertaker guaranteed all expenses in delivering the message, as it was known that Mrs. Beebout resided about six miles from Friendly. Last evening Mr. Haugh received word from the company that the message was not delivered because $1 was needed to foot the expenses to carry it to its destination. Mr. Haugh once more guaranteed all expenses and word was sent to Friendly.

A Chicken Ordinance.

Alliance has a new chicken ordinance. It seems that the owners of chickens and ducks in that village have allowed their feathered pets to promenade around promiscuously with resulting damage to the property of those who didn't own poultry. Accordingly the new city council will devote its earliest attention to the passage of an "ordinance regulating chickens and ducks," with a penalty of $25 for violation.

Adjusted the Loss.

Mr. Crable, of the Orient Insurance company, of Hartford, Conn., was in the city today adjusting the loss sustained by Edward Hassey during the fire at the postoffice.

CHONGEYE IN THE CITY JAIL

He Was Engaged In a Fight Near the Dresden Yesterday Afternoon.

HIS BILL WAS ONLY $6.60.

Police business was not very heavy yesterday, but it was better than it has been for some time, and Mayor Davidson disposed of the two cases before him in a short time.

The celebrated Chongeye Gallagher, who has behaved himself for some time, got on a rampage yesterday afternoon and the first thing he knew he was engaged in a fight near the Dresden pottery. The patrol was called and Officers Wood and McDonald responded. Chongeye was still on the scene and he was gathered in. The party with whom he had been fighting, made a short cut across Sheridan avenue to escape, but the patrol went after him and he was gathered in and taken to the city jail. Mayor Davidson fined Chongeye $6.60, but he didn't have the cash and is still in jail waiting for some one to call and pay up for him. The mayor hasn't decided how he will dispose of him if he doesn't pay up. The other party paid up and was released.

GOOD WORDS.

A Trade Paper Speaks of the Success of F. I. Simmers as a Traveler.

F. I. Simmers, salesman for McKee & Bros.' glass works of the National Glass company, has tendered his resignation to that company to accept a position with the East Liverpool Pottery company of East Liverpool, O. Mr. Simmers sold a special line of packers' goods and always had great success on the road. To his ingenuity is attributed the origin of McKee & Bros.' famous barnyard assortment of opal novelties as well as several popular decorated opal specialties. He is a great favorite with the trade and has a host of friends who wish him success in his new calling.—China, Glass and Lamps.

MRS. J. W. K. HODGE.

Wife of a Georgetown Minister Died Sunday Morning After a Short Illness.

Mrs. J. W. K. Hodge, wife of Rev. Hodge, of the Georgetown (Pa.) Methodist Episcopal church, died at her home Sunday morning after a short illness. The funeral services, conducted by Dr. Clark Crawford, of the First M. E. church of this city, were held this afternoon. Interment was made in the Georgetown cemetery.

Business is Slow.

Business in the court of Justice McLane is very slow and no cases have been entered for several days. Two cases were to have been tried yesterday afternoon, but none of the interested parties appeared.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

Mrs. Harry Meanor, of East Palestine, is spending a few days here visiting friends. The family will remove here shortly, Mr. Meanor having taken a position at the National pottery. They will live in their own house on St. George street.

The quarterly conference of the Second Methodist Episcopal church will be held Saturday evening, April 28. The services will be conducted by Dr. Holmes, presiding elder of the Steubenville district of the Methodist Episcopal conference.

Dr. W. E. Mowen, who has been in Deerfield since last week, returned to his home last evening.

Henry Mushenheim will not leave for the Alum Cliff farm until the first of the month. Some of the family are now at the farm.

The Epworth League society of the Second Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the church next Thursday evening for the purpose of nominating new officers. The election will be held on the evening of May 3.

W. E. Finney, who has been confined to his home on St. George street with a severe attack of grip, was able to be up today.

Alexander Marshall has moved from St. George street and is now residing on Needham avenue in a house formerly occupied by John Seagrigh.

A committee of trustees of the Second M. E. church, together with the Ladies' Aid society, met last evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Hays, on St. George street, for the purpose of arranging for improving the interior of the church.

William Orin, of First avenue, is able to be out after a serious illness, but is not able to resume his work.

A meeting of the stewards of the Second M. E. church will be held this evening at the home of Rev. George W. Orcutt, of Boyce avenue.

Mrs. Isabel McDade is recovering from a severe illness.

BASKET BALL.

The High School Team Defeated the Printers at the Gym

Last Night.

The High School basket ball team closed their season last night by defeating the printers in a close and exciting game by a score of 18 to 5. The printers were ahead at the end of the first half, but the High School boys by fine playing managed to overtake them and win the game. The High School during the season just closed won five and lost two games. This was the first game of the printers and they played unusually good basket ball for a new team.

Lisbon Graduates.

Lisbon's high school will, on the evening of May 18, graduate a class of eight. The class is composed of Misses Georgia Treffinger, Leora Lee, Jessie Dorrance and Messrs. Charles Carnes, Fred Bennetts, Rollin Sipe, Frank Crook and Herman Patterson. Commencement will be held in Smiley's opera house.

Largest Pay.

Lisbon, April 16.—(Special.)—The semi-monthly monthly pay at the Beaver tin mill Saturday was a record breaker, in that it was the largest pay ever paid out since the erection of the plant. The full pay amounted in all to $14,016.

SOUTH SIDE.

B. I. Hilliard, for many years employed by the Patterson Machine company, has resigned his position with that company and is now employed as a blacksmith by the Chester Rolling Mill company. When the mill starts Hilliard will be given charge of one of the furnaces.

Thomas T. Bambrick, who spent Sunday in New Cumberland visiting relatives, returned yesterday.

The Chester Mechanics, at their meeting last evening, transacted much business and initiated several candidates.

The Western Union telegraph line-men have completed the construction of the line along the extension, and everything is in readiness to make connection with the office. For the present it is said a portion of the mill office will be used for telegraph purposes.

Harry Moore, who is now connected with the Congo News, said yesterday he intended to start a paper in Chester soon.

E. S. Johnson yesterday sold a large lot to G. H. Grandstaff, of Georgetown. He will erect a modern frame dwelling on the lot during the summer.

A telephone of the United States company has been placed in the toll house. This is something that has been long needed.

William Bowers has taken a position as motorman with the street railway company, and has been placed in charge of the Chester car. Motorman James McKinnon is still confined to his home in the East End with rheumatism.

John Cunningham, of Salem, spent Easter in Chester visiting relatives.

Contractor Thomas McLaughlin went to Pittsburg Sunday to secure a number of laborers to work on the grading contracts he has on this side of the river.

The large engine at the rolling mill has been placed in position and will be ready to be placed in operation as soon as the steam connections have been made. The engine is the largest piece of machinery in the county and is a handsome piece of work.

Stonemasons have about completed the erection of the abutments for the bridge to be built over Mark's run.

Workmen have begun filling in the approaches to the Third street bridge. Their work will be finished within the next 10 days.

President Banfield, of the Chester Street Railway company, was in the city yesterday, and when informed that only one car was run on the line Sunday, said: "I don't think the present conditions will last very long. There should be two cars on the road by all means."

THIS WEEK.

Water Works Department Will Get Started on the Fourth Street Improvement.

The water works department will commence work on the Fourth street improvement this week. The work will take 2,000 feet of six-inch pipe and will cost about $2,000. All the cross street connections will be put in and there will be a great deal of excavating to be done. It will be completed as soon as possible.

Nonogenarian Dead.

Lisbon, April 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. Lydia Miller died early this morning. She was over 90 years of age and the mother of George L. and D. M. Miller, merchants of Lisbon.

Court Opens.

Lisbon, April 17.—(Special.)—Common pleas court opened yesterday at 1 p. m., Judge Gilmer, of Warren, presiding.

CATCHING SMELTS.

How the Little Fish Are Hooked Through the Ice.

The smelts are all caught with hook and line, says the Bangor Commercial. Taking them otherwise, such as by seine, would be regarded by the fishermen here as a great wrong. The fishing is all done in tents, the tents being about six feet long, five feet wide and high enough for a man to stand up in them.

These tents are covered with cloth, heated by a stove and lighted usually by a lantern. I have known the temperature of my tent to vary, however, 60 degrees within ten minutes during a cold day.

A hole about six feet long and eight inches wide is cut in the ice and the tent set lengthwise of this. Six lines attached to a pole fastened to the plates of the tent hang into the water nearly eight inches apart. These lines during fishing hours are always kept in motion.

The way the fishermen handle these lines, how they can bait the hooks and slat smelts, when, as they say, they are "taking bolt," is certainly wonderful. I have known one man to catch 100 pounds in less than one hour. This means at least 1,000 fish, or about 17 a minute. One smelter has been known to catch 500 pounds during one tide's fishing.

Some have made $25 to $30 a day and others $200 in a few weeks. But these big catches are only made by those expert in fishing. The chances are that a green hand would starve the first winter if dependent wholly on what fish he caught.

PULLMAN PARLOR CARS.

Improving the Train Service to Pittsburg and Cleveland via Pennsylvania Lines.

New Pullman parlor cars have taken the place of the parlor cars running on trains Nos. 337 and 338, between Pittsburg and Cleveland over the Pennsylvania lines. The new cars are the latest pattern turned out by the Pullman company and are finished and furnished in a substantial manner. They have roomy and comfortable revolving arm chairs, wide plate glass windows, commodious smoking apartment and a large retiring room for ladies. This room is fitted up with dresser and plate glass mirror. The new cars leave East Liverpool for Cleveland at 2:49 p. m. and for Pittsburg at 7:04 p. m., central time, week days.

How to Get a Genial Dog.

A vagrant dog, particularly a cur with seven or eight different strains of common dog in him, is the best kind of a dog to own. He is always smiling and wagging his tail at you, and his appreciation of little favors is only equalled by his appetite. A fancy dog with a blue ribbon around his neck is always looking for an opportunity to snap at children. If you kept a dog, we would keep a yellow one, purchased as a pup from a negro boy.—Acheson Globe.

A Coffee Hint.

A French housekeeper says that in her country it is an invariable rule to add a little butter and powdered sugar to coffee beans while they are roasting. A very small piece of butter is needed to the pound, a bit perhaps as large as a hazelnut, and not more than a teaspoonful of powdered sugar. This treatment is the secret of the pleasant burned sugar flavor in French coffee.

FRAUD ALLEGED BY SULZER.

Broad Assertion Regarding Signatures to a Coeur d'Alene Petition.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—At the Coeur d'Alene investigation an exciting controversy occurred when the petition to the secretary of war from several hundred citizens of the Coeur d'Alene district asking for the retention of federal troops was presented in evidence. Representative Sulzer denounced the petition as "bogus and fraudulent," declaring that many of the signatures were forgeries and that other names had been secured by intimidation.

He asked to introduce affidavits attacking the petition, but after an animated conversation these were ruled out, the vote being on party lines. A motion by Mr. Sulzer calling on the president for affidavits bearing on the petition was similarly voted down by the committee.

Fatally Burned by Explosion.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 17.—By an explosion of molten metal at the furnace of the Ohio plant of the National Steel company, James Johnston, Wallace Alexander and Prockett Smith were terribly burned, the first two named probably fatally. The explosion was caused by the hot metal flowing into a water trough.

Rev. Dr. Rutledge Dead.

JACKSONVILLE, Ills., April 17.—The Rev. William J. Rutledge, of Jacksonville, Ills., died, aged 86. He is credited with being the first to suggest the idea of the Grand Army of the Republic, which was afterward carried into effect by Dr. Ben F. Stevenson.

$30,000 for Church Work.

YORK, Pa., April 17.—Easter gifts aggregating $30,000, donated for the work of church extension, were announced here by General Secretary Rev. H. H. Weber, of the Board of Christian Church Extension of the general council of the Evangelical Lutheran church in America.

McCarrell One of the Delegates.

HARRISBURG, April 17.—R. W. S. Parthenore and Senator McCarrell were elected delegates to the state Republican convention from Harrisburg by the city convention. The county convention will be held at the same place. Delegates from the Second legislative district.

Won Tennessee Derby.

MEMPHIS, April 17.—The new champion rich Tennessee colt, owned by J. W. Brode, which beat The Conqueror for the place by a length. The race, $25,000 to the winner, was run in two minutes flat.

Egg-Rolling on White House Grounds.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Egg-rolling day, was celebrated on the green lawn south of the White House mansion by thousands of little children. The Marine band played at frequent intervals.

Killed While Using a Telephone.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 17.—Ray B. Wilson, superintendent of the Pullman institute at Tuscaloosa, was killed by lightning while using a telephone during a thunderstorm.

Old London Sundays.

We have got it into our heads that Sunday was better observed in the puritanical acceptance of the word three or four generations back than it is now. It was quite otherwise. In the great ladies when Queen Victoria came to the throne—the Duchess of Wellington, the Duchess of Rutland, the Marchioness of Salisbury, the Lady Hyde Parker, the Misses Walpole—had regular card parties on a Sunday, and there were concerts and receptions, all over the town announced with becoming regularity in The Morning Post.—Saturday Review.

AFTER THE OPERA TRAIN.

During the grand opera season in Pittsburg, April 16, 17 and 18, special train arrangements will be made for the return of persons attending from New Castle, Steubenville and intermediate stations on the Pennsylvania lines; also from Wellsville, East Liverpool and stations on the Cleveland & Pittsburg division.

On the above dates train No. 341, which leaves Pittsburg union station at 12 o'clock, midnight, city time, for Cleveland, and train No. 47, which leaves the union station at 11:40 p. m., city time, for Steubenville, will be held until after the opera.

THE S. G. HARD CO.

VODREY AND HILL ARE RE-ELECTED

President and Clerk of the Board of Education at the New Organization.

SICKNESS AMONG SCHOLARS

Supt. Rayman Says There Has
Been More of Late Than Any Time

SINCE HE CAME TO THIS CITY.

The old board of education met last evening and held a very short session indeed. All the members were present except J. H. Smith, from East End.

Clerk Hill read a letter from Colonel John N. Taylor, of the Carnegie library board, thanking the school board for their offer of the use of the directors' room for meeting purposes.

The result of the election for school director was read by the clerk, after which the report of Superintendent Rayman was read as presented in this paper last evening. In speaking of the work being done in the schools Mr. Rayman said: "The work is moving along in a good manner, but during the last two months a larger number of scholars have been absent than at any time since I came here. The majority are being kept away on account of sickness, many being ill with typhoid fever. This, in a way, is interfering with the progress of the work, but those scholars who are at school are progressing rapidly."

The commencement night was set for June 1, leaving only seven more weeks of school.

The clerk was instructed to prepare the school tax levy for next year. The levy will be made on a valuation of $3,422,980. The school levy last year was 11½ mills and 3-10 mills for library purposes.

The semi-annual report of Clerk W. B. Hill was read as follows:

Repairs and plumbing.....	$ 163 70
Fuel	1,202 93
Supplies of all kinds.....	1,194 04
Freight and hauling	146 28
New work on buildings—
Grant street	5,695 00
Pleasant Heights	995 00
Sixth street	1,635 00
Grant street	680 00
Fire escapes	598 00
Helana building	1,852 00
Sundries	477 00
New desks	725 00
School books	2,806 82
Total	$18,770 77

The old board then adjourned sine die.

The new members, W. E. Wells, George C. Murphy, L. O. Williams and Oliver C. Vodrey, were then sworn in.

Dr. J. C. Taggart was elected temporary chairman and the election of officers by ballot resulted as follows:

For president Oliver C. Vodrey 5, Dr. J. C. Taggart 1, and for clerk Walter B. Hill was elected unanimously.

The bills ordered paid were: Andy

Rattray, $3; Robert Hall, $7; James McCormick, $4.20; Watson & Sloan, 75 cents; Ceramic City Light company, $17.81; J. M. McKinney, $5.50; Mary Copestick, $11.25.

Mr. Murphy asked the new officers to make a speech, to which Mr. Vodrey said: "I thank the board for the honor they have thrust upon me, and will try to do my duty. I am not much of a speechmaker, and for that reason I will take my seat."

Clerk Hill was busy and failed to respond, and after Mr. Wells had been called upon he said that he preferred to do no talking tonight, and that the board would probably hear from him before the year was out.

When the meeting adjourned Superintendent Rayman brought in a bag of apples. Some of the members took one, others two and then all went home.

PITY THE DUMB BRUTE.

Sample of the Saloon's Work Seen on

Yesterday.

There were three brutes interested; but the dumb brute was the one to be pitied. The other two were human beings, rendered brutal through the influence of the devil's broth, known as beer, rum, brandy or whisky, or any other grade or class of intoxicants sold over the saloon bars in this prosperous city of East Liverpool. The drunken men were made still more drunken by a brutal and greedy saloonkeeper, in absolute defiance of the law, as the keeper of the den gave them more drink at his bar, when one of the couple was so drunk that he could scarcely stand without assistance. As they emerged from the saloon they succeeded in clambering into their vehicle, making use of such awful profanity and vulgarity as to cause a decent man to shudder. Then the most intoxicated attempted to drive the poor horse entrusted to their care, and they beat and abused the dumb brute in the most heartless manner, urging it forward and then forcing it backward with the aid of the cruel bit, backing the horse over the pavement and narrowly escaping upsetting the vehicle. The saloonkeeper stuck to his den, fearful that he might embroil himself in the meshes of the law, and a woman in the neighborhood finally interfered, coaxed the drunker of the two to alight from the vehicle and persuaded him to enter an adjoining domicile with her. About the close of the program, Marshal Thompson made his appearance on the scene of action, clambered into the buggy and drove away with the least drunken one of the couple. "Drunk and disorderly, profane, vulgar and brutal," should be entered up against both men, and they be punished to the limit, while the saloonkeeper should be sent to the workhouse for selling intoxicants to men when in the condition this couple were.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This In East Liver-pool.

Scores of people in East Liverpool can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

Mrs. William James, who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I was troubled off and on for eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain across my loins up under my shoulder blades and rheu-matic pains in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes of the weather and was so bad at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing a fre-quent fluttering of the heart and shortness of breath. I generally re-sorted to porous plasters, but the re-lief was only temporary. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. phar-macy, obtained instant relief and finally a cure."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn & Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

"BEER SIGNS."

When you see young men lounging around a saloon door, on Sixth street or elsewhere, you have the right to brand them as beer signs. They are certainly not the class of young men that a sensible business man in any legitimate enterprise, desires to employ. They will never give a fair day's work for a fair day's wage. They represent the undesirable class known as loafers.

CHICANERY.

When a so-called union paper breaks faith in every respect, giving orders for shoes, hardware, furniture, clothing, dress goods, groceries, and even tombstones, in way of payment to employees, when cash or checks are absolutely ordered by the union under which it purports to be working, then that sheet is unworthy the respect or esteem or patronage of any true unionist or lover of truth and fair play.

NOT UNIONISM.

When a so-called union or labor organization becomes our oppressor, unfair and unjust in its demands, mistaking might for right, and glorying in its shame, it is simply sowing seed which will raise grass for its grave and burial, and no fair minded man will express a regret when the ugly corpse is borne away to its merited grave, while the officials of such a misnomer will be cursed as the cause of sorrow to men who failed to appreciate their best friends.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

The drunken man who maltreated a horse yesterday in this city should be arrested and made to pay a heavy fine. The conduct of the fellow in question was simply outrageous from every standpoint, and his language was redolent of brimstone. He is a young man, once well and favorably known in this community, until the dregs of the accursed saloon assailed his life. He is worth saving, and if he possesses true manhood, he will at once bar the curse of intoxicants from his life. The saloonist who yesterday sold him liquor, while the wretched man was simply an irresponsible being, deserves to be cowhided and afterward given six months imprisonment, at hard labor, with the chain gang.

GOOD INVESTMENT.

The improvement of the main avenues of the city is a good investment. President Marshall has been more or less joked about his anxiety to secure the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue, but he has shown the part of wisdom and has proven as solicitous for the improvement of all the main thoroughfares as he has been for his own district. The hill road to East End is the proper thoroughfare connecting city and suburb and should have received attention long ago. Our main avenues properly paved, under wise economy, are beneficial to and a good investment on the part of the public at large. Work should be done through bids, given to the lowest responsible bidder. All legitimate improvements are decidedly a good feature for the city.

THE BITER BITTEN.

The Canton Democrat waxes funny, sour and sarcastic at the expense of one J. Palmer O'Neill, a gentleman who at one time, not long since, endeavored to erect a mammoth hotel at the corner of Washington and Fifth streets, East Liverpool. The supposititious owner of the Canton Democrat attempted to use J. Palmer O'Neill as a chestnut puller, and put up a very elaborate and cunning plot along this line. Is it not barely possible that the astute manipulator had his fingers scorched by coming into too close contact with his trusted employee? The article in the Canton sheet bears strong presumptive evidence that the biter has been bitten. Low cunning may win for a season, but cunning and trickery and chicanery are not positive evidence that the possessor is heavily laden with good gray matter.

TO ALLIANCE.

A large delegation of East Liverpool people left this morning for Alliance, where they attended the congressional convention. The delegates were: W. E. Wells, W. H. Vodrey, Geo. E. Davidson, Patrick McNicol, John Cartwright, J. N. Rose, Geo. W. Ashbaugh, Milton Logan, George Peach, Frank Milligan, Dr. R. J. Marshall, S. M. Ferguson, J. H. Simms, Criss McConnell, H. P. McCarron, A. T. Kelly.

Among others who made the trip were: A. J. Johnson, D. J. Smith, E. H. Sebring, H. Harker, Walter B. Hill and Thomas McNicol.

TAYLER NAMED BY ACCLAMATION

Baker's Name Was Not Presented at Alliance Convention This Morning.

Goes to Stark and Julius Whiting, Jr., Gets It—National Delegates Morgan and Butler.

COL. H. R. HILL AN ALTERNATE.

Alliance, April 17.—(Special.)—The Republican congressional convention of the Eighteenth district of Ohio met this morning in Craven's opera house. Practically all of the 251 delegates were present or represented by alternates.

Many of the politicians had come in overnight and therest have been arriving all morning. The fact that R. W. Tayler's renomination was assured robbed the meeting of any sensational features, but it was none the less interesting. There were other honors to be divided, the selection of a presidential elector and delegates and alternates to the national Republican convention at Philadelphia June 19.

The Columbiana county delegation organized by the election of S. J. Firestone, of Lisbon, as chairman and C. C. Connell, of Lisbon, as secretary. Ed. A. King, of Lisbon, was named as member of the congressional committee; R. J. Marshall, of East Liverpool, as member of the committee on permanent organization; H. S. Winsper, of Unity township, on credential committee; J. H. Simms, East Liverpool, on committee on resolutions; John B. Morgan, of Salem township, on committee on rules, and G. D. Evans, for vice president.

Stark county delegation organized by electing A. T. McCarthy chairman; H. S. Harter, of Canton, on congressional committee; Charles A. Mervin, committee on permanent organization; Austin A. Hay, committee on credentials; F. E. Case, resolutions committee, and John J. Humberger on rules committee.

Stark county also nominated Julius Whiting, jr., of Canton, for presidential elector, and Colonel W. H. Morgan, of Alliance, for national delegate.

Mahoning county delegation elected M. A. Norris chairman; W. R. Stewart, secretary; C. B. Wick, congressional committee; E. Hartzell, committee on permanent organization; F. A. Hartenstein on credentials committee; H. R. Justice, committee on resolutions.

Mahoning endorsed J. B. Butler for national delegate and William Cornelius as alternate.

Convention Meets.

When the convention met the congressional committee reported H. S. Harter, of Canton, for temporary chairman and E. M. Stanley, of Sebring as secretary. The committee on permanent organization recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent.

The credentials committee reported everything regular and no contests.

Chairman Harter in opening briefly thanked the convention for the honor done him, referred to the magnificent record of fulfilled pledges made by the Republican party, and suggested that the convention get right down to business.

Ex-Mayor James A. Martin, of Lisbon, placed Mr. Tayler's name in nomination. He dwelt upon the eminent services rendered to the party and the country by the congressman, instancing the conscientious work done by Mr. Tayler during his three terms in congress, and especially referring to the lustre which he had shed upon himself and his district by his able handling of the Roberts' case. He urged especially upon the convention the desirability of keeping a good man when they had got him, and told how much more useful an experienced man was as a representative in the halls of congress than a new man could possibly be. Mr. Tayler was in every way worthy the confidence shown in him by the people of the district and had a brilliant future before him.

David Harding, of Stark county, a Baker delegate, arose and seconded the nomination in a brief address. He was followed by M. A. Norris, of Mahoning, who spoke earnestly of Mr. Tayler's services and national reputation.

By Acclamation.

Hon. C. C. Baker's name was not presented to the convention and Congressman Tayler was renominated by acclamation.

Julius Whiting, jr., of Canton, was named for presidential elector without opposition.

J. G. Butler, of Mahoning, and Col. W. H. Morgan, of Alliance, were named delegates to the national Republican convention unopposed.

Col. H. R. Hill, of East Liverpool, and William Cornelius, of Youngstown, were named alternates.

The permanent congressional committee was composed of: Ed. A. King, of Columbiana; C. B. Wick, of Mahoning, and Judge J. P. Fawcett, of Stark.

The Resolutions.

The resolutions adopted by the convention were brief, but expressive of the faith of the party.

Congratulating the nation upon the unparalleled prosperity which the country has enjoyed under Republican administration, the convention reaffirmed the declaration of principles laid down in the St. Louis platform; commended the wise, patriotic and statesmanlike administration of William McKinley; endorsed the course of Senators Foraker and Hanna and the state administration of George K. Nash, concluding with a hearty appreciation of the efficient services in congress of their energetic and patriotic representative, Hon. R. W. Tayler.

NO BIDS RECEIVED

By the Vestry for the Construction of the New St. Stephen's Church.

The vestry of St. Stephen's Episcopal church met last evening at the residence of Rev. Edwin Weary, Fourth street, for the purpose of letting the contract for the erection of the new church. No bids were presented and this afternoon the building committee held a meeting for the purpose of trying to induce the contractors to bid on the work.

Easterners have in erroneous impression about the vast plains country that stretches eastward from the flanks of the Rockies to the wheatfields of the Dakotas. It is a region where crimes are far less numerous in proportion to population than they are in the densely settled regions of the eastern and middle states.

If the sombreroed ruffians with pistols and knives in their boots and cartridge belts around their waists are not in the cattle country, where, then, are they to be found? Where are those Alkali Ikes, Lariat Bills, et al., who fire at the decanters in barrooms and at the silk hats of tenderfoot strangers—the villainous desperadoes whose lynching bees and other harrowing anecdotes make up considerable of the stock in trade of our eastern comic illustrators? I do not know.

For many years I have wandered through the great northwest on horseback, stagecoach and in canoes, as well as in the palatial Pullman sleeper of the great transcontinental lines, and I have never discovered any of the fierce, bewhiskered dime novel heroes. During all my travels in the Dakotas, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and British Columbia I have never seen a man hurt or witnessed any sort of row, and I would feel much safer to strike across the mountains or plains alone on a broncho and unarmed than I would to walk up Clark street at night in Chicago—St. Paul Globe.

MEMORIAL DAY CELEBRATION

Rev. Earl D. Holtz, of Wellsville, Will Be the Speaker of the Occasion.

CHURCH SERVICES FIRST M. E.

On Sunday, May 27, When Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford Will Address the Veterans.

PREACHING MEMORIAL SERMON.

The Grand Army this year will attend memorial services at the First Methodist Episcopal church. The memorial sermon will be delivered by Dr. Clark Crawford on Sunday morning, May 27.

The Memorial day address will be delivered by Rev. Earl D. Holtz, of Wellsville.

DAYTON HOME.

One of the Veterans Speaks In Warm Terms of Praise of This Grand Home.

Joseph McCoy, of 197 Ravine street, is home on a 30-day furlough from the Soldiers' Home at Dayton. Mr. McCoy was a member of the famous 62d Pa. Infantry, commanded by Colonel Samuel Black, once a famous lawyer of Pittsburg, and the son of one of the brightest and grandest Presbyterian ministers ever known in the Pittsburg presbytery. Colonel Sam. Black was killed at the Gaines Mill fight on the peninsula, in front of Richmond, the second day's fight of the famous seven days' conflict. The manager of the News Review was shot through the body on the same field where the gallant Black gave up his life for his country.

Mr. McCoy speaks in unstinted terms of praise of the Dayton Home, and asserts that it is a paradise on earth to the veteran who behaves himself. The man who smuggles liquor into the Home, gets his walking papers instantly and steps outside of the paradise. This rule is imperative, as the presence of the accursed drink among the 6,000 veterans would make it a hell on earth.

The food is the very best and the bedding and beds unexcelled, those in charge believing in the adage that cleanliness is akin to godliness. The Home is surrounded by beautiful plants and flowers, carefully cultured and looked after. Good behavior entitles the soldier to a pass every other day.

Colonel J. B. Thomas is governor of the Home, and himself and wife are held in the highest esteem by the vets. Mrs. McCoy, wife of the treasurer of the Home, is a noble woman, fairly worshipped by the men of the civil war.

All innocent games are permitted. Cards are barred and gambling of every description absolutely prohibited. There is a fine reading room, splendid bath rooms, gymnasium and other features of health exercise. Those who can do light work are permitted to do so, and they are paid for their services.

Religious services are held every Sabbath, with devotional exercises during the week. During the summer or warm season, evangelists visit the Home, and seats are provided in the woods for the accommodation of the vets, and their visitors by the management of the establishment.

Space forbids fuller mention of this model Home at this time. Suffice it to say that the place is a credit to Uncle Samuel and to the state of Ohio.

Wellsville Congregation Petition Court For Permission to Carry Out the

Of Alexander McLaughlin by Which All Churches in Steubenville Presbytery.

WILL BENEFIT BY THE DIVISION.

Lisbon, April 17.—(Special.)—The board of trustees of the First Associate Reform church and society in Wellsville, O., a congregation of the United Presbyterian church of North America, has filed a petition for authority to sell lot 52 in Wellsville, the same having been devised to the church by the will of Alexander McLaughlin, who died in 1880. The will provided that for the first seven years after the testator's death the rents and profits should be applied to the church debt of the Wellsville congregation; that thereafter it was to be divided equally between it and the Steubenville presbytery of the U. P. church; but that, if at any time during the first 20 years the lot should not yield enough income to justify its care, the Wellsville congregation should sell the lot, pay off its church debt and divide the balance as directed in the will, and under this provision this application has been made.

Cure For Pneumonia.

Take six to ten onions, according to size, and chop fine; put in a large spider over a hot fire, then add about the same quantity of rye meal and vinegar enough to make it a thick paste. In the meanwhile stir it thoroughly, letting it simmer five or ten minutes. Then put in a cotton bag large enough to cover the lungs and apply it to the chest as hot as the patient can bear. When it gets cool, apply another and thus continue by reheating the poultices. In a few hours the patient will be out of danger.

This simple remedy has never failed in this too often fatal malady.

Usually three or four applications will be sufficient, but continue always until perspiration starts freely from the chest.

This simple remedy was formulated many years ago by one of the best physicians New England has ever known, who never lost a patient by this disease and won his renown by saving persons by simple remedies after the best medical talent had pronounced their cases hopeless. Personally we know of three persons who were saved by the remedy last winter in Boston after their physicians had given them up to die, and if a record was made of all similar cases during the last six years it would fill a good sized volume.—"The World's Progress."

An American Reporter.

They have a reporter on one of the Williamsburg papers who may not be much on style, but for placid, nervy "get there" he is a jewel. A little while ago he was assigned to a political meeting and asked to give a good report of it. Now, it happened that the festivities were conducted entirely in Polish, a language of which the young man knows nothing. This fact, however, did not faze him a bit. He made his way through the hall, pushed up to the platform and sat down with the secretary. For several minutes he industriously took notes and finally the secretary, turning to him, pumped out a volley of Polish.

"I am not in it, dear boy," retorted the young man as he turned again to listen to the speaker.

The secretary looked surprised. Finally he went out and brought in a man who asked in English:

"Are you a Polish reporter?"

"Nope," was the reply. "I am an American one."

"Do you understand our language?"

"I never heard it before," retorted the scribbler, "but I think I have picked up enough since I have been here to give a rattling good story."

And he did.—New York Press.

Ancient Cattle and Butchering.

The earliest records of Egypt depict a butcher cutting up an ox, exactly as it is done today outside of the great slaughtering establishments, with a knife that he sharpened upon a steel that hung at his side and providing cuts of meat precisely like ours. They used leather, and they did better tanning than we do; the blood, instead of being processed into fertilizing, was used for cooking purposes, and our Spanish friends never see a better bullfight than was daily purveyed for the delectation of those ancient "sports."

A little later in the world's history we find records of tricks being played in the cattle trade, for do not some historians aver that Jacob exercised undue influence upon the cows of Laban's herds as well as upon the ewes of his flocks? And others tell us that Zaph-u-to—otherwise known as "Joseph the Wise," stockbroker in chief for the Pharaoh Apophies, who, of course, was not known in the deal—cornered the cattle as well as the grain of all the country about.—Self Culture.

Infant Baptisms In Russia.

"I was fortunate enough," writes Trumbull White, "to visit the Church of St. David, in Tiflis, Russia, just in time to attend a baptismal ceremony. According to the rites of the Greek church, as practiced in this ancient Georgian temple, the youngster in question, a fine boy 4 or 5 weeks old, had to be immersed three times in a baptismal font filled with water, each time to be completely covered, in addition to various blessings and anointings with holy oil and several long prayers.

"The benevolent looking old priest proved himself a man of kindly thoughtfulness. While the family group around the baby was getting him properly unclad, for the ceremony requires that the child shall be naked, the priest surreptitiously dipped his finger into the font, and I saw by his face that it was too cold. Then he stepped behind a screen, where his samovar was steaming, emptied the hot water into a pitcher, and while the family still kept busy over the baby he poured enough to temper the pool that had been provided for the shorn lamb. The result was that the little fellow took his plunges without a murmur and thereby distinguished himself."—Chicago Record.

"Paradise Billed Down."

A tourist tells how he traveled with a young couple evidently on their honeymoon, and the passengers in that particular carriage were on the grin most of the time over their antics.

The bride had got the man she loved, and she didn't care who saw her put her head on his shoulder. The bridegroom had got a farm with his wife, and if he wanted to feed her on sweets or squeeze her hand whose business was it?

A little old man sat directly opposite the couple, and he looked at them so often that the young husband finally explained:

"We've just got married."

"I knowed it all the time," chuckled the other.

"And we can't help it, you know."

"No, you can't. I'll be blowed if you can't."

"I presume it all seems very silly to an old man like you," continued the husband.

"Does it? Does it?" cackled the old fellow. "Well, I can tell you it does not, then. I've been there three times over, and now I'm on my way to marry a fourth. Silly! Why, children, it's paradise billed down!"—London Fun.

Packing For Moving.

"If you will only pack things in small boxes," says the woman who knows how to move. "You will have the men who move you in a comparatively beatific state of mind; books, for instance. It is strange, but every woman who has books to move immediately gets the biggest box she can find for them. Books are heavy anyway, and big boxes are liable to break with their weight, and it is almost impossible to move them. They will fit just as well into small, square boxes in which packages of starch or oatmeal have come, and they will pack into the moving van better, and the men can handle great numbers of them with little trouble."—New York Times.

PLANS FOR M'KINLEY.

Outline of Coming Republican Platform.

EXPANSION THE LEADING FEATURE.

The Party to Declare Itself in No Uncertain Tones—Belief in Gold Standard to Be Reiterated—Other Points of the Philadelphia Platform.

CHICAGO, April 17.—A special to a local paper from Washington said: Administration leaders have agreed upon the issues and articles of Republican faith which will be incorporated in the national platform to be submitted to the Philadelphia convention for ratification. A rough draft of the Republican party creed has been accepted by Republican leaders of the senate and Republican national committeemen. The opening declaration will be a hearty endorsement of President McKinley and a tribute to his personal management of the most brilliant military and naval achievements of the close of the century. Unqualified approval will be accorded to all the administrative acts.

The establishment of a gold standard will be dwelt upon, and a plank will be devoted to a renewed allegiance to the gold standard. The keynote of the platform will be the expansion issue. A strong, clear utterance in favor of the retention of the Philippines and of a vigorous foreign policy will be delivered. There will be no positive affirmation of the right of this government to govern the Philippines. That will be left for future adjudication. The policy of protection will be affirmed, and the platform will pledge the party to the support of the doctrine of reciprocity.

A greater merchant marine and liberal pension laws will be demanded and the Monroe doctrine reasserted. The Nicaraguan canal will be supported if no action is taken at this session of congress. The developments of the near future in Cuba and the outcome of the municipal elections next month will largely shape the policy toward that island. Among other planks in the platform will be one in favor of an augmented navy, others in favor of civil service, free homesteads, restriction on immigration and temperance and woman suffrage will also have a place in the platform.

ASKS $10,000 FOR DEWEY.

President Wants Him Paid For His Work as Philippine Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Complying with a resolution of inquiry, the president sent to the senate an itemized statement of the expenses of the Philippine commission. The statement includes the following items:

Compensation of $10,000 each to Commissioners Schurman, Worcester and Denby, $30,000; per diem allowance to commissioners after their return to the United States, $5,285; secretary to commission (compensation), $8,500; per diem ($3,660), $12,220; transportation, $13,687; household expenses in Manila, $9,252; clerical services, $31,701; miscellaneous, $14,998. Total, $117,185.

The president also transmitted, with his endorsement, a recommendation from Secretary Hay that provision be made for payment to the naval and military members of the commission (Admiral Dewey and General Otis) at the same rate as that paid to the other members. He says they have received nothing for their services in excess of their regular salaries.

THE REBEL LOSS 160.

Insurgents Repulsed, Having Attacked American Garrison, at Batoc.

MANILA, April 17.—General Young reported that 300 insurgent riflemen and Bolomen attacked the American garrison at Batoc, province of North Ilocos, but were repulsed, losing 160 men. The Americans had no casualties.

REBELS SURPRISED.

Attacked by Americans and Fifty-Three of Them Were Killed.

MANILA, April 17.—Captain Dodd, with a squadron of the Third cavalry, recently surrounded a village in Benguet province, and surprised 200 insurgents, living in barracks, apparently a recruiting center for the province. The enemy lost 53 men killed. Our troops also captured 44 men and burned the village. One American was wounded.

Republicans Nominate Acheson.

WASHINGTON, Pa., April 17.—By a vote of 135 delegates to 50, Congressman Ernest F. Acheson was nominated as Washington county's choice for congress over Mr. L. A. McCracken. The most surprising thing of the convention was that Acheson, when called upon, went to the platform and delivered a speech for the first time in many years that he has been in politics.

FAVORS KRUPP ARMOR.

Cummings (Dem., N. Y.) Made a Speech in the House Advocating It's Use.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The house entered upon the consideration of the naval appropriation bill, with the prospect of a severe struggle over the question of armor plate, building ships in government yards, and the provision in the bill for the coast and geodetic survey. The bill carries $13,000,000 more than any previous naval bill.

Mr. Boss, the acting chairman, and Mr. Cummings, the ranking minority member of the committee, defended the bill. The latter declared himself in favor of paying $545 for Krupp armor at least until all the ships authorized were built and said that the committee had information, the source of which he was not at liberty to reveal, showing that we could obtain Krupp armor at a price lower than any other country in the world.

Mr. Kitchin (N. C.), one of the members who signed the minority report, criticized what he termed the general extravagance of the bill and advocated the establishment of a government armor plate factory to protect the government against extortion.

THE NEW GOVERNOR GOING IN STATE.

North Atlantic Squadron to Escort Allen Into San Juan Harbor—Other Ceremonies Proposed.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Mr. Allen, the newly-chosen governor of Porto Rico, is arranging to leave Washington for San Juan toward the end of the present week. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Allen and their daughter. The trip will be made on the United States steamship Dolphin.

Governor Allen will set up the new civil government, and inside of three weeks will return to the United States to arrange his private affairs, when he will return again.

The Dolphin will enter the harbor at San Juan escorted by the entire North Atlantic squadron, under the command of Rear Admiral Farquhar on his flagship New York.

Governor Allen will be inaugurated at San Juan on May 1 and General Davis, the military governor, will turn out all of the United States troops under his command in honor of the occasion. The ships of the squadron will fire salutes, which will be answered by the shore batteries. There will be some speeches, and at night the fleet will use their electric lights and there will be general illuminations.

TO CIRCUMVENT TRUSTS.

A House Committee Prepares One Measure and Amendments to the Sherman Law.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The measures directed against trusts were determined upon by the special sub-committee on trusts of the house judiciary committee. As agreed upon the remedy is twofold, namely, a constitutional amendment giving congress full power to deal with trusts, and a new anti-trust law making the following extensions to the Sherman act:

First—Requiring the branding or marking of trust made goods shipped out of a state, so as to be easily identified as the product of a trust.

Second—Prohibiting the interstate traffic of trust made goods not so branded and making them subject to seizure and condemnation.

Third—Requiring corporations having a capital over $1,000,000, or doing an annual business of $1,000,000, to file a report of their affairs with the secretary of state.

Fourth—Providing the injunction against combinations sending trust-made goods from state to state for foreign countries.

Fifth—Prohibiting the use of the mails to concerns and their officials proven to be trusts.

Considered Alaskan Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—During almost the entire session the senate had under consideration the Alaskan civil code bill. The amendment providing for the mining of gold along the beach in the district was perfected, after a discussion lasting nearly four hours.

Under Control of Quay Faction.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., April 17.—The Columbia county Republican convention was held and was under the complete control of the Quay faction.

THE BOERS IN FLIGHT.

Trying to Escape the Net Roberts Spread For Them.

THE SIEGE OF WEPENER RAISED.

Distrust Exists in London as to Any Rapid, Continuous Advance Toward Pretoria—Due Chiefly to Lack of Horses, Which Die in Large Numbers.

LONDON, April 17.—4:15 a. m.—Lord Roberts has spread his net far and wide to catch the adventurous commandos that have been making mischief in the southeastern part of the state. The net has not yet been drawn in, but at the headquarters of Lord Roberts the impression exists that the power of the Boers is decreasing. A Daily News correspondent has them fleeing to the southeast; a Standard correspondent reports them fleeing northward; a Daily Telegraph correspondent says that some are going north and others south; while a Morning Post representative says it is not known what the Boers are doing.

The investment of Wepener, according to a special dispatch from Bloemfontein, has absolutely been abandoned. According to a Bethany dispatch the Boers are unable to retreat northward, because the British strongly hold all roads.

Divers reports come from Natal, one asserting that the Boers have retired beyond the Biggarsburg range and another saying that some of them are close to Ladysmith.

Distrust exists in London as to any rapid, continuous advance toward Pretoria, chiefly on account of the lack of horses, many of which die in the case of the long voyages. Letters from the Cape say that the three days' journey by rail is made in open trucks, that the arrangements for feeding and watering are inadequate and that the unfortunate animals break down rapidly in consequence of these hardships.

Despite the energy of its buyers abroad, the war office foresees much difficulty in supplying the enormous number of horses required.

ANTI-LYNCHING LAW CONSTITUTIONAL.

Decision Made in Chick Mitchell Case, at Urbana, O., and Caldwell Case, at Cleveland.

COLUMBUS, April 17.—The supreme court declared the anti-lynching law constitutional. The law provides that the heirs of any person who is lynched may collect $5,000 from the commissioners in the county in which the affair occurs. The decision was rendered in the cases of Chick Mitchell, hanged by a mob at Urbana, and J. W. Caldwell, who was shot and beaten by strikers at Cleveland. The present law was drawn by Albion W. Tourge, the celebrated jurist and novelist. A former law was declared unconstitutional, because it fixed a specific amount that could be recovered as damages.

The Tourge law simply fixes a maximum of damages that may be collected, $500 in case of slight injury, $1,000 in case of serious injury and $5,000 in case of the death of the victim. The decision in the Caldwell case is a most important one. Caldwell took the place of one of the men who went out on a strike at the Brown Hoisting company's plant in Cleveland. He was assaulted by strikers, being hit on the head with a glass insulator, and was shot in the leg. He held that the commissioners did not afford him the proper protection and sued. He lost in both the lower courts. The supreme court reverses both the lower courts.

RUDE TO A PRIEST.

If the Charge Is Proven, Major Knight Will Be Relieved of His Command.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The secretary of war has ordered an investigation made at New York city of the charge that Major John D. G. Knight, corps of engineers, commanding the engineer school at Willets Point, N. Y., upheld the action of a sentry, who at the point of a bayonet kept Father Tierney, of the Roman Catholic church, away from the performance of his religious duties at the army post, by forbidding his entrance.

Representative Fitzgerald of Massachusetts, recently introduced a resolution concerning the alleged refusal of certain army officers to permit Catholic priests to administer their offices at army posts, the resolution being based on the alleged action of Major Knight in the case of Father Tierney. Representative Fitzgerald was informed by the secretary of war that the matter would be investigated and if it were found that the officer had exceeded his authority he would be relieved.

DECLINED THE INVITATION.

Arcoas Can't Rejoice With Chicagoans on Manila Battle Anniversary.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Mayor Harrison received from Duke d'Arcoas, the Spanish minister at Washington, a reply to an invitation to attend the Dewey celebration in Chicago, saying in part:

"It is impossible for me to believe that you have advisedly asked me, the representative of Spain, to go to your city and rejoice with you on the destruction of the Spanish ships and on the death of so many brave sailors—my compatriots. That would have been simply an insult; and, as I do not deserve it, and it cannot have been in your intention, I am perfectly sure, as I say, that all this is the result of an error."

In reply, Mayor Harrison has written the minister, explaining that the invitation was sent through the carelessness or ignorance of a clerk, and extending sincere apologies for the unintentional discourtesy.

PRESIDENT'S COMING TRIP.

He and Mrs. McKinley to Attend Ecumenical Conference—Also to Go to Canton.

WASHINGTON April 17.—The details of the president's trip to New York and Canton are practically completed. The party, consisting of the president and Mrs. McKinley, Secretary Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Barnes, Mrs. Hobart and Garret A. Hobart, the widow and son of the late vice-president, and Dr. Rixey, will leave here for Paterson, N. J., in a private car attached to the regular 10 o'clock train on the Pennsylvania road next Thursday morning.

The presidential party will remain in Paterson as the guests of Mrs. Hobart until Saturday morning, when they will go to New York to attend the Ecumenical Conference on Foreign Missions at Carnegie Hall Saturday evening. While in New York the party will stay at the Manhattan hotel.

Late Sunday night the party will take a train for Canton, Ohio, where they will remain about three days, reaching Washington on their return Thursday or Friday of next week.

HILLIS NO LONGER

A PRESBYTERIAN.

Chicago Presbytery Granted His Request. Then Asked Assembly to Consider Creed.

CHICAGO, April 17.—With only one dissenting vote the report of the committee to which was referred the request of Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Brooklyn, that his name be erased from the rolls of the Chicago presbytery, was adopted by that body at its regular meeting. It granted his request. The questions of Presbyterian doctrine raised by Dr. Hillis in his sermon at Plymouth church, Brooklyn, did not, however, have any bearing on the acceptance or rejection of Dr. Hillis' resignation. The committee reported that it had further correspondence with Dr. Hillis on the subject, and that in his second letter the Brooklyn divine had again asked that his name be erased from the rolls of the presbytery.

The presbytery, by a unanimous vote, adopted a set of resolutions, introduced by Dr. Herrick Johnson, president of McCormick Theological seminary, overruling the general assembly to appoint a committee to report on the general question of Presbyterian creed.

The resolutions were as follows: In view of the widespread misunderstanding of what the things are that are most surely believed by our beloved Presbyterian church; and, In view of the archaic forms in which some of the doctrines of our church have expression in the historic confession of faith; and,

In view of the gross misrepresentations of our faith that claims to find their justification in these existing forms.

We, the presbytery of Chicago, do overture the general assembly to appoint a committee to take into consideration this whole matter of a re-statement of our doctrinal standard, and to report to the next assembly following what, in their judgment, should be the action of our church on this subject.

TOLEDO APPROPRIATION KILLED.

Voris Confirmed as Ohio Commissioner of Insurance.

COLUMBUS, April 17.—The Ohio legislature adjourned. Among other legislation killed by the adjournment was the $1,000,000 appropriation for the Toledo exposition.

A. T. Voris was confirmed as state insurance commissioner by the senate.

BY ASSASSIN'S SHOT.

A Sergeant Killed at Croton Landing, N. Y.

SOLDIERS FRANTIC WITH ANGER.

The Officer Mysteriously Shot While Changing the Guard, Near a Place Called Little Italy—Men Fired In Bushes, but Hit No Person.

CROTON LANDING, N. Y., April 17.—The first bloodshed as the outcome of the strike at the Cornell dam was the life's blood of Sergeant Robert Douglass, of the Eleventh separate company, of Mount Vernon, who was shot dead by an unknown assassin while he was relieving guard. The wildest excitement prevailed throughout the camp as soon as the news of the assassination spread to the different tents, and the soldiers are frantic over the crime.

The point where the sergeant fell is known as Post 10, which was in charge of Corporal McDowell. It is situated on top of the hill near Little Italy, where armed strikers were seen drilling or marching about brandishing rifles and shotguns. The spot is high over the huge pile of masonry, and from it one can command a view of the country for miles on each side up and down the Croton valley. Douglass was talking to Corporal McDowell and the other members of the guard when he suddenly clasped his hands to his stomach and said:

"Load, boys; I'm shot," and then fell to the ground. It was pitch dark at the time, but McDowell and the others fired a volley into a clump of bushes nearby without hitting anyone. No one saw the flash or heard the sound of the shot which killed Douglass, and it was a most mysterious affair.

ITALIAN WIELDED

WEAPONS FATALITY.

Murdered Four Men and Wounded Two and Himself Probably Killed by a Train.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 17.—Four persons are dead and two are dangerously wounded at the mining town of Windber, near here, as the result of a drunken row in a disorderly house there. One Italian is charged with the wholesale crime, but it is believed that he is already beyond the reach of the law, as a man answering his description was ground under a train at South Fork.

The row occurred at the home of a French woman, known as Mrs. Stueck, until a couple of weeks ago, at which time she married an Italian. The place has been known as a "speakeasy."

The dead are: John Halverson, a Swede; Ed P. McCauley, an American; Gust Griebback, a Slav; Samuel Shives, an American.

Some of these are victims of a revolver and some of the deadly stiletto, the two wounded men, Thomas Kipling and "Jerk" Buckwalter, both being wounded with the latter instrument. There were a dozen or more men in the house when the affray occurred, but none of them can be found, and it is impossible to learn even the name of the murderer or any facts concerning him, beyond that he wore a slouch hat, slightly creased.

Mrs. Stueck and two other women, who were inmates of the house, are under arrest, and the place is being guarded by men with winchesters. Various stories are afloat as to the cause of the row, but the women refuse to talk. One story is that Mrs. Stueck angered the murderer by giving too much attention to other men, another that the fight was over a game of cards, and a third that it was the result of bad blood over the strike at the Horatio mine.

Rough treatment will probably be accorded the murderer if it proves that he is still alive and he is caught.

STRONG ACTION OF WOOD.

Wouldn't Let Cattle Trust Cut Off Havana's Meat Supply.

HAVANA, April 17.—In consequence of the recent action of the Havana municipality and of General Ludlow in breaking down the monopoly in the use of the slaughter house, held in trust for the cattle dealers, the latter threaten to cut off Havana's meat supply. General Wood had policemen occupy the slaughter house, keeping a section open to all who might wish to kill cattle there, and informing the members of the cattle trust that if they refused to supply cattle they would not be allowed in future to kill at the slaughter house.

Only one man refused to kill, and he was informed that he would not be allowed to use the slaughter house again.

A Blow at Boxing.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The board of police commissioners refused the application of the Coney Island Sporting Club, otherwise known as the Seaside Athletic club, for a permit from May 1 to Sep. 1, when the anti-boxing law, which was passed at the late session of the state legislature, will go into effect. The board's action is taken as an indication that all similar applications will be refused.

HORRORS OF FAMINE IN STRICKEN INDIA.

Millions Starving—Girls Sold by Parents to Mohammedans For Money to Buy Food.

BOSTON, April 17.—The Rev. Rockwell Clancy, a missionary at Allahabad, who is visiting his brother in Medford, said in part:

"The condition of famine stricken India today is something perfectly awful to contemplate. I cannot tell anything about the number dying, but when I left Bombay last February there were some 60,000,000 people suffering and over 30,000,000 were in dire distress and of these but 5,000,000 were receiving government aid.

"When the famine set in people began to sell everything they had that they might get a little grain for food. They took the doors from their houses and sold them; sold their furniture and farming utensils and then when they had no longer anything to sell, they sold their children. The boys don't sell well, and the traffic is largely in girls.

"I saw girls in one town just before I came away being sold for 30 cents apiece. But they won't buy the boys, so when the parents can no longer support their children they abandon them."

12 PLANTS SHUT DOWN.

The American Steel and Wire Company Compelled to Stop Operations Due to Labor Troubles.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Labor troubles in the building trades are stated by President John W. Lambert, of the American Steel and Wire company, as the reasons for orders issued closing down all the plants of the concern in the vicinity of Chicago, all those at Joliet, Ill., excepting the Rockdale mill, and the extensive plant at Anderson, Ind.

Twelve plants were ordered closed. Thousands of skilled workmen were temporarily suspended by the action of the wire magnates.

One of the plants shut down was located in Pittsburg.

BAN PLACED BY POPE.

Catholic Orders Prohibited Utterly From Dabbling In Politics.

PARIS, April 17.—The Rome correspondent of The Temps, in a dispatch that has almost official significance, said:

"The papal decision prohibiting the Assumptionists from continuing the editorial management of La Croix was arrived at after a solemn conclave of bishops and cardinals.

"Hereafter no religious congregation will be permitted to take any part in politics. This decision is binding upon Catholics all over the world, including the American Paulists."

Miller Found Guilty.

NEW YORK, April 17.—William F. Miller, of Franklin syndicate fame, was found guilty by a jury in the court in Brooklyn of grand larceny in the first degree for taking from Mrs. Katherine Mooser $1,000 which she invested in his 520 per cent scheme "to get rich quick." The prisoner was remanded for sentence a week from next Friday. His counsel stated that the case would be appealed.

Senator Hanna Not Ill.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., April 17.—The reports sent out from Norfolk to the effect that Senator Mark Hanna, who is staying at Old Point with Mrs. Hanna, Miss Hanna and Miss Wilson, their guest, had contracted a severe case of grippe and was confined to his room, is without foundation.

Altgeld the Chief Speaker.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 17.—Former Governor John P. Altgeld, of Illinois, was the principal speaker at the banquet given at the Stanwix hotel by the Bimetallic League of Albany in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson. He responded to the toast "What Would Jefferson Do?"

On Trial for a Woman's Death.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Alfred E. Morrison, a teacher of languages, was arraigned for trial at White Plains for the alleged murder of a woman with whom he lived in Mount Vernon. The defense is that the woman was killed by Morrison while he was in a somnambulist state.

Railroad List Made a Considerable Show of Strength—Heavy Selling in Iron.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The stock market, after making an indifferent struggle all day against the forces of depression, yielded all around in the last hour and closed under severe pressure and with prices on a rapidly descending scale. Transactions were large all day and the railroad list made a considerable show of strength in the opening dealings, but there was heavy selling in the iron and steel stocks.

Late in the day a rumor took form that there was to be extensive shutting down of plants in the great metal companies on the ground of overproduction, in anticipation of business during the early part of this year which had not materialized. American Steel and Wire and Federal Steel led the decline in point of activity and weakness. At the extreme declines in the group were Tennessee Coal and Iron, 9; Steel and Wire, 8½; Federal Steel, 7¼; American Hoop, 4¾. There were a few railroad stocks besides the southwestern group which made a stand against the weakness, but the majority of railroad stocks closed at from 1 to 2 points under Thursday's last prices.

The bond market was active and showed marked strength, which yielded only slightly to the late depressing influences. Total sales, par value, $2,385,000.

Chicago Wheat, Corn and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 17.—The wheat market was quiet but firm Monday, influenced by foreign damage reports, the corn strength and better foreign bids. May closing ¼c over Saturday. May corn closed ¾c up and May oats ¾c depressed. At the close provisions were from 5c higher in lard to 10c lower in pork.

The Carnegie library board will not hold a meeting until they are ready to look at plans for the new building. All plans must be submitted on or before May 1, and it is expected a large number will be received.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah A. Frederick returned to the city this morning after spending several weeks touring California. One of the last places they stopped was at Seattle, Wash.

F. L. Potts and W. J. Irwin went to Lisbon this morning, where they attended the funeral services over the remains of H. C. Robbins. They will return to the city this evening.

A special train carrying General Superintendent Scriven and party passed through the city this morning, going from Wellsville to Pittsburg. The party is completing the annual inspection of the Cleveland & Pittsburg road.

BELIEVED IN GHOSTS

DR. ELLIOTT COUES SAID THAT HE OFTEN SAW THEM.

The Famous Ornithologist's Description of the Spirit of a Dead Friend Who Appeared to and Converses With Him in His Room.

Dr. Elliott Coues, the famous ornithologist and member of the American Academy of Sciences, was long recognized as the foremost advocate of belief in the existence of ghosts. He had promised several of his friends that, if able to do so, he would appear to them after his own demise, and they are still waiting, with no little interest, to see if he can carry out the agreement.

"I have myself seen the ghosts of a good many dead persons," said the doctor one day. "I remember one occasion when I had just gone to bed, the light being turned out, I was composing myself to slumber when I suddenly became aware of a presence in the room. The impression conveyed to my mind was that it was the presence of a certain person lately deceased, with whom I had been on very intimate terms. In fact, I felt an overpowering sense of the nearness of the individual in question.

"About the same moment there arose slowly from the floor a nebulous mass of what looked like shining white vapor, which began to take shape, as did the smoke from the casket opened by the fisherman in the 'Arabian Nights' tales. Gradually it assumed a more distinct outline, until it presented a radiant image of my friend. The lips appeared to move, and from them came an intelligible utterance, a message in short, from the departed. I do not care to say what that message was.

"I can assure you that the vision was no dream, and the nature of the message was such as to eliminate, to my own satisfaction at all events, the theory of hallucination. What, then, was this shape of shining white vapor? Was it a human soul? It is a question pregnant with intense interest.

"Each of us, I believe, has in him a ghost, which ordinarily is confined to the precincts of the body. When I die, my ghost leaves my body permanently, and, having done so, perhaps it may continue to be the vehicle and means of expression of conscious will, memory and understanding. St. Paul says, 'There is a natural body and a spiritual body.' It is of the spiritual body that I am speaking.

"Our senses take cognizance of no forms of matter except those which are in a certain degree of condensation, but the spiritual body may be of a more rarefied and tenuous substance. The nonappearance of ghosts to us may be a question not of the existence of specters, but of the acuteness of our perceptive faculties.

"My own experience is that the coming of an apparition is always preceded by a curious sensation which I call the 'ghost chill.' When this symptom arrives, the threshold of consciousness seems to be shifted to the extent of rendering possible a perception of something ordinarily invisible. The change is usually very brief, lasting only a few seconds, during which the manifestation occurs.

"One reason that I have for believing the evidence of my own senses in this matter is that on several occasions the apparition of my own personality has presented itself to other persons in places where my body was not at the time. Some years ago I was in Chicago at an ordinary evening party with about 40 friends, when an individual in Washington, who did not even know where I was, was visited by my phantom and received from it a brief message stating where I was at the time and giving the names of two or three of the guests present—persons with whom the observer was unacquainted. This was one of the rare cases where a ghost made itself audible.

"You ask what would happen if one should approach a ghost such as I have described and try to touch it. My reply is that there would certainly be no danger in doing so, for specters never do anybody any harm, the fear of them entertained by most people being simply a dread of that which is unknown and not understood. Whatever is unknown is always terrible. But the phantom is composed of matter too tenuous to present any obstacle, and I do not doubt that it would dissolve and disappear if you attempted to walk through it."—Washington Post.

Not a "Pompous Prelate."

Bishop Gailor, at a banquet at which the bishop of Kentucky was present, told this story on the latter gentleman: "In one of the backwoods towns of Kentucky," said Bishop Gailor, "the pastor of the Baptist church gave out this notice before the sermon one Sunday morning:

"I am told and have been partially convinced," he said, "that it is my Christian duty to give the following notice—to wit: That a man who styles himself 'bishop of Kentucky' is about to visit this town and will hold forth in the courthouse on Wednesday evening. I desire to add, however, my brethren, that, in the humble opinion of your pastor, the place for members of this congregation on Wednesday night will be in this place listening to your own pastor rather than listening to the words of that pompous prelate at the courthouse."

"On the following Thursday morning the Baptist went out upon the street seeking for some of his congregation who had not been at the Wednesday evening meeting. The first one he found was a deacon.

"Well, deacon," he asked, "were you to the courthouse last night?"

"Yes," said the deacon.

"I trust," said the parson, with some irony in his tone, "you were edified by the words of the pompous prelate."

"Now, looky here, parson," said the deacon, "that man ain't no pompous prelate; no such thing. He's just as common as such is. What do you reckon he did? He preached in his shirt sleeves!"—Indianapolis Sentinel.

An Inimitable Feat.

The sailors of three men-of-war, American, French and British, while in the same harbor, were competing with each other for the best display of seamanship. A Yankee went to the top of the mainmast and stood there with an arm extended. A Frenchman then went aloft and extended both arms.

An Irishman on board the British ship thought if he could stand there with a leg and an arm extended he would be declared the most daring sailor. Nimble he mounted to the highest point and attempted to do so, but at the last moment lost his balance and fell through the rigging toward the deck.

The various ropes against which he came in contact broke his fall, and when near the deck he succeeded in grasping a rope. To this he hung for a couple of seconds and then dropped lightly on the deck, landing safely on his feet.

Folding his arms triumphantly, as if it were all in the programme, he glanced toward the rival ships and joyously exclaimed:

"There, you frog eating and pig sticking foreigners, beat that if you can!"—Collier's Weekly.

Legend of the Violin.

An ancient legend tells us that one day as Orpheus, son of Apollo and the muse Calliope, was walking by the sea, trilling in soft cadence a song taught him by the celebrated teacher Linos, he was attracted by the sound of sweet music, which seemed but the echo of his own glorious voice. He walked along, singing, and the sound approached, as if to meet him, till finally it sang at his very feet.

Glancing down, he saw the shell of a turtle, which had been cast high and dry upon the beach and left there by the receding waves. The little thing had died and dried up so that only the sinews, shriveled to strings, and the shell remained. The dried up sinews were tightly stretched across the hollow shell, and the wind, as it listed, touched the strings, causing them to vibrate over the shell sounding board and give forth the sweet, sad tones.

Enchanted, he bore his treasure home and from it fashioned the viol shell, with which he ever after accompanied his voice, and the nymph Eurydice, enchanted by its magic, became his bride. —National Magazine.

George Gould's Ready Wit.

I heard a story about George Gould which goes to show that the possession of great wealth doesn't necessarily preclude the possession of a passing ready wit. It was several or even more years ago, while the elder Gould was still alive, that a woman I know met George Gould at a dinner. He was presented to her quite casually, and she did not catch his name. Conversation turned on operations in Wall street, and the woman I am speaking of launched out into a perfect torrent of ladylike abuse of Jay Gould. Ev-

Body building, as they understood it in Greece and Rome, seems a lost art. Young men flat chested, flabby muscled, slouch along the streets, with scarcely one physical attribute of manhood. And yet these young men would like to be well muscled, supple, erect and hardy. But they don't know how to go about it. They try dumb bells, rowing and boxing, but only in a half hearted way. These sports should be play to them but are really work. The main factor in this condition is an ill nourished body. The stomach is not working properly. The digestive and nutritive organs are not in active health. The result is that the nutrition for the body is not distributed in proper proportions to make blood, bone and muscle.

Weak young men who take a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will find a marked change in their physical strength and energy. The body will be built up so that gymnastics will not tax and tire them, but be the natural exercise enjoyed by muscles which are nourished into firm health.

In a letter received from A. D. Weller, Esq., of Pensacola, Escambia Co., Fla. (Box 544), he states: "I have, since receiving your diagnosis of my case as stomach trouble and liver complaint taken eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and must say that I am transformed from a walking shadow (as my friends called me) to perfect health. I value your remedies very highly and take pleasure in recommending them to any and all who suffer as I did. Four months ago I did not think to be in shape to assist our 'Uncle Samuel' in case of hostilities, but thanks to you, I am now ready for the 'Dons.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

Everybody tried to stop her, but she perceived nothing except that people were looking at the young man. Turning to him, she asked:

"Do you know Jay Gould?"

"Well, yes," he said; "I've had some business dealings with him."—Washington Post.

The College Bone Man.

Two young men who must have been medical students boarded an Angora car late one night with a fully articulated skeleton. Each had one arm linked with that of the skeleton, whose bones rattled gressomely as they walked to the forward end of the car and gravely seated themselves with their inanimate companion between them. Between the grinning teeth of the skeleton was a cigarette, and a derby hat adorned its shining skull. The car was rather crowded, and the other passengers, most of whom were men, gazed in open mouthed astonishment at the strange spectacle. The two young fellows, however, pretended to be unconscious of their surroundings and held such converse with the skeleton as "Too bad you didn't wear your mackintosh, Bill; I'm afraid you'll catch cold," or, "Say, Bill, better throw away your cigarette or the conductor will put you off."

When the conductor came through for the fares, one of the young men handed him 15 cents, and he rang up three fares without a word of comment. At Sixteenth street a young girl entered the car and looked around for a seat. "Here, Bill," exclaimed one of the students, "where's your gallantry? Get up and give the lady a seat." Then he yanked the skeleton out of its place and set it on his knees. The girl gave one screech, fled to the back platform and insisted that the conductor stop the car and put her off.

"Gee, Bill!" remarked the student, gazing reproachfully into the skeleton's face. "You've deteriorated. You used to be quite a lady's man." Then everybody laughed. —Philadelphia Record.

Adams and Sculpture.

President John Quincy Adams once asserted that he would not give 50 cents for all the works of Phidias and Praxiteles, adding, "I hope America will not think of sculpture for two centuries to come."

When some one quoted this to William Morris Hunt, he asked dryly, "Does that sum of money really represent Mr. Adams' estimate of the sculpture of those artists or the value which he places upon 50 cents?"

When a man wants to break away, the first symptom is his declaration to the girl that he is afraid he cannot make her as happy as she deserves. —Aitchison Globe.
